B. Diversity in Recruitment

WETA values diversity and continues to hire individuals from diverse backgrounds to increase and improve our workforce. All open positions are posted on job boards that reach a diverse audience and skill set. This reporting year, WETA partnered with America's Job Exchange (AJE) to increase the reach of our job postings. With AJE, all WETA job openings are posted to the AJE main job board, Veteran's Job Exchange, Disability Job Exchange, Job Opportunities for Disabled Veterans, and AJE's site DisabledPerson.com. In addition, our jobs are sent to a number of community-based organizations, including, but not limited to: 40Plus of Greater Washington, Arlington

Employment Center, SOME Center for Employment Training, Southern MD JobSource – Waldorf, and United Cerebral Palsy. WETA also continues to post job openings to media specific sites such as Women in Film and Video, National Association of Black Journalists, and National Hispanic Media Coalition.

In December 2018 WETA began a relationship with Onward to Opportunity/Hire Heroes USA. Partnering with these organizations allows for more targeted outreach to veterans, transitioning military, and military spouses. As a Partner Employer, WETA has a dedicated manager from Hire Heroes USA who helps identify and recommend potential candidates from the Onward to Opportunity program for our open positions.

C. Community Outreach for Employment and Volunteer Opportunities

WETA provides facility tours of its radio and television production centers to a variety of organizations within the D.C. metropolitan area. During these tours, WETA discusses its operations, and opportunities for employment and volunteering. WETA hosted approximately 30 tours in the year beginning June 1, 2018 to groups including, but not limited to the following:

- NHP’s Student Reporting Labs Academy participant high school students;
- Student Reporting Labs volunteer teachers;
- Students from Dominion High School in Sterling, VA;
- PBS and WETA interns;

- Individuals from other public and private media organizations.

D. Internship, Fellowship, and Apprenticeship Programs

WETA offers a variety of programs for students and recent graduates in various fields of WETA and NHP’s business including, online and broadcast news production, local television program production, corporate marketing, and outreach and community engagement, among others.

Internship Programs

Each internship is designed to provide students and recent graduates with practical work experience, and educational and learning opportunities in the field of public broadcasting. WETA organizes several opportunities for interns to meet with department representatives to learn more about public broadcasting job opportunities and career paths.

Throughout the reporting period, WETA hosted 11 interns from 9 educational institutions:

- Bryn Mawr College
- College of William & Mary
- Colorado School of Mines
- George Mason University

- Georgetown University
- Howard University
- Johns Hopkins University
- University of California, Berkeley
- University of Maryland, College Park

Fellowship Programs

The Gwen Ifill Washington Week Fellowship

This fellowship is in memory of the late Gwen Ifill, host and moderator of Washington Week. The fellowship is a five to six month paid position for individuals to gain hands-on, real-world experience working on Washington Week, the longest running news analysis program on PBS. During the reporting period, two recent graduates from Columbia University and Amherst College participated in this fellowship program.

The Gwen Ifill/PBS NewsHour Journalism Fellowship

The Washington Press Club Foundation renewed funding in 2019 for the third annual Gwen Ifill/PBS NewsHour Journalism Fellowship. This is a paid, ten-week fellowship for a college or graduate student interested in journalism, who receives need-based financial assistance from his/her educational institution. The 2018 recipient of this fellowship began the position in May 2018 and completed the position in August 2018. The 2018 recipient was a student from the University of North Texas, and was selected from a pool of 39 applicants. The 2019 recipient was selected from a pool of 13 applicants and will begin the position on May 28, 2019. He has an undergraduate degree from the University of Rwanda and is current working toward a Master's degree from Georgetown University.

Apprenticeship Program

NHP's News Assistant Program is a twelve-month program in which participants work with producers on field shoots, research stories and potential interview subjects, log video feeds, and complete general duties associated with the news desk. The program is aimed at providing practical experience in both the broadcast and online news setting. Ten people have participated in the program since June 1, 2018.

E. Employee Training Programs

Tuition Reimbursement

WETA continues to offers all regular, full-time employees tuition reimbursement for courses related to his/her current position. Each course must be taken at an accredited institution and upon successful completion of the course, WETA will reimburse the employee. Since June 2018, four employees have taken advantage of this program.

Career Development Training

WETA encourages staff members, along with his/her manager, to identify certifications, seminars, and other learning opportunities that will advance the employee's knowledge and skills in his/her profession. Examples of training provided by the company during the reporting year include:

WETA offers an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) to support employee work-life balance. Participation in the program is confidential and is designed to offer professional help to employees and members of their immediate families living in the same household. The EAP offers considerable professional training through Skill Builders and Online Seminars on topics for employees and managers, such as:

- Interpersonal Skills
- Effective Management
- Career Development
- Training and Development
- Workplace Diversity
- Workplace Productivity
- Workplace Safety
- Career Transition
- Bridging Generation Gaps
- Addressing Workplace Incivility
- Communicating with Cross-Cultural Colleagues
- Managing a Diverse Staff

WETA staff has also participated in various industry-wide meetings. These meetings include the PBS Annual Meeting, National Association of Broadcasters Conference, PBS Tech Con, Workplace Culture Conference, HR Workshop, Public Media Business Association, Online News Association, Non-Profit Executive Forum – Purpose Matters, Inclusion and Culture Workshop, and American Association for the Advancement of Science Annual Meeting.

F. Staff Training on Diversity in the Workplace and Preventing Harassment

Every WETA staff member must, at the time of hiring, complete online training programs covering the prevention of discrimination and harassment in the workplace and workplace diversity. These trainings help staff identify and recognize behavior that may be discriminatory or harassing, and empowers staff to report behaviors that may constitute discrimination or harassment. Additionally, the training offers managers the knowledge and skills required to ensure equal employment opportunities and to manage staff legally and fairly. In September 2018, all WETA staff members hired prior to June 1, 2018 were required to repeat both the prevention of discrimination and harassment in the workplace and workplace diversity trainings, ensuring that all staff members have the most updated information.
