

WJDE

Certification Regarding Commercial Limits in Children's Programming

Period Covered by this Certification: 4th Quarter 2022

I, Trey Volz, General Manager of WJDE, hereby certify that, during the above-referenced time period:

1. The regularly scheduled weekly three-hour WJDE children's programming block, including any commercial spots and promotional content contained therein, as broadcast on WJDE and its various digital sub channels complied with the commercial limits of the rules and policies of the Federal Communications Commission's commercial limits during children's programming (the "Rules").
2. No Internet website addresses were displayed during WJDE's children's programming in a manner that would constitute commercial content within the meaning of the Rules.
3. The regularly scheduled 24/7 multicast channels, including any commercial spots and promotional content contained therein, as broadcast on the digital multicast channels of WJDE, complied with the rules and no internet website addresses were displayed during the multicast children's programming in a manner that would constitute commercial time within the meaning of the Rules.
4. The Certifications above are based in part on certifications and information from program providers, which is available from WJDE upon request.

Certified by me on the 7th day of January, 2023
