SERIES — Follow the Leaders

Monday, October 3 — Honoring Spiritual Leaders

When your children aren't getting along with each other, it can take up all of your time. It's so hard to get anything done when you have to play referee. Maybe your pastor feels the same way! Find out more on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Monday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, October 4 — Right Expectations

Imagine you're a pastor. It feels like everyone in the church is coming to you with their agenda, yet it's your responsibility to listen to God and lead the way He wants you to go. Dr. Crawford Loritts will show you how to encourage your pastor in this difficult role, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, October 5 — Principles and Warnings

In a consumer-oriented society, we like to compare products and get the best value. But churches and pastors are not products. And comparing spiritual leaders can be dangerous. Find out why on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, October 6 — They Need Your Prayers

How often do you pray for your pastor? Coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, we'll get to know a man named Jerry who actually prays for his church leaders for one hour every day. Hear more Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Empathizing with Your Pastor's Wife, with Jani Ortlund

Friday, October 7 — Empathizing with Your Pastor's Wife

Marriage to a man in ministry can be lonely and stressful. Help your pastor's wife feel more seen, understood, and encouraged, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Treasuring Christ When Your Hands Are Full, with Gloria Furman

Monday, October 10 — What Is Your Top Priority?

In the busyness of life, how do you make Christ your top priority? As a pastor's wife in Dubai and the mom of four kids, Gloria Furman knows what it's like to be busy. But no matter how chaotic life gets, her number one passion is to stay close to Jesus. Find out how Gloria treasures Christ when her hands are full, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy Demoss Wolgemuth, Monday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, October 11 — Treasuring Christ When Your Hands Are Full

Motherhood is tough, but that doesn't mean you have to just grit your teeth and get through it. The Lord wants you to experience joy in this season! Find renewed hope and perspective on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Faith in the Face of Infertility, with Kristen Clark

Wednesday, October 12 — Faith in the Face of Infertility

When Kristen Clark got married, everything seemed perfect, but it wasn't long before her dream life turned into a nightmare and she received a diagnosis she didn't expect: unexplained infertility. Find out how to experience joy when life doesn't go according to plan, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — A Beautiful Mess, with Mark Vroegop

Thursday, October 13 — A Beautiful Mess

Do you ever feel like the church is so broken that you should just give up and not go back? Find out why Pastor Mark Vroegop still believes staying in the church is a good idea, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, October 14 — Cheering on the Church

It's time for an attitude check: Are you more likely to cheer on the church, or judge it? A pastor explains why it matters that you support the local church—even when it's challenging, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — How to Listen to a Sermon

Monday, October 17 — The Listener's Role

Did you get much out of your pastor's sermon last time you were in church? Maybe that question has more to do with you than with your pastor. Your heart condition is more important than your pastor's eloquence. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth shares how to listen to a sermon on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Monday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, October 18 — God Will Speak

Do you ever find yourself leaving church thinking, "I didn't get much out of the sermon today. The pastor didn't do a very good job." Maybe your experience has more to do with your heart than the pastor's words. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth shows us how we should listen to a sermon on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, October 19 — Listening to God's Word

How do you know a church service has been effective? Great music? Professional quality presentation? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth says there's a crucial element every church service should have. She shares what that is, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, October 20 — Our Response

How many great sermons have you heard during your life? The more important question is: How many sermons have you put into practice? No matter how eloquent, moving or truthful a sermon is, it won't do much good if it doesn't affect your life. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth shares tips on applying sermons, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, October 21 — Encouraging Your Pastor

Think about the spiritual leaders in your life. Would you know what encourages or discourages them? Coming up, we'll hear from pastors and their wives. They share their struggles and how we can encourage them, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Find out what would happen if followers of Christ began to practice radically ordinary hospitality, on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Another Gospel, with Alisa Childers

