Series: The Master's Men

Monday, July 18 – The Messengers of the King (#1)

Out of the masses of people who followed Him, Jesus selected twelve men for His intimate circle of disciples. While you're probably familiar with names like Peter, James, and John . . . what about the others—men like Bartholomew . . . Thaddeus . . . and Simon the Zealot? Why were they chosen—what made them stand out as potential servants of the Lord? John MacArthur starts addressing those questions today on GRACE TO YOU. . . as he begins his study . . . The Master's Men.

Tuesday, July 19 – The Messengers of the King (#2)

The disciples weren't that much different from you and me. And that should encourage you, especially if you believe you're lacking certain skills and can't be used by God. John MacArthur's showing you that God can use you, no matter your weakness, in his current study here on GRACE TO YOU. He calls it, simply enough . . . The Master's Men.

Wednesday, July 20 – Peter: A Lesson in Leadership (#1)

From what Scripture says about the twelve disciples, no one spoke as often . . . asked more questions . . . or was praised as often as Peter. Yet no true follower of Jesus denied Him more blatantly, or received harsher rebuke from the Lord, than—yes—Peter. John MacArthur calls this most visible disciple "a contradiction in human flesh." Yet by studying Peter, you see how the Lord turns handicaps into strengths. The Master's Men—that's the title of John's current study on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, July 21 – Peter: A Lesson in Leadership (#2)

When sin defeats you . . . when trials discourage you . . . when it seems that other Christians have it all figured out . . . do you wonder how God can use you? If you've ever asked that question, I urge you to stay here on GRACE TO YOU. Today, John MacArthur's going to show you how God can work through anyone, even a man of weakness and faults like the apostle Peter. And as you see how God transformed Peter, you'll see that He can do the same for you. The current series is titled . . . The Master's Men.

Friday, July 22 – The Master's Men Part 1: Andrew, James the Son of Zebedee, and John" (#1)

Christ loved the twelve disciples and used them to build His kingdom . . . yet each had serious flaws. And as John MacArthur will show you today on GRACE TO YOU, God can use you, too . . . no matter how ordinary you think you are.

the legacy of James and John—the sons of thunder, as Christ called them—lives on in the pages of Scripture. And by examining their lives, you discover that God uses people with all sorts of personalities—and all sorts of flaws—to do great things. On this edition of GRACE TO YOU John MacArthur continues his look at the twelve people closest to Christ—people known as, The Master's Men.

Tuesday, July 26 – The Master's Men Part 2: Phillip and Bartholomew (#1)

You know the type . . . people who tend to say “Impossible . . . it can't be done.” “Too many risks.” They're the cautious calculators . . . the people who tend to dwell on things that could go wrong. Today John MacArthur profiles a man like that . . . someone whose story shows how the Lord can do great things with His followers, despite their flaws and weaknesses. As John continues his study titled The Master's Men, and looks at the life of Phillip, you'll see how Christ can smooth out your rough edges.

Wednesday, July 27 – The Master's Men Part 2: Phillip and Bartholomew (#2)

As a child in Sunday school, you may have memorized the names of the twelve disciples. And odds are, for some of them . . . that may be all you ever learned. Yet Scripture sheds more light on men like Phillip and Nathanael—and teaches practical lessons from their lives. On this edition of GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur looks at Phillip and Bartholomew . . . and the example they are for us to this day.

Thursday, July 28 – The Master's Men Part 3: Matthew and Thomas (#1)

Do you ever feel overwhelmed when facing some challenge? You may have looked at your situation and asked, “How can I . . . with my weaknesses, my lack of ability, the flaws from my past . . . get this done?” Today on GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur continues his study of The Master's Men . . . profiling the twelve Jesus chose, despite their flaws, for perhaps the most enormous task ever — building His church. You might think that Christ would have trained an entire army of skilled leaders to accomplish such a feat . . . but in the end he used just a few everyday men.

