Find out how He was able to make time alone with God a priority, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Monday/tomorrow/today, at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, January 4 — How to Protect Your Time with the Lord

Would it be possible to spend consistent time alone with God in the Bible and in prayer? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth knows what it's like to fight to protect that time. She provides practical insights — steps you can take right away — on how to cultivate time alone with God — on REVIVE OUR HEARTS Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Bringing the Word to Your Life, With Gretchen Saffles

Wednesday, January 5 — Growing the Hunger

After all our holiday feasting, a lot of us try to get on some kind of plan to help us shed some pounds. Coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Gretchen Saffles points out that there's an important plan we should implement for getting in better SPIRITUAL shape, and it actually involves feasting— feasting, that is, on God's Word! Bringing the Word to your life, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, January 6 — How to Meditate

Do you practice meditation? What comes to mind when you hear that term? If the first image you have involves assuming the lotus position and humming, I can tell you right now, that's not what Gretchen Saffles means. Learn about Biblical meditation in Gretchen's conversation with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Intimacy with God

SERIES — The Wonder of the Word

Monday, January 10 — The Light

What is the most unique book you've ever read? The most helpful? The most truthful? Does the Bible immediately spring to mind? Sometimes we can take the power of the word of God for granted. Learn to appreciate the wonder of the Word, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Monday/tomorrow/today, at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, January 11 — Outlasting the Critics

When one of the kings of Judah received the word of God, he didn't like what it said. So he cut the scroll up and threw it into the fire. We would never do that, right? According to Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, we sometimes do something very similar. Find out what it is, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, January 12 — How Much is the Bible Worth?

As a Christian growing up in communist Bulgaria, Margaret Nikol only had one page of the Bible. Her experience has helped her identify the most heartbreaking corners of every American church—the lost and found. Gain a greater appreciation for the gift of God's Word on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, January 13 — Direction from the Word

When we're sharing the gospel with someone, the words of the Bible itself can be much more persuasive than our arguments. Find out more on the power of God's Word, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Friday, January 14 — Drink from the Well

As you make decisions, do you ever think about what the Bible says? Is it just a collection of fairy tales? Or is it the powerful word of God? Be inspired to read and obey the Word of God on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Thoughts for My Single Sisters . . . Before I Become a Mrs.

Monday, February 21 — God is Good in the Maybe's

Plenty of unmarried women think they would be happy if they got married. And plenty of married women think they'd be happy if they had a different marriage. But Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth says, what's true about your heart before you're married will be true after you're married. She'll explain more as she shares about getting married after 57 years of singleness. Join her on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Monday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, February 22 — The Source of True Joy

You can trust God to write your story. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth learned that truth over 57 years of singleness. And she continued believing it after she entered marriage. She'll give you valuable perspective on trusting God with your story, whether married or single, on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, February 23 — Trusting God for the Future

Finish this sentence: "I would be happy if only . . ." If you fill that sentence with anything other than Jesus, you'll never be happy. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth learned to live out that principle as a single woman. She gives perspective on contentment, marriage, and singleness from the day before her wedding. Hear from Nancy on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Colleen Chao's Season of Singleness

Thursday, February 24 — Not a Problem to Fix

Unmarried adults face challenges that are unique to their season of life. Over the course of more than a decade, Colleen Chao learned to view her own singleness not as a problem to fix, but as an opportunity to glorify God. She explains on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, February 25 — Strengthening Endurance Muscles

The Bible refers to the "gift of singleness." If being single seems like a gift you'd rather not receive, be sure to tune in to REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth. Her friend Colleen Chao shares how her trials, including being single for many years, have built her endurance muscles, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Can Jesus be your Savior but not your Lord? People separate these terms all the time. But Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth says you can't separate those terms so easily. She explains what it means that Jesus is Lord, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, March 31 — He is our Head

You couldn't live if your head were disconnected from your body. That's common sense. But it's easy for us in the body of Christ to forget that we need to be connected to Jesus ... the head of the body. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth explains why this is so important on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Series: How to Live for God's Glory

Monday, January 3 – From Glory to Glory, Part 1-1

Welcome to a brand-new year of verse-by-verse teaching here on GRACE TO YOU. You're about to get a timely reminder of your ultimate purpose . . . glorifying God . . . in the study John MacArthur launches today, How to Live for God's Glory.

Tuesday, January 4 – From Glory to Glory, Part 1-2

You know that being a Christian means honoring God, giving Him glory. But how do you know if you're hitting the mark—truly glorifying Him in everything you think, say, and do? Consider that as John MacArthur helps you establish a strong foundation for spiritual growth in 2022. How to Live for God's Glory . . . that's the title of the study John started just yesterday.