Wednesday, November 2 — Deconstruction Defined

I don't know if you've run into anyone who says they "deconstructed their faith," or they went through a time of "spiritual deconstruction." Maybe you yourself have had some serious questions and doubts about Christianity. Coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Dannah Gresh and Alisa Childers help us understand what's going on with "deconstruction," and they point us to God's word for answers, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, November 3 — Healthy Questions or Dangerous Doubts

Is it okay to ask questions about the Bible? Maybe you've wondered how you can know it's true. Maybe your child, a parent, or a friend has expressed doubts that the Bible is reliable. What do you do when a loved one tells you they're not sure what they believe about God anymore? Alisa Childers points us to the answers, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Friday, November 4 — Breaking Stereotypes

When friends or family members tell you they're wrestling with what they believe about God or about the Bible, what is your response? Coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Alisa Childers shows us how we can engage with those who doubt, break the stereotypes, and point them to the truth in a kind way. SERIES — Finding Your Mission in Heaven's Rule, with Chris Brooks

Monday, November 7 — A Glimpse of God

Have you noticed that we're in a political season right now? Yeah, we are. But coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, we're going to be reminded that, no matter who's in political office, we can rest in a God who is still in control. Hear from Pastor Chris Brooks, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Monday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, November 8 — Show the Glory

Can you agree with me that we serve a BIG God? He's bigger than whatever problem you're facing right now. He's bigger than who wins the elections. And according to Chris Brooks, that fact should motivate us to say, "Sign me up, Lord. I'll go for you." Chris is the guest speaker on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Cultivating a Contented Heart

Wednesday, November 9 — In the Wilderness

When you look at your life, would you say you're thriving? Are you living life to the full? Maybe you'd say, "No. I'm not." Well, you're not alone! Coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth helps us examine why we live as if we're lacking, and a key way to solve that problem. That's on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, November 10 — Contentment is Possible

Where does discontentment show up in your life? God has given us blessing upon blessing, yet somehow it's easy to find ourselves with an attitude of always wanting more. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth dives into a discussion on dealing with discontentment on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, November 11 — A Grateful Heart

When was the last time you thanked God for something? Expressing your gratitude to the Lord affects your outlook on life, maybe even more than you'd realize. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth explains why thankfulness is a key part of living with a contented heart on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Cultivating a Contented Heart (Cont'd)

Monday, November 14 — A Trusting Heart

You and I will never be at peace in our hearts until we learn to trust God. That's straightforward, but oh, so true! And it's what Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth will talk about, coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Monday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, November 15 — A God-Centered Heart

Would it be more accurate to describe your heart as surrendered or self-centered? According to Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, getting our eyes off of ourselves and onto God is a crucial part of real contentment. She explains on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, November 16 — God is Enough

Have you ever thought, "If I only had such-and-such, THEN I'd be happy!"? Or the flip side: "If only I didn't have this circumstance in my life, THEN I'd be happy!" Both of those represent attitudes of discontentment. Coming up, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth reminds us that God is enough, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Christian Gratitude

Thursday, November 17 — Gratitude and Grace

Is your heart attitude one of being thankful? We talk about giving thanks more at this time of year, but really we should be grateful all year round. Coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth says Christians need to be the most grateful, the most thankful, the most full of gratitude. She'll explain, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, November 18 — Overflowing with Gratitude

Did you know that a failure to give thanks can actually harm an individual or a whole culture? May it not be true of you and me! Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth challenges us, instead, to "overflow with gratitude," coming up on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Discover more about this special, powerful name on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, December 7 — The Humility of Christ

Christmas is all about humility. Find out why, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, December 8 — Purification

After Mary gave birth to Jesus, she went to the temple to present a sacrifice. She handed over two birds to make atonement for her sin, while at the same time, she held the Lamb of God who would take away the sin of the world. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth makes this scene come alive, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, December 9 — A Very Special Baby Dedication

A lot of churches conduct baby dedications, in which parents present their children to the Lord. If those parents aren't dedicated to God themselves, the ceremony isn't going to do much good. Thursday, December 22 — The Cornerstone