Friday, July 29 – The Master's Men Part 3: Matthew and Thomas (#2)

In 1938, a pilot named Douglas Corrigan took off from New York City bound for Los Angeles. Somehow, though, he ended up in Dublin, Ireland. After that, he was forever known as “Wrong-Way” Corrigan. Now, it seems the disciple Thomas suffered a similar indignity . . . he is forever remembered as the guy who doubted the Lord's resurrection. But maybe history has overemphasized that incident and overlooked Thomas' positive traits. John MacArthur considers that today . . . continuing his Master's Men study . . . here on GRACE TO YOU!

You've probably noticed there are plenty of topics, that the Bible doesn't specifically address . . . movies, social media, the stock market. But that doesn't mean the Bible has nothing to say about how you should think about these things. Today, on GRACE TO YOU John MacArthur begins a series that will give you a biblical framework . . . help you make decisions—and avoid the subtle dangers—in those gray areas. The study's titled . . . Pitfalls of Christian Liberty.

Tuesday, August 9 – The Danger of Overconfidence, Part 1 (#2)

Today, John MacArthur continues his series that looks at . . . The Pitfalls of Christian Liberty. Now, for most people, the topic of Christian liberty comes down to a pair of simple questions: What can I do? And, what can I not do? But John McArthur's going to show you why you should instead focus on what sets you apart from the rest of the world . . . and how to live in a way that points others to Christ on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, August 10 – The Danger of Overconfidence, Part 2 (#1)

You've probably heard it said, "With great power comes great responsibility." That's certainly true of the freedom believers have in Christ. ##### Tuesday, August 16 – The Truth About Idolatry (#1)

If you’re an American you know you are entitled to certain rights—free speech, freedom of religion, trial by jury. These are guarantees that no one should be able to take away from you and you should never give them up. But can the same be said of your freedoms in Christ? Should you hold onto those blessings with a tight fist? Or if not, when should you—and why should you—lay them down? ##### Wednesday, August 17 – The Truth About Idolatry (#2)

Thursday, August 18 – The Outrage of Idolatry

You hear a lot of talk these days about identity . . . gender identity specifically. Some have decided that what it means to be a male . . . and what it means to be female . . . are open for debate. Does the same open debate apply to what it means to be a Christian? In other words, do you decide what it means to be a Christian—and what it looks like to follow Christ—or is your spiritual identity fixed, unchanging? John MacArthur’s going to answer that question today on GRACE TO YOU.

Since then, he has preached Sunday after Sunday . . . teaching verse by verse through every book of the New Testament. Today on GRACE TO YOU, you're going to hear the first sermon John preached as the pastor of Grace Church. It's part of perhaps his most unique series. It's titled . . . The New Testament, Beginning to End.

Tuesday, August 23 – The Tale of Two Sons

The novelist Charles Dickens called the parable of the prodigal son the greatest short story ever written. You may have known the story since your earliest Sunday school days. But even though this parable is widely known . . . and, frankly, a pretty simple narrative . . . it's one of the most misunderstood passages in the Bible. How can that be—what's to misunderstand? Well, for starters, it's not just a story about one son . . . it's really . . . The Tale of Two Sons.

Wednesday, August 24 – Four Ways to Miss Heaven

How can you be sure that doesn't happen to you . . . that you don't miss out on heaven? John MacArthur answers that crucial question today on GRACE TO YOU in a message titled . . . "Four Ways to Miss Heaven." It's part of his series that's taking you through . . . The New Testament, Beginning to End.

For most people, the notion of Christian liberty boils down to figuring out what they're allowed to do. Can you watch films rated PG-13? Are you allowed to drink alcohol? What desires are you allowed to indulge? Well, today on GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur shows you what Scripture says about Christian liberty . . . and why it's not really about fulfilling your desires at all. John's lesson is part of his current series . . . a collection of some of his most influential sermons titled . . . The New Testament, Beginning to End.

