

July through September programming

Perspectives:

#55 David Wright: The new IWU President talks about his life as he steps into a new role.

#56 Jacqui Dodyk: The director of the Affordable Housing Corporation discusses what their organization does to help the community find housing.

#Alicia Hazelwood: Director of the United Way talks about the ways the community helps fund certain programs.

#41 Dawn Brown: Community Foundation. The director of the Community Foundation talks about how they fund special projects and provide a way for scholarships to be set up and used in the community.

#24 Honor Flight: 2 volunteers talk about the Honor Flight program for veterans.

#40 Bob Kelly: Grant County Veteran Service Officer.

#27 Rosalyn Turcott: Bullying in Schools.

#58 Tom Mansbarger: The Pastor of Grace Community Church talks about his special service called "Cowboy Church"

#57 Darren Campbell: Darren talks about his time as the pastor of a local church and the CEO of Tree of Life Bookstores locally.

Crossroads:

9-5:

Mississinewa 1812: Students in a fourth grade classroom takes a hands on learning approach to the Battle of 1812.

Get a demo in making French Beignets.

A video featuring the work of Carey Services

Cowboy Church: A western themed service at Grace Community Church.

9-6:

Get a tour of the new Tree of Life bookstores

Interview with the Convention and Visitors Bureau about Shadows of our Town, a guided cemetery tour.

College Alliance Garden: hear from students who volunteer to take care of a community garden

Feature of Mississinewa Valley Band, a community band.

9-7

See how the local Police Department keeps trick or treaters safe.
Go bullriding with some local cowboys
Hear how local veterans can benefit from Military Appreciation Week
And learn to build the perfect Gingerbread House from Create-A-Cake

9-8

See highlights from Ramie's Run 5k
Get a behind the scenes look at the Crucible on the IWU Theatre Guild stage
Hear from local veterans at a service honoring them
Hear how you can take part in Giving Tuesday

9-9

Christmas City Walkway of Lights Parade interview
Sounds of Hope works on songs and their float for the parade
A November Tornado went through Indiana...see how local college students stepped in to help clean up
Get highlights from Marion's Christmas festivities

9-10

The Community School of the Arts puts on the ballet: "The Nutcracker"
"Miracle on 34th Street" hits the local stage at Marion Civic Theatre
See how you can help be a part of the Salvation Army Christmas campaign
Learn how to carve a face in a golf ball

9-11

On location of the Walkway of Lights
Best of past Christmas episodes