Joy is a buzzword this time of year. And that's appropriate, since the birth of Jesus was joyful. But near the first Christmas, there were some prophetic reminders of the difficult life that lay ahead for the Savior. Explore these on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, December 23 — The Sign and the Sword

People can say strange things to new moms, such as "Just wait until they're teenagers! Then you'll be sorry." As a new mom, Mary heard something that might have sounded strange about her son, Jesus, and a sword. This message was prophetic rather than insensitive, and you can learn more about it on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — A Fresh Call to Our Mission

Monday, December 26 — A Fresh Call to Our Mission

Can you articulate the basic truths that define your life and purpose? Recently Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth addressed the staff of Revive Our Hearts. She wanted to remind them of the key defining principles of that ministry. I think you'll really resonate with Nancy's message, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Monday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Perspective, Promises & Prayers for a New Year (Psalm 28)

Tuesday, December 27 — A Desperate Cry

Everyone is desperate for something. Unanswered longings seem to be a normal part of our fallen world. Maybe you can identify, huh? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth helps us put our desperation in perspective on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Tuesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, December 28 — A Christian Response to Evil

Okay look around you. What do you see? Let me ask it this way: As you open your eyes, what evidence do you see of the work of God? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth helps us do what we're encouraged to do in Psalm 28 — "consider the works of the Lord," on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Wednesday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, December 29 — Praise for His Deliverance

Do you ever feel like you're going to wear yourself out trying to fight the battle on your own? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth shows us how David depended on the Lord to fight for him, on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Thursday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) here on (Station:____).

Friday, December 30 — Promise and Prayer for a New Year

Here at the end of the year, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth is going to pray a special blessing over us. The pattern for her prayer will be King David's four requests he prayed for the people of God in Psalm 28, verse 9. You can hear those four requests on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Friday/tomorrow/today at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Series: The World vs. the Kingdom of God

Monday, October 3 – God’s Kingdom Is Not of This World

For over two hundred years the majority of the United States believed that marriage was between a man and woman. But that all changed in a fifteen year span. Unfortunately, the biblical view of marriage is just one foundational belief that society has jettisoned recently—and who knows what will go next. With so much in the culture that is upside down today, can the church make a difference? John MacArthur has an encouraging answer today on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, October 4 – Bold Proclaimers of Gospel Truth (#1)

The apostle Paul suffered constant beatings . . . deprivation . . . and even a stoning. Yet, no matter how evil the world became or how often he was persecuted . . . the apostle Paul endured. But what gave this man of God the strength to say faithful . . . what truths did Paul cling to when his trials seemed impossible to endure . . . and then got harder? John MacArthur begins to answer that question today on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, October 5 – Bold Proclaimers of Gospel Truth (#2)

In his book, Seven Way to Fix the World Christopher Barnetts suggests mankind needs to adopt a low energy lifestyle . . . listen to a diversity of opinions . . . and put more women in authority. And while some of his ideas could help, none of them would truly fix the world’s problems. If you could only do one thing to fix mankind greatest issues, what should you do? John MacArthur tackles that questions head on today as he continues his brand-new series called . . . The World vs. the Kingdom of God.

Thursday, October 6 – Gospel Glory In Post of Clay (#1)

You used to be able to assume that the average person on the street—in America at least—would have a basic knowledge of the gospel. But now it can’t be taken for granted that someone has heard about sin . . . the resurrection . . . or even about Jesus Christ. So in a society that becoming more and more biblically illiterate— how do you effectively preach the gospel? Do you need to master a new technique? Hear more on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, October 7 – Could Jesus Come Today? (#2)

He’s known as the church’s first martyr—Stephen. Acts 7 tells us that after being mocked, beaten, and stoned, he cries out, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” With his last breath, he did not insult his attackers or seek revenge, he obeyed and glorified Christ. Now, you’ll probably never have to face that kind of persecution. But like Stephen you live in a culture filled with people, institutions, and politicians that hate you. John MacArthur continues his brand-new series on GRACE TO YOU titled . . . The World vs. the Kingdom of God.

