DATE	ISSUE	GUEST AND DESCRIPTION
January 4 & 11, 2020	Symptoms and Care during Flu Season	Host: Virginia Beehn Guest: Dr. Paul Griffin, MD., Family Medicine Physician, Adventist Health Medical Office, Coalinga, CA. www.adventisthealth.org Description: Colds and flu are different. Colds come on quickly with stuffiness and coughing. Flu is caused by a virus and produces body aches and fever. You can avoid the flu by getting a flu shot, available through the Health Dept. or your doctor and by washing your hands frequently. If you get the flu, stay home, sleep a lot, and drink plenty of liquids. Take pain medicine if needed to reduce the fever and aches and pains.

DATE	ISSUE	GUEST AND DESCRIPTION
January 4, 2020	Being aware of what your investments support and investing with biblical integrity. (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Mark Minnella, President and Co-Founder, National Association of Christian Financial Consultants (Skippack, PA). www.nacfc.org Description: Mark Minnella discussed biblical stewardship and that everything we do is “an act of worship or an act of rebellion.” He shared how the opportunity to invest in a way that honors God is present when we invest our money, but cautioned listeners to be aware of what the investments support and the importance of investing with biblical integrity.
January 11, 2020	The importance of motherhood and understanding how much moms may influence a household. (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Emily Jensen, Co-Founder and Co-Host for Podcasts, Risen Motherhood (Ames, IA). www.risenmotherhood.com Description: Risen Motherhood exists to encourage, equip, and challenge mothers to apply the Gospel to their everyday lives. She shared examples on how moms can be a powerful Christian influence on their children and in their home by instilling moral values, as well as their Biblical responsibility when raising a family – to carry on the message of God from one generation to the next.

“FAMILY NEWS TODAY”
A 2-Minute Program Heard Weekdays*
at 5:57AM, 6:57AM, 7:57AM, & 8:57AM
January – March, 2020

DATE	ISSUE	DESCRIPTION
January 3, 2020	New Sight for the Visually Impaired	Host: Jason Frentsos Description: After seeing the world change before his eyes through a pair of colorblind glasses, a seventh grader “Jonathan” was helping others experience the beauty of creation as it was meant to be seen. The glasses allow the colorblind to see the bright hues they've been missing. Hoping to help others, the Jonathan’s family set up a GoFundMe with a goal of $350. They’ve received over $32,000 in donations, nearly 100 times more than what was asked.
January 6, 2020	Homelessness	Host: Jason Frentsos Description: One California teenager is transforming homeless children’s lives, bringing joy to them in ways that otherwise would never have been possible. Seventeen-year-old “Tanvi” started the nonprofit, No Birthday Left Behind , as a way to give decorations, food, games, presents, and more to children in need. With nearly 700 volunteers at her side, Tanvi has helped celebrate 50 parties across 4 states.
January 7, 2020	Improving Quality of Life for the Disabled Community	Host: Jason Frentsos Description: An 11-year boy in Tennessee born without hands entered the New Year with a new grip on life. He received the gift of custom-made 3D printed hands that he can use to grip and hold things for the first time! “Gavin” is now able to raise a glass using his new prosthetic... and it’s all thanks to the loving support of his mother who asked for help on Facebook. Not long after, a team of 3D engineers took up the challenge and designed the hands for Gavin within a year!
January 8, 2020	Childhood Literacy	Host: Jason Frentsos Description: A Massachusetts high school junior recently completed a project building "kindness libraries" at local elementary schools in memory of an 8-year-old boy who died in the 2013 Boston Marathon bombing. The books in the kindness libraries will reflect the values of “Richard,” who became known for appearing in a photo holding a sign that read "No more hurting people. Peace." The libraries will be stocked with children's books, which can be borrowed for free.

DATE	ISSUE	DESCRIPTION
January 10, 2020	Empathy for the Homeless	Host: Jason Frentsos Description: “Chase” was 4 years old when he first noticed a homeless person while with his dad at an outdoor shopping mall. Asking his dad if they could get to know them better, the two decided to begin take some out to lunch a few times a week for a burger and fries or tacos. More than 150 lunches later, John Hanson and his son now run a self-funded charity called Project Empathy, hoping to inspire others to create friendships with homeless people in their own neighborhoods.
January 13, 2020	Wildfire Relief	Host: Jason Frentsos Description: As wildfires rage across Australia, sewing machines are whirring around the globe to aid Australian baby kangaroos who’ve lost their mothers in the fires. The sewing crafters are making protective cloth pouches for the young marsupials to help them recover. When Kim Santry, a Northern California resident who suffered through the Camp Fire, heard about the animals need, she sprang into action, finding patterns to sew together for joey sacks. But with over 1 billion animals affected by the fires, Kim says that organizations like Wildcare Australia are still in desperate need for more crafted items and other donations.
