

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report
for Fourth Quarter 2020 – WICL - 95.9

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Local History; Breast Cancer Awareness; Philanthropy

Date/Time/Duration October 04, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: -- Historian Steve French on the RedHeaded Woman Mystery in Morgan County
- Maria Brown - Breast Cancer Fundraiser is first of its kind in Shepherdstown.

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Community Happenings; Higher Education; Faith; Mental Health

Date/Time/Duration: October 11, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: -- Blue Ridge Community and Technical College Chef Steve Weiss on making it to the finale of Halloween Wars on the Food Network; Pastor Chris Jones of Hope Community Church talks about making it through valleys; the election cycle; COVID-19 restrictions

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Elections; Economic Development

Date/Time/Duration:, October 18, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: -- Darrell Shull, who oversees Berkeley County Voter Registration and Elections talks voter safety and ballot security; House Speaker Pro Tempore Darryl Cowles who is also Economic Development Authority Director in Morgan County updates us on the 522 Bypass and the $25 million improvements to Cacapon State Park - also there is an update on the entire city block that may become a 60-bed treatment facility..

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Local History; Philanthropy; Feeding the Vulnerable and Homebound

Date/Time/Duration:, October 25, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - George Didawick talks about the Silica mining industry in Morgan County.
Dianne Waldron talks about a pie fundraiser for Meals on Wheels..

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report
for Fourth Quarter 2020 – WICL - 95.9

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: City Government; Philanthropy

Date/Time/Duration: November 01, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - Martinsburg Mayor Harriet Johnson and City Manager Mark Baldwin; UWay EPan Campaign Chair Jenn Williams

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Veterans' Stories; Philanthropy

Date/Time/Duration November 08, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m.. - various segments)

Explanation: - Veterans Project Karen Lloyd and Christmas Cash for Kids (In its 15th Year) Becky Linton

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue:; Mental/Spiritual Health; Local History

Date/Time/Duration: November 15, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m.. - various segments)

Explanation: - Pastor Chris Jones on Getting Through Post-Election; thankfulness - Historian Steve French on Paw Paw Railroad Gun Battle

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Response to COVID-19 Pandemic; Local Government; Local Agriculture; Home gardening

Date/Time/Duration: November 22, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - City of Martinsburg Mayor Johnson and Mark Baldwin talk about COVID-19 restrictions for in-person city business and the impact the pandemic will have on the Christmas season in the city. WVU Extension's Dr. Mary Beth Bennett gives seasonal information and gardening tips.

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report
for Fourth Quarter 2020 – WICL - 95.9

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Higher Education; Scholarship; Local History; Local Business

Date/Time/Duration: November 29, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - - Blue Ridge Community Technical College Cookie Sale to benefit scholarship fund - Bob OConnor on B&O Railroad – New local business Krops Market opens in time to sell Christmas trees.

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Public Safety; Elections; Youth/4-H

Date/Time/Duration:, December 06, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - New Berkeley County Sheriff Nathan Harmon and Newly Re-elected Morgan County Sheriff K.C. Bohrer talk about their plans for their upcoming four-year terms, goals and challenges; Berkeley County 4-H's Mikey Withrow talks about how the 4-H program and youth in the county did an impressive job of keeping programs like the Youth Fair going in spite of the pandemic.

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Public Safety; Education; COVID-19 Response

Date/Time/Duration: December 13, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Martinsburg Police Chief George Swartwood and Deputy Chief Erin Gibbons talk about new officers, new k-9, new building, condolences for Charleston PD and discussion of 'there is no routine call' ; Berkeley County PreK Michelle Martin on how the district's youngest students have adapted to COVID-19 impacted learning.

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Mental/Spiritual Health; Local Small Business

Date/Time/Duration: December 20, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: -- Hope Community Church's Chris Jones on handling the holiday season and looking out for those who can't get out and visit like they usually do; Bunker Hill Antiques' Bill Bowen on buying local and finding unique gifts by looking to the past.

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report
for Fourth Quarter 2020 – WICL - 95.9

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Public Safety, Drinking and Driving, PTSD; Philanthropy; Childhood Cancer

Date/Time/Duration: December 27, 2020 (7:00 a.m.- 7:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - Morgan County Sheriff K.C. Bohrer on driving sober during the holidays and combating PTSD in law enforcement and first responders - Jeeps for Georgie preview; thousands of Jeeps are anticipated to make a little boy from Hedgesville's wish of seeing some Jeeps a reality as he battles Stage 4 brain cancer; Berkeley and Morgan County Health Departments Director Bill Kearns on keeping guard up to prevent against COVID-19; worshipping safely with others; Christmas Cash Kids Becky Linton talks about a very successful, record-breaking Christmas Cash for Kids Season.