10/6/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club - Annual Meeting & New Era for Columbus Art Museums	50	8:30 PM	22.6	The Columbus Museum of Art and the Wexner Center for The Arts are two giants in the Columbus arts scene, and both have new leaders at their helms. Art historian and arts administrator Gaëtane Verna is the Wexner Center's new executive director, taking over the institution's leadership last November. Born in the Republic of Congo, and a Quebeceer since age two, the Canadian Verna is the first woman of color, and person of color, to lead "The Wex," housed in its striking building on the campus of the Ohio State University. Over on Broad Street, the 145-year-old Columbus Museum of Art welcomed new leader Brooke Minto in May. Born in New York to Jamaican parents, Minto has worked to inspire people to engage with the arts in New Orleans, New York City, Miami, and Cape Town. We'll meet these two new dynamic leaders for a conversation spotlighting what's new and next at CMA, The Wex, and in the Columbus arts world, hosted by Erica Thompson, Features Editor, The Columbus Dispatch.

10/13/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Gen Z Girls Lead The Way	53	9:00 PM	22.6	What's on the minds of Central Ohio's Gen Z girls, and where will they take America? Generation Z – the Zoomers – were born after 1996. The oldest of this rising generation has just graduated from college, and the youngest are now entering their teenage years, having been born just as Barack Obama entered the White House. Their formative years have been shaped by a global pandemic and the tumult of a divided America. Studies have shown that Gen Z embraces strong values rooted in a passion for racial justice, a deep concern for the planet and environmental sustainability, and as consumers, favor access as much as (or more than) ownership. Zoomers are digital natives, the first generation to grow up from their earliest childhoods with an ever-present Internet and portable digital technology. They're the fastest-growing segment of the American electorate and the most racially-diverse, with a non-Hispanic white majority of just 52%. CMC turns its stage over to Central Ohio Gen Z girls for an unfiltered look how at this rising generation sees the world, themselves, and the future. The discussion will be hosted by Camille Seals, Head of School, Columbus School for Girls, with Frankie Madosky, Miss Columbus Teen USA 2023, Lillian Corpening-Morgan, Co-Chair, Black Girl Think Tank, and Honors Senior, Pickerington North High School, Mercy Cala Avila, Undergraduate Student, International Business &amp; Chinese, The Ohio State University, and Olivia Graham, High School Student-Athlete, Columbus School for Girls, with closing remarks from Kennedy Watkins, recipient of the highest honor in Girl Scouting.

10/20/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Facing Hate, Finding Hope: America's LGBTQ+ Community Under Attack	58	8:30 PM	22.6	The lives of LGBTQ+ Americans are under greater threat in 2023 than at any point in the country's recent past. This summer, the Human Rights Campaign declared a "state of emergency" for LGBTQ+ people in America. The rights of parents to make gender-confirming decisions for their children, of drag artists to perform and for venues to host drag performances, and bans on school employees from discussing gender and sexuality with students are under currently attack through proposed legislation. Simultaneously, the flames of anti-LGBTQ+ sentiment are being fanned by calls for violence by far-right hate groups. Some Ohio lawmakers are also going on the offensive against their constituents, recently introducing HB 245, which could charge drag performers with a felony if a juvenile is in attendance of a drag performance or the performance is considered "obscene". How can anti-LGBTQ+ legislation co-exist with U.S. constitutional rights? Could passage of a Federal Equality Act explicitly prohibiting discrimination against LGBTQ+ people serve to protect lives and rights of the LGBTQ+ community? Featuring Khris Goins, President/Founder, Black Transmen of Ohio, J. Bennett Guess, Executive Director, ACLU of Ohio, Amanda Erickson, Director of Education & Outreach, Kaleidoscope Youth Center, Inc., and Chris Equizi, a.k.a. Virginia West, Show Director, District West, with host Ronald Murray, Associate Director of Health Advocacy, Equitas Health.

