4.1. Indemnification

From and after the Effective Date, LICENSEE and PROGRAMMER shall each indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless the other party and its affiliates and their respective members, managers, owners and employees (the "Indemnitees") from and against any and all losses, costs, damages, liabilities or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) (collectively, "Claims") that are proximately caused by (a) any programming provided by such party for broadcast on the Channel; (b) any breach by such party of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement; and (c) the negligence of such party, its employees or agents in the course of performing under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, LICENSEE shall indemnify and hold PROGRAMMER and its Indemnitees harmless from and against, and PROGRAMMER will indemnify and hold LICENSEE and its Indemnitees harmless from and against, liability with respect to matters arising from or relating to any programming produced or supplied by the indemnifying party, including liability for libel, slander, infringement of copyright or other intellectual property, violation of rights of privacy or proprietary rights, and for any claims of any nature, including fines imposed by the FCC, as a result of the broadcast on the Channel of any programming produced or supplied by the indemnifying party, including, without limitation, any programming which the FCC determines was in violation of any FCC rule, regulation or policy relating to lotteries or games of chance; obscenity, profanity or indecency; broadcast hoaxes; or the adequacy of sponsorship identification.

4.2. Procedure for Indemnification

The procedure for indemnification shall be as follows:

4.2.1. Notice

The party seeking indemnification (the "Claimant") shall give notice to the party from whom indemnification is sought (the "Indemnitor") of any Claim, whether solely between the parties or brought by a third party, specifying (i) the factual basis for the Claim, and (ii) the amount of the Claim. If the Claim relates to an action, suit or proceeding filed by a third party against Claimant, notice shall be given by Claimant within fifteen (15) business days after written notice of the action, suit or proceeding was given to Claimant. In all other circumstances, notice shall be given by Claimant within thirty (30) business days after Claimant becomes, or should have become, aware of the facts giving rise to the Claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Claimant's failure to give Indemnitor timely notice shall not preclude Claimant from seeking indemnification from Indemnitor except to the extent that Claimant's failure has materially prejudiced Indemnitor's ability to defend the Claim or litigation.

4.2.2. Claims Between Parties

With respect to Claims between the parties, following receipt of notice from the Claimant of a Claim, the Indemnitor shall have thirty (30) business days to make any investigation of the Claim that the Indemnitor deems necessary or desirable. For the purposes of this investigation, the Claimant agrees to make available to the Indemnitor and/or its authorized representatives the information relied upon by the Claimant to substantiate the Claim. If the Claimant and the Indemnitor cannot agree as to the validity and amount of the Claim within the 30-day period (or any mutually agreed upon extension thereof), the Claimant may seek appropriate legal remedy.

4.2.3. Third Party Claims

With respect to any Claim by a third party as to which the Claimant is entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Indemnitor shall have the right at its own expense to participate in or assume control of the defense of the Claim, and the Claimant shall cooperate fully with the Indemnitor, subject to reimbursement for actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Claimant as the result of a request by the Indemnitor. If the Indemnitor elects to assume control of the defense of any third-party Claim, the Claimant shall have the right to participate in the defense of the Claim at its own expense. If the Indemnitor does not elect to assume control or otherwise participate in the defense of any third party Claim, Claimant may, but shall have no obligation to, defend or settle such Claim or litigation in such manner as it deems appropriate, and in any event Indemnitor shall be bound by the results obtained by the Claimant with respect to the Claim (by default or otherwise) and shall promptly reimburse Claimant for the amount of all expenses (including the amount of any judgment rendered), legal or otherwise, incurred in connection with such Claim or litigation. The Indemnitor shall be subrogated to all rights of the Claimant against any third party with respect to any Claim for which indemnity was paid.

4.3. Limitations

Neither PROGRAMMER nor LICENSEE shall have any obligation to the other party for any indemnification hereunder except upon compliance by the other party with the provisions of this Section 4. Neither party shall be required to indemnify the other party under this Agreement for any breach of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement unless written notice of a Claim was received by the party within the pertinent survival period specified in Section 4.4 of this Agreement.

4.4. *Survival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants

The representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities and agreements contained in this Agreement or in any certificate, document or instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement are and will be deemed and construed to be continuing representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities and agreements and shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement for (i) a period of three (3) years after such termination or expiration; or (ii) in the case of a breach of Sections 2.4.1 and 2.4.4 until three (3) months after the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. No Claim may be brought under this Agreement unless written notice describing in reasonable detail the nature and basis of such Claim is given prior to such expiration. Any investigation by or on behalf of any party hereto shall not constitute a waiver as to enforcement of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement.