Wednesday, August 31 – A Plan for Your Family: God's vs. the World's

Whether it's news reports about the popularity of gay marriage . . . television shows with adulterous story lines . . . or books that celebrate sexual sin . . . it's clear that society doesn't have a biblical view of sexuality, marriage, and family . . . not even close. Question is, when it comes to your marriage and family . . . are you following the world's plan or God's? John MacArthur helps you answer that question today on GRACE TO YOU, as he continues his current series . . . a collection of messages from his 50 years of ministry titled . . . The New Testament, Beginning to End.

Thursday, September 1 – Fail-Proof Spiritual Leadership

Someone once said that in the body of Christ, we belong to each other, affect each other . . . and can't escape each other! Now, those words certainly magnify the need for strong, biblically based leadership in the church. But that doesn't mean the call for spiritual leadership is just for pastors, Sunday school teachers—people in official roles. Every Christian needs to embrace the biblical definition of leadership. Today, John MacArthur looks to the apostle Paul for the definition of spiritual leadership on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, September 2 – Our God-Breathed Bible

If you've spent much time in church, you've likely heard that the Bible is inspired . . . that it's the Word of God. But what does that actually mean? And how does the Bible stack up against the claims of science and history? John MacArthur answers those questions today on GRACE TO YOU in a lesson called Our God-Breathed Bible.

Well, you may know a lot of what we’ll call the technical information about forgiveness—the biblical commands to forgive others. Stay with us today on GRACE TO YOU . . . as John MacArthur considers “A Living Lesson on Forgiveness” . . . part of his current series titled . . . The New Testament, Beginning to End.

And today on GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur, is going to help you spot those traitors—those false teachers . . . and show you how to deal with their lies.

Monday, September 26 – Our King Will Not Be Mocked (#1)

Thanks for joining us here on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur. Today, John launches a brand-new study that is going to help you make sense of . . . well . . . the confusion and the chaos and the unrighteousness that seems to have reached new heights these days. We're calling this series . . . The World vs. the Kingdom of God.

Tuesday, September 27 – Our King Will Not Be Mocked (#2)

These days, doesn't it seem that the world has crossed into a new dimension of depravity, one that is marked by social disorder, violent crime, government corruption, the rejection of biblical morality . . . and the acceptance of those things by many of the loudest and most powerful voices in our society? In the face of such decline, what does God expect from His church? To help you think biblically about the current chaos, follow along now with John MacArthur here on GRACE TO YOU as he continues a brand-new study that he calls . . . The World vs. the Kingdom of God.

Wednesday, September 28 – The Kingdom of Light Amidst the Kingdom of Darkness (#1)

A Christian student in a large public university, taking a science course taught by an atheist, speaks up in class to challenge his professor's views on evolution. That's a recipe for public humiliation if there ever was one. And, let's be fair . . . it has never been easy to stand up for biblical truth and a Christian worldview . . . in fact, now it's harder than ever. So for encouragement for those situations, stay here as John MacArthur continues his brand-new study . . . The World vs. the Kingdom of God.

Thursday, September 29 – The Kingdom of Light Amidst the Kingdom of Darkness (#2)

As a Christian, you expect to be mocked for believing that God created the world in six literal days . . . and that Christ rose from the dead. But did you ever think that anyone would be ridiculed for believing that only women can give birth . . . and that there are only two genders? Thankfully, God is still in control of everything that happens . . . and a day is coming when the world will believe the truth about God and confess His rightful authority and power. Today, John MacArthur looks at the return of Christ and what the church is called to do while it awaits His coming.

Friday, September 30 – God's Kingdom Is Not of This World (#1)

Many pastors have tried to reverse the decline in church attendance by making church more entertaining. But will certain strategies strengthen the church for the work it needs to do—the work God established the church to do? The challenges for God's people seem more insurmountable today than ever. Make sure you're thinking biblically about those challenges and listen to GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur to help you do just that.