10/27/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Whose Rights Win? Gun Violence, Preemption, and Home Rule in Ohio	53	8:30 PM	22.6	In Ohio, cities that have attempted to enact their own gun control regulations have run up against a brick wall where municipal “home rule” – and their governing authority – ends abruptly. Ohio’s legislature and courts have blocked cities’ local efforts at gun control, citing the U.S. Constitution’s Second Amendment. Should Ohio cities have the right to take up gun control measures to reduce shootings and address other issues when the State and others see such measures as conflicting with the U.S. Constitution’s right to bear arms? Municipal home rule has been around in Ohio a long time – since 1912 – when 58% of the state’s voters approved giving cities greater self-control by adding a “home rule” article to the state’s Constitution. New revisions championed by the State legislature in 2019 and 2022 to Ohio’s Revised Code began to chip away at home rule. The revisions restricted Ohio cities from enacting their own gun control laws – essentially a ban on bans. The revisions have shackled Ohio cities from acting to tackle endemic gun violence. The justification? The U.S. Constitution – plus Ohio’s own – spells out gun rights that cities can’t pre-empt. Featuring Zach Klein, Columbus City Attorney, David Tryon, Director of Litigation, The Buckeye Institute, and Thell Robinson III, Founder and CEO, Halt Violence, and Amelia Robinson, Opinion and Community Engagement Editor, The Columbus Dispatch, with Clare Roth, Managing Editor, The Ohio Newsroom.

11/3/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Millennial Voices in Ohio Politics	56	8:30 PM	22.6	If it looks like Millennials are everywhere, they are. In fact, Millennials are now America's largest generation, surpassing the vaunted Baby Boomer generation as far back as 2019 in terms of sheer size, and the gap widens every year. If you know anyone between roughly the ages of 27 and 42 today, you know a Millennial, defined as anyone born generally between 1981 and 1996. With so many Millennials, you might expect to find more in the halls of power as elected officials, but Baby Boomers have been hard to convince to step down or retire to make way for younger leaders, a fact not lost on many voters. As reported in August by Axios Columbus, Baby Boomers between make up about half of Congressional representatives, even though Boomers now are just 21% of the American population, and the ratio for Ohio's federal lawmakers is even more lopsided in favor of Boomers. But there are Millennial lawmakers to be found in Ohio's State House, and we're joined by a panel of them to hear what's on their minds and how politics – and the country – might change once the Baby Boomers step off America's political stage. Featuring Representative Dontavius L. Jarrells, 1st District, Ohio House of Representatives, Representative Thomas Hall, 45th District, Ohio House of Representatives, Representative Latyna Humphrey, 2nd District, Ohio House of Representatives, and Representative Nick Santucci, 64th District, Ohio House of Representatives, with host Anna Staver, Host, All Sides with Anna Staver, WOSU Public Media.

11/10/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Unpacking the 2023 Election	53	9:30 PM	22.6	Every U.S. election now feels like a litmus test for the health and future of American democracy, and this year is no exception. On November 7, Ohioans will take to the polls by the millions to decide key issues, including an amendment to the Ohio constitution to enshrine reproductive rights, possibly settling the abortion debate in the state for decades to come, and a statute to legalize recreational marijuana for adults. Columbus voters will also elect new City Councilmembers, a new Mayor, and will weigh in on funding levies for Columbus City Schools and the Columbus Metropolitan Library. With a diverse panel of experts, we dive into an analysis of the 2023 election results, look at what the future might hold after Ohio's voters have spoken, and check in on the health of American democracy. Featuring Haley BeMiller, Political Reporter, USA TODAY Network Ohio Bureau, and Wendy Smooth, Ph.D., Professor, Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies and Senior Vice Provost for Inclusive Excellence, The Ohio State University, Meredith Freedhoff, Chair, Franklin County Republican Party, and Julie Womack, Head of Organizing, Red, Wine & Blue with host Julie Carr Smyth, Government & Politics Reporter, The Associated Press.