5. *Events Of Default And Cure Periods

5.1. *Events of Default

The following shall, after the expiration of the applicable cure periods as set forth in Section 5.2, each constitute an Event of Default under this Agreement:

5.1.1. *Non-Payment

PROGRAMMER's failure to pay, when due, the amounts payable under Section 1.3 of this Agreement.

5.1.2. *Default in Covenants or Adverse Legal Action

a. Any party (i) defaults in the performance of any material covenant, condition or undertaking contained in this Agreement, (ii) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or (iii) files or has filed against it a petition for bankruptcy, for reorganization or an arrangement, or for the appointment of a receiver, trustee or similar creditors' representative for the property or assets of such party under any federal or state insolvency law, which, if filed against such party, has not been dismissed or discharged within 60 days thereafter, or

b. As a consequence of any act or omission of PROGRAMMER, the FCC issues a Hearing Designation Order or commences any hearing with respect to the Station, issues a Show Cause Order, a Notice of Inquiry, Notice of Apparent Liability, or Order of Forfeiture with respect to the Station.

5.1.3. *Breach of Representation

Any material representation or warranty made by either party to this Agreement, or in any certificate or document furnished by either party to the other pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, proves to have been false or misleading in any material respect as of the time made or furnished.

5.2. Cure Periods

Except as provided herein, an Event of Default shall not be deemed to have occurred until ten (10) business days after the non-defaulting party has provided the defaulting party with written notice specifying the event or events that, if not cured, would constitute an Event of Default and specifying the actions necessary to cure the default(s) within such period. If not cured within that ten (10) business day period, the Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred as of the expiration of the cure period. For a default in payment as required under Section 1.3, an Event of Default shall not be deemed to have occurred until five (5) business days after LICENSEE has provided PROGRAMMER with written notice of non-payment. There shall be no cure period applicable in the event that: (i) PROGRAMMER fails to supply the Programming unless the cause for same is a Force Majeure Event, or (ii) LICENSEE determines there to have been a default under Section 5.1.2.b, as a consequence of an act or omission of PROGRAMMER, and LICENSEE may immediately terminate this Agreement under Section 6.1 in such event.

6. Termination

6.1. Termination Upon Default

Upon an Event of Default by PROGRAMMER under Sections 5.1.2.b, LICENSEE shall be permitted to terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to PROGRAMMER. Upon the occurrence of any other Event of Default, the non-defaulting party may terminate this Agreement, provided that it is not also in material default of this Agreement, and may seek such remedies at law and equity as are available, including, without limitation, specific performance. If this Agreement is terminated as a result of PROGRAMMER's default in the performance of its obligations, in addition to any other remedies that LICENSEE may have, all amounts accrued or payable to LICENSEE up to the date of termination which have not been paid shall immediately become due and payable.

6.2. Termination for Change in Governmental Rules or Policies

The parties believe that the terms of this Agreement meet all of the requirements of current federal governmental policy, including that of the FCC, for time brokerage or local marketing agreements, and agree that they shall negotiate in good faith to meet any governmental concern with respect to this Agreement. If the parties cannot agree within a reasonable time to modification(s) deemed necessary by either party to meet such governmental requirements, either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other.

6.3. Termination by PROGRAMMER

PROGRAMMER may terminate this Agreement by giving at least 90 days prior written notice to LICENSEE in the event that one or more of PROGRAMMER's translators that retransmit the Channel transmissions are (i) prevented from operating by full-power stations, or the FCC due to interference issues, or (ii) receive material interference from other primary or secondary broadcast sources in a substantial portion of the translator's coverage area that cannot be resolved. In addition, PROGRAMMER may terminate this Agreement by written notice to LICENSEE in the event LICENSEE modifies the Station in such a way as to prevent reception of the Station by one or more of PROGRAMMER'S translators that retransmit the Channel transmissions.

6.5. Liability for Prior Conduct

No expiration or termination of this Agreement shall terminate the obligation of each party to indemnify the other for claims of third parties under Section 4 of this Agreement or limit or impair any party's rights to receive or make payments due and owing in accordance with this Agreement on or before the date of such termination.
