

KDNK Q2 2021 QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST

1. Environment and Water

Middle Colorado Watershed Council on For Land's Sake

October 12, 2021 at 4:30 PM MDT 25:22

KDNK | By Bill Kight

Host Bill Kight talks with Morgan Hill, the president of the Middle Colorado Watershed Council and she will tell us what's happening along the middle Colorado River.

Bill Kight hosts "For Land's Sake" on the second Tuesday of every month. The show features guests sharing thoughts on their personal connection to the land.

2. Youth and Environment

Colorado Mountain College Sustainability Students Tackling Big Issues

October 18, 2021 at 4:00 PM MDT 24:28

KDNK | By Adele Craft

This is the first of a monthly series and collaboration between the Andy Zanca Youth Empowerment Program, the Colorado Mountain College Sustainability Studies Program and KDNK. AZYEP's Adele Craft talks with CMC's Wofly Draper, Sheehan Meagher and Professor and Dean of Students, Adrian Fielder, about the program and sustainability issues.

3. Diversity, Native Americans and Public Lands

Valley Voices: Regina Lopez-Whiteskunk on Bears Ears

October 20, 2021 at 2:12 PM MDT

KDNK | By Amy Hadden Marsh

Regina Lopez-Whiteskunk, former head councilwoman of the Ute Mountain Ute Nation, former co-chair of the Inter-Tribal Coalition on Bears Ears, and now cross-culture program manager for the Montezuma Land Conservancy, talks with Amy Hadden Marsh about the recent restoration of the boundaries of Bears Ears National Monument.

4. Drug Addiction, Recovery and Mental Health

Chemical World: Interview with Vanessa Lane

November 8, 2021, at 4:30 PM MST 27:37

KDNK | By Maggie Seldeen

Hosts Kenna Crampton and Maggie Seldeen interview Peer Recovery Coach from Mindsprings Health, Vanessa Lane. Chemical World aims to de-stigmatize drug addiction and mental health, discuss different recovery models and harm reduction programs and explore evidence-based practices in treating addiction. Topics will include the history of drug laws, connections between poverty and drug addiction as well as personal recovery stories.

5. Housing, Short Term Rental Policy and Land Conservation

Everything Under the Sun: Colorado Wild Public Lands and More

Published December 9, 2021 at 4:00 PM MST 26:30

This week, Sopris Sun staff check in with Community First Carbondale, a newly-formed group advocating to limit short-term rentals, and land swap watchdog Colorado Wild Public Lands. Sopris Sun contributors talk about the most recent weekly edition of the non-profit, independent newspaper.