Monday, October 10 – A Plea to a Governor Who Mocks God

You may have heard about an open letter that John MacArthur wrote to California's governor. It has prompted a lot of discussion about leaders who blaspheme God . . . and how the church should respond. That in mind, be here for a new interview called "A Plea to a Governor Who Mocks God"—we're preempting our regular schedule to bring it to you . . . on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, October 11 – Calling Rulers to Repentance (#1 of 2)

After California's governor recently had billboards put up in politically conservative states, encouraging women there to come to California to have abortions, John MacArthur wrote an open letter to the governor . . . and then preached the message that you'll hear on the next GRACE TO YOU. Tune in as we interrupt our regular schedule to air that message, titled . . . "Calling Rulers to Repentance."

Wednesday, October 12 – Calling Rulers to Repentance (#2 of 2)

You may think the only way to make government better is by voting out the bad leaders. But when was the last time you prayed for bad leaders to become good leaders—for God to redeem the people in authority over you? John MacArthur recently called his church to pray for the repentance of California's governor. Learn why as we break from our regular schedule . . . on GRACE TO YOU.

Series: The World vs. the Kingdom of God (Cont'd)

Thursday, October 13 – The Church has no Fellowship with the World (#2)

In the early twentieth century, a movement swept across Christianity that taught that the church should focus on fighting alcoholism, poverty, any other social ills. Now, while those are good desires, should they be at the heart of the church's mission? What does Scripture say about the purpose of the church—why was it created and how should it function? Consider that today as John continues his study on how you can effectively serve the Lord and flourish spiritually even amid the social chaos that is commonplace today on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, October 14 – Bible Questions and Answers, Part 58

John MacArthur's going to take a break from walking you verse-by-verse through a passage of Scripture. Instead, he's going to field questions about the Bible and the Christian life. The questions come from people at John's home church in Los Angeles . . . they're probably questions you've wondered about.

Series: Freedom from Sin

Monday, October 17 – Dying to Live, Part 1 (#1)

Maybe you just paid off your credit cards . . . or retired a car loan. But as significant as breaking financial shackles may be . . . breaking the bonds of sin is far more important. But can you even experience freedom like that in this lifetime? John MacArthur points you to the answer in his study called Freedom from Sin . . . here on GRACE TO YOU!

Tuesday, October 18 – Dying to Live, Part 1 (#2)

One theologian has said that holiness starts where justification ends . . . and if it doesn't start, we can suspect that justification never started either. What that means for you and me: If you don't see holiness in a professing believer, it could well be that person really isn't a Christian. So the question for us is . . . does holiness characterize our lives—have we experienced freedom from sin? John MacArthur brings us face to face with that issue today on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, October 19 – Dying to Live, Part 2 (#1)

Romans chapter 6 talks about Christians experiencing the death of the “old man.” If you're wondering what that means practically in your life, we encourage you to stay with us as John MacArthur continues the compelling study titled Freedom from Sin . . . on today's GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, October 20 – Dying to Live, Part 2 (#2)

Why is it that . . . even knowing sin's terror and consequences . . . we so often find it enticing? And how can you defend yourself from sin's allure? John MacArthur is helping you answer those questions as he shows you why you can know true Freedom from Sin. That's the title of his series here on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, October 21 – Dying to Live, Part 3 (#1)

Yesterday, John examined the apostle Paul's logical argument, really —a legal argument—explaining why and how Christians can lead holy lives. He's continuing a study on how to experience true holiness . . . and the kind of freedom uniquely available to believers. Freedom from Sin — that's John's focus and the title of our study. That's today on GRACE TO YOU.

