Placed in the Public File January 6, 2023

WWEV provides our listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding quarter were:

Issue Description	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The impact of local churches	All Dayparts	10/10 - 10/14	Various	Various	Over 20 pastors were able to share what they do for our community and how listeners could get involved.
How to combat sex trafficking	Morning Show	10/19	7a-9a	2hours	Greg Clay of Frontline Response shared the importance of the mindset of our youth in this fight, the power of leading with our heart and so much more.
Support Local Charities	Morning Show	11/29	7a-10a	3hours	The need and opportunity to support local charities and their vital work was highlighted on Giving Tuesday.

Staff from WWEV meets every quarter with The Forsyth Alliance. The Alliance is a group of civic, charitable and religious leaders that seeks to identify the most pressing needs in Forsyth County.

WWEV also provides free publicity on the radio and the internet to a wide variety of charitable and non-profit agencies.