Wednesday, January 5 – From Glory to Glory, Part 2-1

When the phone rings in the middle of the night . . . when the doctor sees something ominous on your test results . . . when it looks like you could—or when you actually do—lose your job . . . how do you respond in a way that shows you're trusting in the One who's always in control . . . who always deserves your trust? John MacArthur's helping you think biblically about your trials in his current series here on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, January 6 – From Glory to Glory, Part 2-2

Well as we get into the first days of 2022, you might think of the new year as an untouched piece of land . . . it's yours to build a house on. First things first . . . everything you build depends on establishing a strong foundation. That's what John MacArthur's going to help you do today—build a sturdy spiritual foundation for this year. Specifically, John's going to show you . . . How to Live for God's Glory.

Friday, January 7 – Bible Questions & Answers, Part 55

Instead of walking you through a passage of Scripture, John's going to field questions from his home church about the Bible and the Christian life—maybe ones you've wrestled with as you've studied God's Word. On this edition of GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Series: Delivered by God

Monday, January 10 – Deliverance: The Neglected Doctrine

What exactly are you delivered from when you're saved . . . and how good a job are churches doing these days at communicating that truth? That's what John MacArthur's going to talk about here on GRACE TO YOU as he begins a study titled . . . Delivered by God.

Tuesday, January 11 – Deliverance: From Error to Truth, Part 1-1

According to some people today, a person can receive salvation without understanding—or even believing—the gospel. The consequences of that view? People are confused about what it means to be a Christian. A serious issue . . . one that gripped John MacArthur enough to address it head on. The result: John's current series of lessons here on GRACE TO YOU, titled . . . Delivered by God.

Wednesday, January 12 – Deliverance: From Error to Truth, Part 1-2

Think about your parents, children, even your aunts, uncles, and cousins. No doubt you have at least a few physical characteristics or personality traits in common with them. Well, can the same be said for those in the Christian family? Are there obvious features—that all believers share? What should you see—what identifies a person as a Christian? John MacArthur's going to answer those questions today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, January 13 – Deliverance: From Error to Truth, Part 2-1

Now, when you say one thing but your actions tell a different story, you've got a problem. Yet, some people see no problem when a person claims he's a Christian . . . but his actions, attitudes —his way of life—bear no resemblance to what the Bible says a Christian should look like. That sort of thinking compelled John MacArthur to examine what being a Christian —what being Delivered by God—really means.

Friday, January 14 – Deliverance: From Error to Truth, Part 2-2

It's been said that all wrongdoing is done in the sincere belief that it's the right thing to do. You know, it's probably true that many false ideas about God and salvation are promoted in the sincere belief that they are right. Thing is . . . sincerity doesn't save anyone. John MacArthur looks at that principle today on GRACE TO YOU as he answers the critical question . . . "What do you need to believe about God to be a Christian?"

Monday, January 17 – Deliverance: From Sin to Righteousness, Part 1-1

GRACE TO YOU is committed to the truth of God's Word—even the hard truth you don't always hear today. John MacArthur will explain the danger you are in if you don't know Christ . . . and, if you're a believer he will help you communicate the gospel with conviction. So stay here as John continues his study titled . . . Delivered by God.

Tuesday, January 18 – Deliverance: From Sin to Righteousness, Part 1-2

It's an aspect of salvation every Christian needs to understand . . . What does God deliver you from when He saves you? Well, John MacArthur's current study on GRACE TO YOU is answering that question. He taking a compelling look at all the things Christ delivers you from when He grants you salvation. . . This series on the life-changing power of salvation is titled . . . Delivered by God.

Wednesday, January 19 – Deliverance: From Sin to Righteousness, Part 2-1

These days, many popular evangelical leaders are teaching that Christianity isn't much different from other religions. They're basically saying you don't have to change how you think and how you live when you become a Christian as long as you're sincere. Well, how does that square with what Scripture teaches? Does being a Christian simply mean you've been saved from hell? John MacArthur helps answer those questions today as he continues his current study on GRACE TO YOU titled . . . Delivered by God.

