Dr. Gundry shares informative, life-changing information and a step-by-step easy approach to help us all feel better and more youthful at any age.

A History of Christianity: The First Christianity (Part 1 of 6) (NEW)

Sunday, March 1 from 12:00-1:30 pm

Diarmaid MacCulloch goes in search of Christianity's forgotten origins, overturning the familiar story that it all began when the apostle Paul took Christianity from Jerusalem to Rome. Instead, he shows that the true origins of Christianity lie further east.

A History of Christianity: Catholicism - The Unpredictable Rise of Rome (Part 2 of 6) (NEW)

Sunday, March 1 from 1:30-3:00 pm

More than one billion Christians look to Rome, more than half of all Christians on the planet. But how did a small Jewish sect from the backwoods of first-century Palestine, which preached humility and the virtue of poverty, become the established religion of Western Europe?

A History of Christianity: Orthodoxy - from Empire to Empire (Part 3 of 6) (NEW)

Sunday, March 1 from 3:00-4:30 pm

MacCulloch charts Orthodoxy's extraordinary fight for survival. After its glory days in the Eastern Roman Empire, it stood right in the path of Muslim expansion, suffered betrayal by crusading Catholics, was seized by the Russian tsars, and faced near-extinction under Soviet communism.

A History of Christianity: Reformation - The Individual Before God (Part 4 of 6) (NEW)

Sunday, March 1 from 4:30-6:00 pm

The Amish today are peaceable folk, but five centuries ago their ancestors were seen as some of the most dangerous people in Europe. MacCulloch makes sense of the Reformation and reveals how a faith based on obedience and authority gave birth to one based on individual conscience.

A History of Christianity: Protestantism - The Evangelical Explosion (Part 5 of 6) (NEW)

Sunday, March 1 from 6:00-7:30 pm

MacCulloch traces the growth of an exuberant expression of faith that has spread across the globe - Evangelical Protestantism. Today, it is associated with conservative politics, but the whole story is distinctly more unexpected.

A History of Christianity: God in the Dock (Part 6 of 6) (NEW)

Sunday, March 1 from 7:30-9:00 pm

MacCulloch explores a distinctive feature about Western Christianity - skepticism - that has transformed both Western culture and Christianity. He challenges the simplistic notion that faith in Christianity has steadily ebbed away before the relentless advance of science, reason, and progress, and shows instead how the tide of faith perversely flows back in.

Doo Wop to Pop Rock: My Music Celebrates 20 Years (NEW)

Sunday, March 1 from 9:00-11:30 pm; Monday, March 9 from 10:30 pm-1:00 am

Rick Steves' Europe: Travel Skills – Cruising

Friday, March 6 from 8:00-8:35 pm

The popular travel expert will be live in WTTW's studios to introduce several episodes of his engaging and informative series, providing tips that will make your next European vacation the best ever. Setting sail on the Mediterranean, Rick explores the ins and outs and pros and cons of cruising. He learns how to get the most out of a cruise, and exercises his independence to make smart use of limited time on shore by planning well, avoiding lines, and eating quick-but-local meals on the go. Along with the joys and efficiencies of cruising, Rick considers the downsides, including the inevitable congestion and commercialism that comes with mass tourism.

Rick Steves' Europe: Travel Skills – Greek Islands

Friday, March 6 from 8:35-9:10 pm

Rick island-hops through the Aegean, sampling three classic Greek getaways - Santorini, Mykonos, and Rhodes - and basking in their dramatic beauty. He tours ancient ruins, traces the vestiges of the Crusaders, samples rustic cuisine, savors classic Greek-island views, and compares beaches - from the ultimate party beach to idyllic quiet hideaways. And he shows how a cruise ship can be an efficient way to link up great island stopovers.

Rick Steves' Europe: Travel Skills – European Festivals I

Friday, March 6 from 9:10-9:45 pm

In this first of two episodes on Europe's greatest festivals, Rick cheers with the masses at Siena's crazy Palio horse race, tosses a caber at a Scottish Highland Games, dons a mask for Carnevale in Venice, and celebrates Easter in Greece. Dropping in on some of the Continent's top parties, he discovers that each one is a celebration of traditional culture, and all of them are full of opportunities to sing and dance, feast on traditional food, and party with locals.

Rick Steves' Europe: Travel Skills – European Festivals II

Friday, March 6 from 9:45-11:00 pm

In part two, Rick dances with Spaniards at Sevilla's April Fair, celebrates Bastille Day in Paris, runs with the bulls at Pamplona, and hoists a frothy stein at Munich's Oktoberfest. And he celebrates a traditional family Christmas, browsing the holiday market in Nurnberg and sledding down alpine slopes by torchlight in Switzerland. With the entire Continent as his playground, fun is his mission.
