I think that he defrauded the voting public because I think when he was running for election, he ran on thoughtful reform. reporter: head deputy district attorneys maria ramirez and victor rodriguez say they've had a front row seat to more than a year of what they now say has been dysfunction inside the l.a. county district attorney's office. they say they were optimistic about the start of gascon's tenure when each of them led large divisions of the d.a.'s office, supervising the prosecutions of murders, sex crimes and complicated felonies. he won the election. the people wanted reform. I accepted that. I really was looking forward to making some meaningful changes. reporter: after gascon unseated jackie lacy in 2020, he immediately issued a variety of orders. no more death penalty prosecutions. no use of prior convictions of gang involvement or guns to increase sentences, and no one under 18 prosecuted as an adult, no matter the circumstances. the orders were designed to reduce jail or prison time in new cases and for those already convicted, but ramirez and rodriguez say they believe it's also contributed to l.a.'s recent spike in violent crime. I definitely think that although george gascon and his policies are not the only reason for the increase in crime, they definitely are significant contributing force to it.