Thursday, January 20 – Deliverance: From Sin to Righteousness, Part 2-2

How focused are you and your church at rescuing people lost in sin? Is your church involvement more a social gathering than for the purpose of saving lives? Consider those questions as John continues his series called . . . Delivered by God on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, January 21 – Deliverance: From the Temporal World to the Eternal Kingdom

If you're a Christian you've been saved from your sin . . . rescued by God. What does that fact—that you've been delivered—mean for you today? How should your life change in the here and now? John MacArthur examines the biblical answers as he continues his series . . . Delivered by God . . . on GRACE TO YOU.

Series: Delivered by God

Monday, January 24 – Deliverance: From the Temporal World to the Eternal Kingdom,

How do you think your life would change if you lived through a near-death experience? Would you see each day as a gift? Well, in a real sense you have already been saved in a spectacular way if you're a Christian. Question is, how should your deliverance from sin affect the way you live your life both now and in the future? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his study called . . . Delivered by God.

Tuesday, January 25 – The Exclusiveness of the Gospel, Part 1-1

It seems that more and more religious leaders are embracing a message that says, "There are many paths to God. Everyone's going to heaven. If you're spiritual and sincere, you'll make it." Is it right to make the gospel as inclusive as possible? Did Jesus allow leeway? For help in this area, stay here on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his series . . . Delivered by God.

Wednesday, January 26 – The Exclusiveness of the Gospel, Part 1-2

How wide is God's mercy? Some believe His gracious offer of salvation extends to people of every belief and religion. Others hold a narrower, more exclusive view . . . that apart from repentance and faith in Christ, there is no salvation. Well, today on GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur's going to take you to the Bible— to show you what it says about the people God saves . . . and the people He doesn't.

Thursday, January 27 – The Exclusiveness of the Gospel, Part 2-1

Today it seems that many churches encourage their congregations to trust their own thinking—not the Bible—about who God saves . . . who's going to heaven . . . what the requirements are for salvation. On this edition of GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur's going to explain the reasons that people try—in futility—to improve on the gospel.

Friday, January 28 – The Exclusiveness of the Gospel, Part 2-2

If you're a Christian, you've been rescued from spiritual death and eternal separation from God . . . and even more than that. To get a clearer picture of exactly what God's rescued you from . . . stay here as John MacArthur continues his series called . . . Delivered by God.

Series: When Believer's Doubt

Tuesday, February 1 – Why the Believer Doubts, Part 1-2

Maybe in a classroom you've felt doubts creep in when the teacher questioned the accuracy of the Bible. Perhaps you can't understand why God would allow your child to get sick . . . or a city to be destroyed by a flood . . . and you've started to wonder if God is really there. On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur is going to show you that even John the Baptist—perhaps the greatest preacher of all time—had doubts about Jesus.

Wednesday, February 2 – Why the Believer Doubts, Part 2-1

C. S. Lewis said that sometimes when he prayed, he wondered if he wasn't "posting letters to a non-existent address." Perhaps you've had similar doubts about whether God is really there and listening . . . and whether Jesus is all He claimed to be. John MacArthur has encouraging answers in his current series . . . When Believers Doubt on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, February 3 – Why the Believer Doubts, Part 2-2

It's comforting to know that sometimes even believers in the Bible—people close to Jesus—asked that kind of question . . . had moments when they wondered if the gospel was true. John MacArthur shows you how Christ responded to those folks as he continues his study titled . . . When Believers Doubt . . . today on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, February 4 – Reasons People Lack Assurance, Part 3

There's no deception with bigger consequences than to think you're a Christian when the truth is . . . you're not. So, where do you stand? How can you know for sure your faith is real . . . your sins paid for . . . your eternity certain? John MacArthur helps you answer that today on GRACE TO YOU . . . as he highlights eight reasons people lack assurance of their salvation.

Series: Restoring Marriage

Monday, February 7 – Christian Liberty and Sexual Freedom

What is marriage? That question has been debated in classrooms . . . in the political arena . . . even in churches. Thankfully, you can know exactly why marriage exists and for whom it was created—the God who designed marriage has made that clear, as John MacArthur will show you in the series he launches today called Restoring Marriage on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, February 8 – To Marry or Not to Marry (#1)

These days the biblical view of gender and sexuality is often labeled bigoted, extreme, intolerant. So, living in such a society, how do you defend what the Bible says about marriage? And how can you be sure your relationship with your spouse honors Christ? John MacArthur shows you today on GRACE TO YOU, as he continues a study titled . . . Restoring Marriage.