Monday, October 24 – Dying to Live, Part 3 (#2)

There are many new addictions being talked about these days—smartphones, plastic surgery, shopping. But far harder to break than even the worst addiction is our enslavement to sin. Yet if you're a Christian, you have choice to not sin. But what sort of effort and timeframe does it take to break free from the grip it has on you? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU, as John MacArthur takes us to the book of Romans for the answers

Tuesday, October 25 – Free from Sin, Part 1

The Bible makes clear you can't serve opposing teams, enemy governments . . . or different masters. More than just common sense . . . you might say it's a universal law. We'll examine that concept today on GRACE TO YOU . . . as John MacArthur turns a new corner in our compelling study from Romans 6 and 7— the title . . . Freedom from Sin.

Wednesday, October 26 – Free from Sin, Part 2 (#1)

It's where the enemy is met . . . where good strategy sustains you . . . or bad planning breaks you – a place of victory . . . or defeat. Well in this case, the enemy is sin . . . and the field of battle is you – your person. As far as intensity goes, there's never been a more brutal war. As far as having victory goes . . . well, you may already have the keys to victory at your disposal. We trust John MacArthur's lesson on GRACE TO YOU will help you find out for sure.

Thursday, October 27 – Free from Sin, Part 2, (#2)

Thanks for taking time out of your Thursday to join us on GRACE TO YOU . . . as John MacArthur continues a discussion of, frankly, some pretty difficult issues from the book of Romans. It's all part of a series of lessons on how to experience . . . Freedom from Sin.

Friday, October 28 – Dead to the Law

When we think about dying, I suppose it's human nature to have a couple of selfish thoughts: One, that we won't die for some time yet . . . and two, that when we do die, it will be peaceful— easy, if you will . . . happening in our sleep, perhaps. Actually, though, you can be thankful if you experience one particular, violent death. John MacArthur explains today . . . as we continue our Freedom from Sin study with a message titled Dead to the Law.

Tuesday, November 1 – The Believer and Indwelling Sin, Part 1 (#1)

The challenge of the Christian life is to consistently think and act biblically. Yet no matter how many right moves you make, you don't make every right move—you still sin. Why is that? Why can something you truly hate still have so much power over you? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU, as John MacArthur continues his look at the book of Romans in a series titled . . . Freedom from Sin.

Wednesday, November 2 – The Believer and Indwelling Sin, Part 1 (#2)

Every day you face decisions with eternal consequences. Of course, I'm not referring to decisions like . . . what you should wear to the office or eat for breakfast. I'm talking about the choice you face to either go to battle against any desire, attitude, or action, that contradicts God's law . . . or to allow sin to control you. Where do you stand in that war? How can you fight it more effectively? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his study on how through Christ you can know . . . Freedom from Sin.

Thursday, November 3 – The Believer and Indwelling Sin, Part 2 (#1)

Only as a Christian do you have the capacity to feel the weight of sin . . . because you're spiritually alive—you're sensitive to sin . . . a sensitivity you should be cultivating daily. The apostle Paul certainly did . . . and from Paul, you'll better understand the horrible nature of sin . . . and how to experience freedom from it. So keep listening . . . as John MacArthur continues his study on GRACE TO YOU titled . . . Freedom from Sin.

Friday, November 4 – The Believer and Indwelling Sin, Part 2 (#2)

A good thought to keep in mind as you battle against sin. Sometimes you will defeat it . . . other times, sin will batter and bruise you. But the question is . . . do you have the drive to keep fighting your sinful flesh? If you don't, what does that say about your spiritual condition? Questions to keep in mind today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his current titled . . . Freedom from Sin.

Series: The Best of Christmas

Monday, November 7 – The Amazing Child of Christmas

In 1761, Wolfgang Mozart completed his first composition . . . at age five. In 1895, the artist Pablo Picasso painted “A Portrait of Aunt Pepa” . . . which was described as one of the greatest portraits in Spanish history. He was 14. However, no child can come close to the astonishing son John MacArthur looks at today on GRACE TO YOU. This child’s birth was proclaimed by angels and brought the hope of salvation to sinners. You’re about to see how amazing this child was in John’s series . . . The Best of Christmas.

