

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Community Support

Program/Segment:

United Way of the Pennyrile/Judy's Hope/American Red Cross

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, September 30 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, October 1 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Betsy Bond, Executive Director of the United Way of the Pennyrile. Bond talked about the nonprofit agencies of the organization and the work they do supporting those in need in the community and the new fundraising campaign.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Karen Powers, the founder of Judy's Hope. Powers talked about the organization which is building tiny houses for women and children to help them from becoming homeless.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Lori Ann Tinajero, Executive Director of the Tennessee Chapter of the American Red Cross. Tinajero discussed the need for blood donations for the Red Cross and the upcoming sound the alarm campaign to install free smoke alarms in homes that do not have them.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Health/Community Support/Local Government Support

Program/Segment:

American Cancer Society/City of Clarksville Human Resources/Judy's Hope/United Way of the Pennyrile

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, October 7 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, October 8 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Tammy Thrash, Program Coordinator for the American Cancer Society After Breast Cancer Program. Thrash spoke about October being Breast Cancer Awareness Month and how the After Breast Cancer Program supports victims of breast cancer and their families.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Tessa Luntz, Human Resources Director for the City of Clarksville. Luntz talked about the many facets of the Human Resources office and how it serves city personnel and the community.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Karen Powers, the founder of Judy's Hope. Powers talked about the organization which is building tiny houses for women and children to help them from becoming homeless.

The fourth segment of the program was an interview with Betsy Bond, Executive Director of the United Way of the Pennyrile. Bond talked about the nonprofit agencies of the organization and the work they do supporting those in need in the community and the new fundraising campaign.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Education/Health/Community Support

Program/Segment:

Clarksville-Montgomery County School System/Clarksville Association for Down Syndrome/American Red Cross

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, October 14 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, October 15 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Becky Padgett, Director of Curriculum and Instruction for Grades 9-12 for the Clarksville-Montgomery County School System. Padgett discussed the Tennessee Promise Program. Tennessee Promise is a scholarship and mentoring program encouraging students to seek postsecondary education.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Patricia Hannah, Executive Director of the Clarksville Association for Down Syndrome. Hannah talked about the nonprofit organization and their upcoming Community Cares Walk and Expo fundraising event.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Aaron Yow, Board Chairman for the local chapter Tennessee River Chapter of the American Red Cross. Yow discussed the success of the organization's recent Sound the Alarm-Save a Life Campaign, installing free smoke detectors in resident's homes in the community. Yow also discussed the need for blood donations from the community.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Homelessness and Hunger/Health/Community Support

Program/Segment:

Hopkinsville Salvation Army/United Way of the Greater Clarksville Region/Clarksville Association for Down Syndrome

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, October 21 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, October 22 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Lieutenant Lindsey Galabeas with the Hopkinsville Salvation Army. Lieutenant Galabeas spoke about the work of the Salvation Army helping the homeless and those who are hungry. Lieutenant Galabeas also talked about upcoming holiday fundraisers for the organization like the Angel Tree Program and the Red Kettle Campaign.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Valerie Guzman, CEO of the United Way of the Greater Clarksville Region. Guzman discussed the agency's new adopt-A-Family Program offering both financial and emotional support for local families over the holidays.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Patricia Hannah, Executive Director of the Clarksville Association for Down Syndrome. Hannah talked about the nonprofit organization and their upcoming Community Cares Walk and Expo fundraising event.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Military and Veteran Support/Education/Health

Program/Segment:

USO Fort Campbell/Clarksville-Montgomery County School System/American Cancer Society

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, October 28 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, October 29 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Ann Jarvis, Executive Director of USO Fort Campbell. Jarvis talked about the organization's efforts to support the military, their families and veterans at Fort Campbell and the communities surrounding the military installation.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Becky Padgett, Director of Curriculum and Instruction for Grades 9-12 for the Clarksville-Montgomery County School System. Padgett discussed the Tennessee Promise Program. Tennessee Promise is a scholarship and mentoring program encouraging students to seek postsecondary education.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Tammy Thrash, Program Coordinator for the American Cancer Society After Breast Cancer Program. Thrash spoke about October being Breast Cancer Awareness Month and how the After Breast Cancer Program supports victims of breast cancer and their families.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Education

Program/Segment:

American Field Service Intercultural Team

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, November 4 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, November 5 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The program was an interview with Barbara Wills with the American Field Service Intercultural Team and Chairman of the Tennessee-Kentucky region. Wills shared details about the organization and its work with exchange students traveling to and from our area and students travel involving other nations.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Foster Care and Adoption/Military and Veteran Support/Illegal Scam Activity

Program/Segment:

Youth Villages/Stewart County Veteran Commission/Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, November 11 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, November 12 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Samantha Jones and Melissa Oheim with Youth Villages about November which is national adoption month. Both Jones and Oheim talked about the work of the organization in the community helping with Foster Care and Adoption for children and families,

The second segment of the program was an interview with Dana Chango and Fred Shaw with the Stewart County Veteran Commission. Both Chango and Shaw discussed the work of the Veteran Commission in Stewart County to increase support, recognition and awareness of the county's large veteran population.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Lorneth Peters, Director of Marketing and Communication for the Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky. Peters discussed holiday scams that are being carried out, especially those on the internet, that the public should be aware of and avoid.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Military and Veteran Support/Illegal Scam Activity

