REPORT

2023: First Quarter

Special Programs During Quarter 1:

NEWS SERVICE:

Traverse Talks (NWPB Podcast) 30-minute edited-for-air episodes aired Saturdays at 6 p.m. on the News service during Quarter 1. Traverse Talks episodes are interviews with prominent people. They talk about stories about and from the Northwest, such as poets, authors, professors, and so on.

The news service (and Classical Simulcast) featured more local stories than ever before after the addition of a News Director and a few new reporters. Note: below in report, "ATC" and "ME" are simulcast meaning the item aired both Classical and News. Any stories outside of ATC or ME are only on News. "Midday" is News Only from 9AM to 12PM.

"NWPB" means local NWPB-only reporters, paid through the station directly. "N3" means "Northwest News Network", a regionally journalism collaborative. "AP" means "Associated Press", which is a nationally distributed news collaborative.

Live special coverage from NPR of the State of The Union was carried on both services, coverage and analysis in Spanish were carried via livestream for the first time ever.

CLASSICAL SERVICE:

The Classical service has a locally created 1 hour show called "Variations on a Theme" that airs on Saturdays. Themes covered included Women's History, Black History, Daylight Savings, the 2020 Covid Pandemic declaration, & Mardi Gras.

For Valentine's Day, on-air music requests and dedications from listeners were aired.