Tuesday, November 8 – The Marvelous Birth of the King

Family trees can be fascinating, but—for the most part—they have little impact on your social status. Not so when Jesus was born. His genealogy determined where He lived, where He paid taxes, and the synagogue He belonged to. What’s more, Jesus’ ancestry shows that when He was born in Bethlehem, it was a royal birth. John MacArthur looks at that fascinating story today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues his study titled . . . The Best of Christmas.

Wednesday, November 9 – The Power of Christmas Truth

Whether you grew up going to church or not, you’re probably familiar with the basic facts of Christmas. Jesus was born in a manger . . . angels announced His birth . . . and shepherds visited the baby. But if someone asked you what makes all those details so life changing . . . would you know what to say? For some overlooked yet profound Christmas truth that will help you prepare for the holiday season, stay here for a message John calls . . . The Power of Christmas Truth.

Thursday, November 10 – The Child Who Was God

You’ve probably already started thinking about your Christmas “must-do” list. Perhaps it includes shopping for loved ones . . . visiting family and friends . . . and baking those traditional Christmas treats. While those activities certainly have their place . . . how do you make sure they don’t distract you from what matters most when it comes to your Christmas celebration? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU, as John MacArthur continues his series on Christ’s birth titled . . . The Best of Christmas.

Friday, November 11 – The True Christmas Spirit

Nearly everyone enjoys getting into the Christmas spirit. But the truth is . . . you can spend hundreds, even thousands on presents for others . . . you can decorate every inch of your home . . . you can attend every holiday event in your community . . . and still not have . . . the true Christmas Spirit. Series: What to Look for in a Church

Monday, November 14 – Fundamental Priorities of a Good Church (#1)

For Christians, moving usually means a change of churches . . . and choosing a new church may be your most important decision. Question is . . . What does a healthy church look like? Well, John MacArthur helps you sort out that critical question today, in the study he's launching here on GRACE TO YOU titled . . . What to Look for in a Church.

Tuesday, November 15 – Fundamental Priorities of a Good Church (#2)

Imagine yourself standing before a thousand college students, trying to steer them toward spiritual growth . . . What would you say? That's exactly the position John MacArthur found himself in at The Master's University, where he serves as chancellor. What topic did he choose? Answer: How to choose a good church. Hard to overstate just how important that decision is to your spiritual growth. So, John is here on GRACE TO YOU to help you make sure you're choosing a church for the right reasons.

Wednesday, November 16 – Fundamental Priorities of a Good Church (#3)

If your work relocated you to a different state, you obviously would try to find a new home, school for your kids, and places to shop. And of course, if you're a Christian, you would need to find a good church. But how do you do that—what do you look for? What are the marks of a church that truly honors God and serves His people? John MacArthur helps you sort out those critical questions today, as he continues a study recorded at The Master's University that's helping you see . . . What to Look for in a Church. That's today on GRACE TO YOU!

Thursday, November 17 – Why We Should Love the Church

Perhaps you know a professing Christian who says, "I'd go to church if it wasn't for all the hypocrites." Or maybe a member of a local church has mistreated you or criticized you, even lied to you. Sadly, that happens. People in churches don't always act like—well—Christians. So that raises the question . . . Can you follow Christ and not be part of a church? Today's lesson on GRACE TO YOU can help you answer that question . . . as John MacArthur explains why he loves the church, and why you should too.

This Thursday—Thanksgiving Day here in the United States—provides the perfect opportunity for you to pause and reflect on the things you’re thankful for. But have you ever wondered . . . what should make Christians most thankful? John MacArthur tackles that crucial question today on GRACE TO YOU . . . a practical lesson you’ll hear in a few moments.