Program/Segment:

Wreaths Across America/Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, November 18 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, November 19 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Angie Sykes, Director of Riverview Cemetery. Sykes discussed the upcoming Wreaths Across America at the cemetery to honor and remember fallen veterans and their families.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Dana Koverman, Director of Greenwood Cemetery. Koverman talked about the upcoming Wreaths Across America at the cemetery to honor and remember fallen veterans and their families.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Lorneth Peters. Director of Marketing and Communication for the Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky. Peters discussed holiday scams that are being carried out, especially those on the internet, that the public should be aware of and avoid.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Homelessness and Community Support/Holiday Support for Children and Families Local /Economic Support

Program/Segment:

Clarksville Salvation Army/Toys For Tots/Clarksville Area Chamber of Commerce

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, November 25 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, November 26 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the interview was with Major Kati Chase with the Clarksville Area Chamber of Commerce. Major Chase talked about the work of the Salvation Army helping the homeless and those who are in need. Major Chase also talked about upcoming holiday fundraisers for the organization like the Angel Tree Program and Red Kettle Campaign.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Jo Kohler, Local Coordinator for Toys For Tots. Kohler talked about the nonprofit's work to make sure that every child in the community receives a toy for Christmas.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Melinda Shepard, Executive Director of the Clarksville area Chamber of Commerce. Shepard spoke about the economic importance of the community to support local and small businesses throughout the hoidays.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Homelessness and Community Support/Holiday Support for Children and Families/Local Economic Support

Program/Segment:

Clarksville Salvation army/Toys for Tots/Clarksville Area Chamber of Commerce

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, December 2 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, December 3 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM)

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the interview was with Major Kati Chase with the Clarksville Area Chamber of Commerce. Major Chase talked about the work of the Salvation Army helping the homeless and those who are in need. Major Chase also talked about upcoming holiday fundraisers for the organization like the Angel Tree Program and Red Kettle Campaign.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Jo Kohler, Local Coordinator for Toys For Tots. Kohler talked about the nonprofit's work to make sure that every child in the community receives a toy for Christmas.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Melinda Shepard, Executive Director of the Clarksville area Chamber of Commerce. Shepard spoke about the economic importance of the community to support local and small businesses throughout the holidays.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Homelessness, Hunger and Community Support/

Program/Segment:

Radical Mission Compassionate Ministries/Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky/Christian County Chamber of Commerce

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, December 9 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, December 10 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Jon Vaughn with Radical Mission Compassionate Ministries. Vaughn talked about the upcoming Warm Souls Christmas. The event supports the fight against homelessness and hunger with a free event for those in need.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Tornado Disaster Relief

Program/Segment:

American Red Cross/Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, December 16 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, December 17 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Sherry McKinney, Regional Director of Communications for the American Red Cross. McKinney is part of the Local Tennessee River Chapter of the Red Cross. Mckinney talked about the work of the organization helping people and families affected by the December 9th tornado in Clarksville.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Robyn Householder, Executive Director of the Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky. Householder spoke with me about being wary of scammers trying to take advantage of people and businesses that have suffered loss or damage from the December 9th tornado.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Tornado Disaster Relief

Program/Segment:

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)/United Way of the Greater Clarksville Region/U.S. Small Business Administration

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, December 23 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, December 24 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM))

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Paul Corah, Public Information Officer for FEMA discussed the many different types of support and disaster relief the agency offers victims of the December 9th tornado.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Valerie Guzman, CEO of the United Way of the Greater Clarksville Region. Guzman spoke about the services offered by the organization and support United Way agencies are sharing with the community for those affected by the December 9th tornado.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Lorneth Peters, Director of Marketing and Communication for the Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky. Peters discussed holiday scams that are being carried out, especially those on the internet, that the public should be aware of and avoid.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Taylor Hayes, President of the of the Christian County Chamber of Commerce. Hayes spoke about the economic importance of the community to support local and small businesses throughout the holidays.

QUARTERLY ISSUES - PROGRAM LIST

The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WRND-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM and WNZE AM & FM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1 – December 31, 2023.

Description of Issue:

Tornado Disaster Relief

Program/Segment:

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)/United Way of the Greater Clarksville Region/U.S. Small Business Administration

Date Program Aired:

Saturday, December 30 (WRND-FM)

Sunday, December 31 (WCVQ-FM/WVVR-FM/WZZP-FM/WQEZ-AM, WKFN-AM, and WNZE AM & FM)

Time Program Aired:

6:00 a.m.

Duration/Narration of type and Description of Program:

Community Corner is a 30-Minute pre-recorded program.

The first segment of the program was an interview with Paul Corah, Public Information Officer for FEMA discussed the many different types of support and disaster relief the agency offers victims of the December 9th tornado.

The second segment of the program was an interview with Valerie Guzman, CEO of the United Way of the Greater Clarksville Region. Guzman spoke about the services offered by the organization and support United Way agencies are sharing with the community for those affected by the December 9th tornado.

The third segment of the program was an interview with Tauheedah Mateen, with the Small Business Administration (SBA). Mateen said the SBA is assisting not only businesses, but also individuals and families who have suffered loss and damage in clarksville from the December 9th tornado.