

WWEV_3rd_Qtr_2022_Issues_Report

91.5 FM WWEV CUMMING, GA

Quarterly Issues Programs List

Date goes here

Placed in the Public File 10.02.22

WWEV provides our listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding quarter were:

| Issue Description             | Program/Segment  | Date | Time   | Duration | Description  |
|-------------------------------|------------------|------|--------|----------|--|
| Sex Trafficking               | Q in the Morning | 8/12 | 7a-10a | 3hours   | Sisters of Grace founders, James and Emily Leatherbarrow, joined Q during the morning show to share about their frontline ministry that is working to fight human trafficking in Southeast Asia. |
| Helping Fight Drug Addiction  | Q in the Morning | 8/19 | 8a-10a | 2hous    | No Longer Bound Executive Director Ben Tison and his wife Lauren talked about of one of the nation's leading drug and alcohol addiction recovery programs for men.                               |
| Helping Ukrainian Refuges     | Q in the Morning | 9/21 | 8a-10a | 2hours   | Philip Cameron of The Orphans Hands ministry helped us kick off the Coats By Christmas coat drive to help send coats, gloves, and hats to keep refugees warm this winter.                        |
| Protection of Unborn Children | Q in the Morning | 9/27 | 8a-10a | 2 hours  | Scott Wilder from Pre-Born provided vital information on how to get involved in the pro-life movement and help save babies lives.  |
|                               |                  |      |        |          |  |

Staff from WWEV meets every quarter with The Forsyth Alliance. The Alliance is a group of civic, charitable, and religious leaders that seeks to identify the most pressing needs in Forsyth County.

WWEV also provides free publicity on the radio and the internet to a wide variety of charitable and non-profit agencies.