

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer held periodic news conferences, updating the actions the state of Michigan has taken to combat and prevent the spread of the virus. These news conferences were carried as a public service by WMPL-AM (and simulcast on translator W297CD) in the interest of public health.

Topics included, but were not limited to, updates to the state's case total, death total, Stay-At-Home restrictions, re-opening efforts, and Executive Orders signed in relation to the progression of the pandemic. Whitmer's opening comments would typically last in the range of 15 minutes, at which point she would yield time to the state's medical advisor and other guests that might be in attendance.

Dates and times of the news conferences carried by WMPL-AM (and simulcast on translator W297CD), provided by the Michigan State Police via social media streaming, are listed below (all times EDT).

Lisa M. Brosseau, PhD, expert on respiratory protection and infectious diseases, Certified Industrial Hygienist, former Director of the Illinois Education and Research Center and the Director of the Center for Healthy Work, both at the University of Illinois Chicago School of Public Health

Prof. Brosseau spent decades studying the efficacy and fit of surgical masks and respirators, and the airborne transmission of infectious disease. She said there is no scientific basis for the general public to use cloth masks to prevent COVID-19. She explained why there is a great difference between the use of masks in medical settings vs going to the grocery store. She is concerned that authorities who are ordering the use of bandanas and the like are not taking the issue seriously, and that masks may cause the public to disregard physical distancing.

SEGMENT 2:	SERVED UP: POETRY WITH A SIDE OF DARK HUMOR	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	1,000,000 animal and plant species now face the threat of extinction. As more than 2,000 years ago, The Epic of Gilgamesh is thought to be the oldest epic poem ever written, created in 2000 BCE. Throughout time, poetry has stayed constant, with greats like Walt Whitman, Emily Dickinson and Henry Thoreau publishing cherished works still topical today. John Kenney is a modern poet whose work is frequently featured in the New Yorker. He’s best known for his collection of Love Poems for Married People and joins Viewpoints this week to share his many musings and provide some words of advice when it comes to writing. 80 percent of all global biodiversity lives on private land, what is the role of corporations when it comes to protecting these endangered species? Viewpoints speaks with Margaret O’Gorman, president of the Wildlife Habitat Council, about the creative and adaptive policies companies can take to make a difference.	15:42	7:15

SEGMENT 1:	THE MURDER OF GEORGE FLOYD: A DEEPENING PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS		Time	Duration
Synopsis:	George Floyd was 46 years old when he was murdered on the street by ex-Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin. The father of five moved to the Midwest city in 2014 where he worked driving a truck and providing security at a local restaurant. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Floyd lost his security job. On May 25, Floyd was suspected of using a counterfeit $20 bill at a local store and officers were called to the scene. The question remains: how can a simple police call lead to the killing of an unarmed and unresisting man? For weeks, protests and outrage have spread across the U.S. and internationally as the killing of Floyd brings racial inequality and police brutality into focus once again. Even in the midst of a pandemic, people are showing up to say they're fed up with the lack of equal justice, rights and opportunities for all.		1:47	10:12
