Quarterly Issues Programs List

Date goes here

Placed in the Public File April 4, 2022

WWEV provides our listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding quarter were:

Issue Description	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Proper Nutrition	Morning Show	1/24	7a-9a	2 hrs	Sue Becker was our guest talking about improving family nutrition.
Helping those in addiction recovery	Multiple	Multiple	Multiple	Multiple	We held a month-long shoe drive to provide funding for area addiction recovery programs.
Help for Ukraine	Morning Show	2/25	7a-10a	3 hrs	We had pastors from some local churches (with Ukrainian members) come in and discuss how we could help people who were fleeing war-torn Ukraine.
Children's Mental Health	Focus On The Family	3/24	10p-10:30p	30 min	Counselor Debra Fileta answered some general questions on mental and emotional health, covering topics like toxic people, codependency, anxiety and depression, and getting professional help.

Staff from WWEV meets every quarter with The Forsyth Alliance. The Alliance is a group of civic, charitable, and religious leaders that seeks to identify the most pressing needs in Forsyth County.

WWEV also provides free publicity on the radio and the internet to a wide variety of charitable and non-profit agencies.
