

General Quarterly Program Issues Report

Placed In Public File: April 10th, 2008

1st Quarter 2008

The following is a listing of WMSN's commitment to air significant programming while addressing important community issues.

Programming	Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Description of Program
Educational/ Informational	Liberty's Kids	M-F & Sun. (1/1/08 – 3/30/07)	7:30am	½ Hour	Ben Franklin hires an American teenaged boy, a young English lady and a French orphaned boy as reporters during the Revolution for his newspaper the Pennsylvania Gazette. Through these reporters and their travels to ordinary homes, battlefields from Virginia to Massachusetts and the royal courts of France and England, the viewer is exposed to the issues which prompted the colonies to seek freedom. Through the explanation of these issues by such historical figures as Jefferson and Paine, the viewer also learns the impact these issues have on the lives of ordinary citizens.
Educational/ Informational	Archie's Weird Mysteries	Mon. 3/31/07	7:30am		The series is designed to build problem-solving and information management skills and to model the pro-social values and behaviors associated with enduring friendships and effective teamwork. In addition to problem solving themes, each episode illustrates fundamental principles of gathering, evaluation and interpreting information and using it to imagine and test plausible scenarios. It is the intent of the series to motivate children to see critical thinking and team problem-solving as exciting, fun, and within their capacity.
Educational/ Informational	The Adrenaline Project	Saturday (1/05/08-3/29/08)	10:30am	½ Hour	A health and fitness adventure series designed to inform, instruct and inspire viewers. Through competitive physical challenges and exhilarating sports events, viewers connect with a diverse group of teen athletes as they challenge their physical and mental abilities, enhance their strategic thinking skills and manage excitement, risk and disappointment. Skill development, practice and encouragement enable contestants to bring their personal best into a weekly competition and win or lose -- take pride in themselves and their accomplishments. Further educational and informational content is provided through an exciting multi-media presentation that offers historical context for the locations and experiences that the athletes encounter, as well as informative insights about physical exercise, teamwork and emotional well-being.
Minority Affairs	Our World	Sundays	5:30am	½ Hour	A nationally syndicated weekly news & interview program that addresses international & domestic issues from the African-American perspective. Hosted, on a rotating basis, by James Brown & Juan Williams with commentary by Julian Bond, Deborah Mathis, & Armstrong Williams.