Wednesday, February 9 – To Marry or Not to Marry (#2)

Think about your parents, children, even your aunts, uncles, and cousins. No doubt you have at least a few physical characteristics or personality traits in common with them. Well, can the same be said for those in the Christian family? Are there obvious features—that all believers share? What should you see—what identifies a person as a Christian? John MacArthur's going to answer those questions today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, February 10 – Divine Guidelines for Marriage (#1)

Many in today's culture don't know what marriage is supposed to be. Thankfully, the Bible shows you exactly how God designed marriage . . . and what your relationship with your spouse should look like. You'll see that today as John MacArthur continues his study here on GRACE TO YOU titled . . . Restoring Marriage.

Friday, February 11 – Divine Guidelines for Marriage (#2)

How can you have a marriage that will not only flourish . . . but also serve as a testimony of God's grace? John MacArthur's, helping answer that question in his series titled . . . Restoring Marriage. Today on GRACE TO YOU, he focuses on the "Divine Guidelines for Marriage" . . . a lesson that spells out how your marriage—even if you're married to an unbeliever—can honor God . . . and help lead others to salvation.

Series: Restoring Marriage

Monday, February 14 – How to Win Your Unbelieving Spouse (#1)

Irreconcilable differences. A commonly used phrase used by people filing for divorce. Well, when you're talking about the marriage between someone who rejects Christ and one who cherishes the Savior, that really is an irreconcilable difference, apart from a work of God. Question is . . . is being married to a nonbeliever a valid reason for divorce? John MacArthur answers that question today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues his study titled . . . Restoring Marriage.

Tuesday, February 15 – How to Win Your Unbelieving Spouse (#2)

If you're a Christian and your spouse isn't, what's the most effective way to evangelize him or her? What do you need to say? More important, what do you need to do? John MacArthur answers those questions as he continues his current series on GRACE TO YOU titled . . . Restoring Marriage.

Wednesday, February 16 – The Key to Maintianing Family Unity (#1)

So how do you knit your family together and know true unity? What's the benefit of that sort of togetherness? How difficult is it to pull your family together? What are your responsibilities? Vital issues —John MacArthur considers them today on GRACE TO YOU . . . as he shows you "The Key to Maintaining Family Unity"— that's the title of today's lesson.

Thursday, February 17 – The Key to Maintianing Family Unity (#2)

How do you go about strengthening your marriage . . . making a positive influence on your kids . . . creating harmony and joy in your home . . . and most important, honoring Christ as a family? John MacArthur has the answer today as he continues to show you . . . "The Key to Maintaining Family Unity." That's the title of his message on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, February 18 – Straight Talk on Marriage, Family, and Christian Living

Series: A Plea for Unity

Monday, February 21 – Conduct Worthy of the Church (#1)

What effect would your church have on its community if everyone was of the same mind . . . completely united in a desire to glorify Christ? And how can you help your local congregation achieve that kind of harmony? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur begins his study called . . . A Plea for Unity.

Tuesday, February 22 – Conduct Worthy of the Church (#2)

Whether you're part of a megachurch in a big city or a small group of believers in a little town . . . your church faces challenges congregations have faced in every age, in every location. As Solomon said, "there is nothing new under the sun." Thankfully, the solutions to those challenges are also timeless, as you'll see today on GRACE TO YOU. John MacArthur's continuing his series . . . A Plea for Unity

Wednesday, February 23 – The Motives for Spiritual Unity (#1)

Maybe your church preaches the Bible . . . takes missions seriously . . . and doesn't tolerate sin . . . but it's not what you would call warm and inviting. It's not a place where an outsider would immediately know that these people really care for and love one another. John MacArthur's current study on GRACE TO YOU has the practical wisdom you need. John's making . . . A Plea for Unity—that's the title of our series.

Thursday, February 24 – The Key to Maintaining Spiritual Unity (#2)

Hopefully you have a job that ignites your passion . . . gives you a sense of purpose. Nobody wants a job that's boring . . . that gives you no real joy. Well, what's worse than a tedious, lifeless, dull job? A stale, humdrum church . . . a place where people come and sit—going through the motions—but there's no life. How can your church avoid that? How can it enjoy the unity of the Holy Spirit—and experience His blessings?

Friday, February 25 – The Marks of Spiritual Unity (#1)

So in a world filled with hostility and conflict how can your church be different—an example of love and unity? And what role do you play in promoting unity in your church . . . what specific steps can you take to help Christian around you truly care for another? For answers stay here on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his series . . . A Plea for Unity.