Tuesday, November 22 – In Everything Give Thanks (#1)

Thankfulness—it’s foundational to your spiritual health . . . and one the easiest attitudes to neglect—even on the day bearing its name! So how do you cultivate a thankful attitude . . . both this holiday week in the United States and all year? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU in a message John’s titled . . . “In Everything Give Thanks.”

Wednesday, November 23 – In Everything Give Thanks (#2)

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day here in the United States . . . a wonderful time to reflect on God’s goodness. Of course, for Christians, every day should be a day of thanks . . . because of the profound blessings we have in Jesus Christ. That in mind, John MacArthur has a timely message today on GRACE TO YOU titled “In Everything Give Thanks” . . . helping you see the many, many reasons you have to give thanks no matter what you’re facing today—or face in the future.

Thursday, November 24 – Rejoicing Always (#1)

It’s become a day more associated with travel, eating, and football games than what American President Abraham Lincoln envisioned. It was in 1863 the president declared the first official Thanksgiving, a time for remembering “the gracious gifts of the Most High God.” And what’s perhaps most significant about Lincoln’s declaration is that it came in the middle of the U.S. Civil War . . . a reminder that even during serious troubles, God is gracious, merciful, and deserves our thanks. So even if you’re facing a time of testing today—Thanksgiving Day in the United States—join John MacArthur here on GRACE TO YOU as he looks at why, if you know Christ, you can rejoice in any circumstance.

Friday, November 25 – Rejoicing Always (#2)

It’s easy to be happy and content when things are going your way. But how can you be thankful when you’re mistreated . . . falsely accused . . . even when your life is in danger because of your faith? Bottom line, why should you still be grateful even when life is hard? John MacArthur shows you biblical answers to that question today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues a special week of broadcasts. Today’s sermon is titled . . . “Rejoicing Always,” and it just might help you cultivate thankfulness all year long

Even without governing authority, the English Monarchy still commands a lot of attention in the world. But as compelling as the House of Windsor may be, it can't compare to the family John MacArthur looks at in the study he begins today. Don't miss John's fascinating study for the Christmas season called ... The Birth of the King ... on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, December 13 – The Gracious King

It's less than two weeks until Christmas, and perhaps you still need to buy a few more presents, and maybe the turkey or ham for Christmas dinner. Exchanging presents and gathering with family are certainly joyous events, but how do you make sure Christ is the main emphasis of your celebration? John MacArthur helps you with that in his series called The Birth of the King ... on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, December 14 – The Virgin Birth

Can you be a Christian if you don't believe Jesus was born of a virgin? Is that an essential aspect of genuine faith? Could Jesus have redeemed sinners if He hadn't been virgin born? Consider that as John MacArthur looks at what Scripture says about the virgin birth as he continues his study called ... The Birth of the King ... on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, December 15 – The Virgin Birth

He healed the sick ... gave sight to the blind ... and rose from the dead. With all that Jesus did to prove that He is the Son of God ... did He really have to be virgin born to save you and me from our sins? John MacArthur answers that question in his current study for the Christmas season. Tune in for The Birth of the King on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, December 16 – Who Were the Wise Men?

Every year at this time you'll find them in front yards and even in shopping centers. But although nativity scenes are fixtures at Christmas, there's still plenty of confusion about what really happened at Bethlehem. John MacArthur looks at some widely held myths about Jesus' birth as he continues his study titled The Birth of the King on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Monday, December 19 – Who Were the Wise Men

If you asked the average person to describe the birth of Christ, they would probably mention animals, a manager, Mary—and three wise men. These men have become a permanent part of the Christmas story. But who exactly were they and why did they come visit Jesus? And could your view of these figures be more influenced by Christmas traditions than the Bible? John MacArthur helps answer those questions as he continues his study on The Birth of the King on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, December 20 – Fools and Wise Men, Part 1