11/17/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Conquering Lung Cancer	51	8:30 PM	22.6	It's the leading cause of cancer death in the United States – and it's treatable: lung cancer kills some 127,000 people annually in the U.S., but it's not a hopeless disease, and in fact, can often be treated if detected early. While treatments continue to improve with breakthrough "targeted" therapies, it's early detection that could prevent enormous numbers of lung cancer deaths. But screening rates for lung cancers remain significantly lower than for other cancers, and according to a new Stanford Medicine study, they're disproportionately failing minority populations, including African Americans. What's the key to beating lung cancer in the U.S. and around the world? What are the racial disparities in lung cancer detection and treatment, and how can these disparities be addressed? For Lung Cancer Awareness and National Smoking Cessation Month, we welcome two Ohio-based global leaders in lung cancer research to unpack the causes, examine groundbreaking detection strategies for – and new targeted treatments of – America's number one cancer killer. Featuring David P. Carbone, MD, PhD, Barbara J. Bonner Chair in Lung Cancer Research, Director, James Thoracic Center, and Co-Leader, Translational Therapeutics Program, The Ohio State University Comprehensive Cancer Center, and Jasleen Pannu, MMBS, Director of Interventional Pulmonary Translational Research, and Assistant Professor, Division of Pulmonary, Critical Care, and Sleep Medicine, The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center, with Cierra Johnson, Anchor and Reporter, WCMH NBC4.

12/1/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Is Snob Zoning America's New Redlining?	56	8:30 PM	22.6	Author Richard Kahlenberg's new book offers an indictment of America's housing policy by revealing the social engineering underlying our segregation by economic class, the social and political fallout that result, and what we can do about it. Excluded: How Snob Zoning, NIMBYism, and Class Bias Build the Walls We Don't See, published this summer by PublicAffairs, closely examines America's "new redlining," restrictive single-family zoning that carefully controls what types of housing can be built and where. While ostensibly created to maintain good qualities in neighborhoods, single-family zoning has instead been used to steadily inflate property values and is greatly exacerbating America's deepening housing crisis and economic inequality. Kahlenberg's new book shows that housing choice has been socially engineered to the benefit of the affluent, and that the most restrictive zoning is often found in politically liberal cities where racial views are progressive. We unpack the nationwide implications of single-family zoning and zoom in on Columbus for an exploration of how exclusive zoning in Central Ohio is shutting thousands out from the benefits of home ownership. Featuring Richard D. Kahlenberg, Non-resident Scholar, Center on Education and Workforce, McCourt School of Public Policy, Georgetown University, Senior Fellow, Progressive Policy Institute, Professorial Lecturer, Trachtenberg School of Public Policy and Public Administration, George Washington University, and Author, Excluded: How Snob Zoning, NIMBYism, and Class Bias Build the Walls We Don't See, Shayla Favor, Member, Columbus City Council, and Tehani Mesa-Morales, SHRM-CP, Move to PROSPER Parent and Program Participant, and Human Resources Generalist, ViaQuest, Inc., with host Amy Klaben. 12/16/2023	Columbus Metropolitan Club- Re-Attaching Historic Neighborhoods to Downtown Columbus	57	7:00 PM	22.6	What freeways divided in Columbus, freeway caps are attempting to heal — and leaders hope the next few caps will continue positive momentum in revitalizing Downtown. I-71 and I-70 severed Columbus’ Brewery District and German Village from the heart of downtown in the early 1960s. Now, just as Downtown Columbus’ South Side experiences a reawakening, a massive project is underway to reconnect two of the area’s most historic neighborhoods — German Village and the Brewery District — to the heart of the city. The city has done it successfully before. Years ago, I-670 bulldozed a 200-foot-wide corridor through the city’s historic core, separating the Short North and Downtown. In 2004, the “Cap at Union Station” effectively reconnected the Short North back to Downtown with wide sidewalks and restaurants built over the highway below, setting the stage for the neighborhood’s spectacular revitalization. Next up: German Village and the Brewery District will be rejoined to downtown by three new freeway caps, one each on Third, Fourth, and High Streets. Featuring, Bhakti Bania, CEO, BBCO Design, Chris Hermann, Principal, MKSK, Thomas Slack, Administrator, Capital Programs, Ohio Department of Transportation, Benjamin Perryman, Endangered Properties Fund Director, Columbus Landmarks Foundation, and Chris Hune, Immediate Past President, German Village Society, with host, Mark Ferenchik, Columbus neighborhoods/urban issues reporter, The Columbus Dispatch.
