SEGMENT 1: RETHINKING WORK

Time: 1:47

Duration: 10:49

Synopsis: As the pandemic winds down and millions get back to a more normal routine, some employers are mandating for workers to return to the traditional office environment. But – some are pushing back, wondering why it's necessary to go back in if they can do the same tasks from home. Dr. Lynda Gratton breaks down how work has been forever changed by COVID-19 and the new models and technology that have taken hold instead of the traditional, in-person Monday-Friday routine.

Host: Gary Price

Producer: Amirah Zaveri

Guests: Lynda Gratton, professor, management practice, London Business School; author of Redesigning Work: How to Transform Your Organization and Make Hybrid Work for Everyone.

Compliance issues: Career, Business Management, Human Resources, Technology

SEGMENT 2: THE EARLY HISTORY OF THE KENNEDY'S

Time: 14:14

Duration: 9:27

Synopsis: Many would argue that the Kennedy family is an American cultural and political dynasty. From former President John F. Kennedy to past Kennedy's that have served as senators, ambassadors and in other high-ranking government positions, the name today still signifies power and prestige. However, go back just three generations from JFK and the Kennedy's were poor, Irish refugees who had just arrived on the shores of America. This week – we discuss this historic ascent from rags to riches.

SEGMENT 2: SUPPORTING U.S. FARMERS

Time: 13:26

Duration: 9:13

Synopsis: The pandemic exposed the fragility of our global food system and just how much we rely on the many components that make up the food supply chain. At the height of the pandemic, when there were numerous food production and shipping delays, farmers across the U.S. stepped up and contributed to their local food supply. With domestic farms declining, America is extremely reliant on foreign shipments. We discuss the many challenges farmers are facing and the barriers to entry in agriculture.

SEGMENT 1: WORKING IN CHILDCARE: THE HEAVY COST OF RAISING SOMEONE ELSE'S KIDS

Time: 1:48

Duration: 11:14

Synopsis: There are more than 438,000 employees working in childcare, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. As of May 2021, the median hourly wage in this sector is around $13/hour. With rising costs and many other open jobs, many are leaving their positions in childcare. We speak with two experts about the growing early childcare gap in the U.S. and why bettering the sector starts with valuing these workers more.

SEGMENT 2: BARELY SURVIVING: MAKING A LIVING AS A GARMENT WORKER

Time: 15:04

Duration: 7:30

Synopsis: The average garment worker in Bangladesh is paid about $86/month. A livable wage in the country is around $200/month. Even in the U.S., it's not much better. Most employees in U.S. garment factories work 60-70 hours per week and are paid $300/week, totaling $1,200/month, according to the Garment Worker Center. Longtime fashion writer and industry expert Dana Thomas joins us to help us understand the labor and environmental crisis plaguing the fashion industry.