Some say it was a comet ... others say it was a nova—the bright, flaring-up of a star. Plenty of people have looked for scientific proof that this strange light was a real astrological event. What do you think? What was the star of Bethlehem? John MacArthur examines this intriguing element of the Christmas story and why it matters as he continues his study of The Birth of the King on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, December 21 – Fools and Wise Men, Part 2

There's no reason to believe that Jesus was actually born on December 25—and it might be good that we don't know the exact day of Christ's birth ... because He needs to be our focus the other 364 days too. Still, you can be thankful there's a holiday celebrating Jesus' birth ... a time when even unbelievers are open to Bible teaching perhaps more than any other time. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur provides a rich dose of gospel truth you can communicate with loved ones. It's all part of his series on The Birth of the King.

Thursday, December 22 – The King Fulfills Prophecy, Part 1

There are many miracles that get our attention at Christmas ... the virgin birth, the star of Bethlehem, the angels singing and more. Yet, even more important than the miraculous circumstances of Christ's birth is the reason that He came. That's John MacArthur's focus on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, December 23 – The King Fulfills Prophecy, Part 2

Perhaps you're listening to this broadcast as you drive to see loved ones. Maybe you're tuning in from home while you prepare a Christmas meal or wrap presents. Or maybe you're about to watch a favorite holiday movie. No matter your schedule this Christmas Eve, a question to keep in mind: how do you worship Christ the way He deserves and get the most out of this season? Consider that as John MacArthur continues his series titled The Birth of the King on GRACE TO YOU.

Series: The Great Commission

Monday, December 26 – Making Disciples of All Nations, Part 1

On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur starts a four-day look at what should be one of the primary objectives of every believer ... making disciples. How does the Lord want you to make disciples? Consider that as John examines the mission Jesus gave his followers before He ascended into Heaven—otherwise known as ... The Great Commission.

Tuesday, December 27 – Making Disciples of All Nations, Part 1

You may not often think of it in these terms, but you and I are living in a spiritually lost world ... made up of the people you see in your neighborhood, your favorite restaurant, and the shopping mall. No doubt many of those lost people are folks you know — friends, coworkers, loved ones. What should you say to those lost people you care about most? John MacArthur shows you on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, December 28 – Making Disciples of All Nations, Part 2

Picture this: You explain the gospel to three friends ... and all three reject it. Does that necessarily mean you failed? Should you have said something differently? What does it take to be an effective witness for Christ? On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur takes you through a boot camp of sorts that will help you become what the great teacher Charles Spurgeon called a more potent soul-winner. Tune in for John’s study of The Great Commission.

Thursday, December 29 – Making Disciples of All Nations, Part 2

One business has these words on its website: “Woe to that company that loses sight of its mission statement for it has taken the first step on the slippery slope to failure.” Well, in a similar way, woe to the Christian who forgets his unique mission — namely, the Great Commission ... Jesus’ command to go into the world and make disciples. Question is, how does that call to action connect with the ordinary responsibilities you have ... working, running errands, or going to school? John MacArthur’s tackling that practical question in his current study on GRACE TO YOU titled, simply ... The Great Commission.

Friday, December 30 – Five Rock-Solid Truths for a New Year

Maybe you find it easier to read your Bible and pray when life is going well. But what about when money is tight . . . your health fails . . . or Satan is attacking? How can you make sure that under any circumstance, you’re making the Lord your first priority? Find out in the message John MacArthur calls “Five Rock-Solid Truths for a New Year” . . . on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Getting in Step with the Christian Walk ... on the next GRACE TO YOU WEEKEND.

Series: Getting in Step With the Christian Walk

Weekend of December 10/11 – The Lowly Walk, Part 6

Ever been ridiculed because you're a Christian? When that happens ... when your biblical convictions are under attack ... how should you respond? How do you honor Christ in that moment? Consider these questions as John MacArthur looks at some practical steps you can take to develop character that stands strong for God even when others oppose you. Be here for the next GRACE TO YOU WEEKEND.