Series: A Plea for Unity

Tuesday, March 1 – The Means of Spiritual Unity

As much as frustrated fans like to use the word, it's hard to justify calling a professional sports team "bad"—after all, the players are the world's best . . . as are the coaches. So what is it that makes one team better than another? Often it has to do with a selfless attitude among the players . . . a fervent commitment to a common goal, not personal glory. In a word, great teams have unity. Well, on today's GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur considers the unity God calls for in His church.

Wednesday, March 2 – The Model of Spiritual Unity (#1)

A.W. Tozer once said, "It's impossible to overemphasize the importance of truth in the life of a Christian." Despite that, maybe you've heard that unity in the church is more important than anything else . . . and if that means staying away from controversial doctrines—like spiritual gifts or the unique roles of husbands and wives, well . . . it's worth it for the sake of keeping a congregation together. But how does that sort of unity compare to the unity that Scripture calls you to? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, March 3 – The Humiliation of Christ (#1)

Today the word miracle describes everything from an underachieving student passing chemistry . . . to the buzzer-beating shot in a basketball game . . . to the power of compound interest. But what is the greatest miracle of all? And how does it affect you? Answering those questions is John MacArthur's focus today on GRACE TO YOU . . . as he takes an in-depth look at . . . "The Humiliation of Christ."

Series: Christ Humbled, Christ Exalted

Friday, March 4 – The Humiliation of Christ (#2)

Certainly, no one ever humbled Himself more than Christ Jesus Himself . . . taking on the form of a man, leaving for a time privileges He had from eternity past . . . and leaving for us a pattern of humility we should strive for. On today's GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur looks closely at our Lord's model of humility . . . as he continues his message titled . . . "The Humiliation of Christ."

Series: Taming the Tongue

Monday, March 7 – The Speech of the New Man, Part 1

You use it for eating . . . breathing . . . or just whistling a tune. But the most important characteristics of the mouth—at least where your spiritual condition is concerned—are the words that come out of it. So today on GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur starts a series on how you can honor the Lord with every word you speak. It's simply titled . . . Taming the Tongue.

Tuesday, March 8 – The Speech of the New Man, Part 2 (#1)

John MacArthur's going to start taking you through a biblical "To Do" list today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues to look at the speech that should characterize you as a Christian. He's titled this convicting study . . . Taming the Tongue.

Wednesday, March 9 – The Speech of the New Man, Part 2 (#2)

In July 2021 a series of devastating wildfires swept through Southern California. One of these blazes, known as the Dixie Fire, burned over 900,000 acres and destroyed hundreds of buildings. Massive destruction . . . sparked by a tiny flame. Well consider this: The Bible compares the tongue—the words you say—to a fire . . . as one match can set a wildfire. So what does it take to restrain your words before they burn out of control? Find out today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, March 10 – Taming the Tongue, Part 1 (#1)

John's going to show you what Scripture says about the speech you use . . . the texts and emails you send . . . really, all the ways you use words. You'll walk away with more biblical strategies for . . . Taming the Tongue—that's the title of John's current series on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, March 11 – Taming the Tongue, Part 1 (#2)

United States law gives citizens the right to say pretty much anything they want. At least, that's how many Americans tend to interpret the First Amendment of the Constitution. Of course, if you're a Christian—living in the U.S. or not—the question is . . . do you have a biblical right to free speech? That's John MacArthur's focus today on GRACE TO YOU.

Series: Taming the Tongue (Cont'd)

Monday, March 14 – Taming the Tongue, Part 2 (#1)

They seem harmless enough—people have even collected them. But a book of matches—even one single match—is enough to light a raging wildfire and set thousands of acres of land ablaze. And your tongue—even with a single word—can do that same kind of damage to your relationships . . . so you're wise to control the speech that rolls off it. Today, John MacArthur shows you how to do that on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, March 15 – Taming the Tongue, Part 2 (#2)

Ever lost your temper, then apologized later by saying . . . "I didn't mean what I said?" Actually, what comes out of our mouths—even in anger—is a pretty clear indication of what's really going on in the heart. Today, John MacArthur considers the tongue's role in diagnosing your spiritual health . . . as he continues his practical study on GRACE TO YOU called . . . Taming the Tongue.

Series: Enjoying God

Wednesday, March 16 – Jesus' View of the Father (#1)

Sadly, there are many people who think of God as a distant, bitter, angry judge . . . someone who wants nothing more than to stop humanity from having fun. Now if someone has such a view of the Almighty, he or she could never enjoy God. Yet the Psalmist says believers are to delight in God. But practically, how do you do that? Find out on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur begins a study titled . . . Enjoying God.

Thursday, March 17 – Jesus' View of the Father (#2)

Today John's going to help you make sure you're . . . Enjoying God. Now, to truly enjoy God, you must understand His love. What is God's love like? And how do you know if He loves you? Is it the size of your bank account . . . the state of your health . . . or the square-footage of your house? John gives you a practical vision of what the love of God looks like, as he explains the Parable of the Prodigal Son.

Friday, March 18 – Experiencing the Presence of God

It may sound foreign to nearly everything you've been taught about God . . . but indeed, God wants you—in fact, expects you—to thoroughly, passionately, enjoy Him. But there's a problem. Before you can enjoy God, you need to know Him, intimately . . . and accurately. We'll help bring your thoughts about God into clear, accurate focus . . . as John MacArthur continues his compelling study here on GRACE TO YOU, simply titled . . . Enjoying God.

When you’re struggling with sin, when you don’t desire to spend time with the Lord or His people . . . what should you do? What resources has God given you for a life of victory and joy? Find out as John MacArthur shows you what it means to be Complete in Christ. That’s the title of his study here on . . . GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, March 22 – Paul’s Ministry: Fulfilling the Word of God (#2)

When you lose the job your family depends on . . . when the highway patrol calls with bad news—when life turns upside-down . . . and you’re tempted to doubt God’s goodness and His care for you . . . how should you respond? Scripture points the way to experiencing peace and joy and avoiding the temptation to sin during the trial. Listen to John MacArthur’s lesson today on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, March 23 – Paul’s Ministry: The Mystery of Christ in You (#1)

Charles Spurgeon said, “there is no joy in this world like union with Christ. The more we can feel it, the happier we are.” Now, what Spurgeon said is certainly true. But many Christians may hear that and think . . . “what is union with Christ?” What is this incredible doctrine that can change my life and make me happier, and happier? John MacArthur has a clear answer today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, March 24 – Paul’s Ministry: The Mystery of Christ in You (#2)

Have you ever really wanted to tell the gospel to a friend or coworker but in the end stayed silent? Perhaps you got afraid or worried your gospel presentation would not be clear. That’s a common scenario—we’ve all been there. But that doesn’t have to be the case. God has given you amazing power and blessings, so you can overcome fear and be a bold witness for His Son. John MacArthur looks at those blessings today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues to show you why you’re . . . Complete in Christ.

Friday, March 25 – Strengthen Your Heart (#1)

Friends betrayed him, colleagues slandered him, and he was even tortured. I’m talking about what happened to the apostle Paul as he planted and pastored churches. Now, you may think all of those trials would cause Paul’s love for God’s people to wane—but it only seemed to grow. Why is that? What truths fueled Paul’s love for the church . . . and what truths can fuel yours? John MacArthur takes you to Scripture and shows you the answer today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues his study . . . Complete in Christ. It’s a look at how the Lord strengthen believer’s and the amazing blessings you have in Christ.

Monday, March 28 – Strengthen Your Heart (#2)

the hearts controls everything—where it goes you go. But practically speaking how do you protect your heart—strengthen it with what’s good? Making sure Christians in the first century knew the answer to that question was one of the apostle Paul’s chief concerns. Thankfully, he laid out concrete steps you can take to strengthen your heart—your inner man. What are those steps? John MacArthur shows you today on GRACE TO YOU, as he continues his series . . . Complete in Christ.

Tuesday, March 29 – Paul’s Burden for the Church (#1)

It’s great to see Christians passionately love and care for one another in a crisis. But how do you do that on normal a week? How do you intensely love everyone in your congregation, Sunday after Sunday? Scripture has the answers and John MacArthur looks at them today as he continues his study . . . Complete in Christ on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, March 30 – Paul’s Burden for the Church (#2)

There is no deception with more terrifying consequences than to believe you’re a Christian and not be. How can you make sure you’re not one of them . . . how can you have complete confidence you’re going to heaven? John MacArthur answers that question today on GRACE TO YOU so you can enjoy the blessings that come from being . . . Complete in Christ. It’s a look at how Christ’s gives you wisdom, power, and joy as you walk with Him.

Thursday, March 31 – Philosophy of Christ (#1)

It’s been said, your enemy is the one who’s out to destroy you, no matter which side he’s officially on. Well, you can be sure there are people who claim to be on your side—on God’s side—but fact is they’re enemies of Christ, embracing and teaching dangerous doctrine. To find out how you spot these enemies of faith . . . and how to deal with them and their false teaching . . . stay here as John MacArthur shows you how to find true, spiritual wisdom on GRACE TO YOU.
