11/13/16 9:00AM 00:13:03

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: In 2004, we spoke with activist and former California legislator Tom Hayden who passed away last month. The topics were gangs and violence, how and why young men and women join gangs and how we can stem the violence of these groups and help the young people who belong to them to live better, safer and more productive lives. In these days of continued strife on urban streets, we can still benefit from his hopeful – yet controversial – ideas on the topic. Host: Gary Price. Guests: The late Tom Hayden, former member of The Chicago Seven and California State Senator of 18 years, is author of the book, Street Wars: Gangs and the future of violence. Compliancy Issues Covered: African American issues, minorities, violence, law enforcement, poverty, labor

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 2: Most of us have heard the name of Henry Clay, but he’s not one of the people we usually remember the way we do George Washington or Thomas Jefferson. Our guest says that Clay was just as important to our nation as the founding fathers, and he discusses the great contributions this Speaker of the House made to keep our country together, fight for justice, and create the foundations of our extensive modern U.S. transportation system. Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Harlow Giles Unger, author of Henry Clay: America’s Greatest Statesman and contributor to The Huffington Post
Compliance Issues Covered: Government, Transportation, War, Law, Slavery, History

12/18/16 9:00AM 00:11:00

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: This year, many families will spend the holidays with family members away, in combat in Iraq and Afghanistan. It’s tough being on the battlefield at any time of year, but during Christmas it’s especially hard. We talk to a historian and author about one Christmas, in 1944, when American soldiers spent a freezing holiday in the Ardennes forest, fighting for their lives against Hitler’s army during the Battle of the Bulge; and how a general’s prayers could have been the key to turning the tide in the Allies’ favor. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Stanley Weintraub, Evan Pugh Professor Emeritus of Arts & Humanities, Penn State University, and author of “11 Days in December: Christmas at the Bulge, 1944.” Compliance Issues Covered: Military, War, Religion, History

CULTURE ISSUES:

RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL: SEGMENT 2: Tickling is a unique application of the sense of touch that surprisingly has developmental and cultural importance. Experts discuss the science and sociology of tickling. Host: Nancy Benson. Guests: Dr. David Linden, Prof. of Neuroscience, Johns Hopkins Univ. School of Medicine and author, Touch: The Science of Hand, Heart and Mind; Dr. Robert Provine, Prof. of Psychology & Neuroscience, Univ. of Maryland, Baltimore County and author, Curious Behavior: Yawning, Laughing, Hiccuping, and Beyond

11/20/16 9:00AM 00:11:43

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: The late actor, Jimmy Stewart, gave us some very memorable characters during his time in Hollywood – many very funny; others endearing; and still others dark and villainous. Perhaps Stewart’s most dramatic role was the one that not many people know about, but that molded his life and his psyche – not to mention his acting – for most of his career: fighter pilot in World War II. We talk to an author who delved into Stewart’s war service about how flying missions over Europe and seeing his comrades die affected the actor and his choice of roles and acting style for the rest of his life. Host: Gary Price. Guest: Robert Matzen, author of Mission: Jimmy Stewart and the fight for Europe. Compliancy Issues Covered: military veterans, war, PTSD, movies & the arts, history, technology

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: The “Wage Gap” has been a persistent topic in America for years and it played a big role in determining the outcome of the recent election. We’re joined by two experts who both agree that closing the wage gap should be a top priority in this country, but who have very different takes on how that can be achieved. We talk governmental regulations, tax codes, charity, and much more in regards to bringing the haves and the have-nots together. Our experts say doing so may just bring a very divided country together before the wedge between the two groups changes America into a very different, and likely very worse-off, place for our children to inherit. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Chuck Collins, website editor for The Institute for Policy Studies and author of the book, Born on Third Base. Kyle Hauptman, executive director of the Main Street Growth Project
 Compliance Issues Covered: US Government, Economics, Politics, Business and Industry

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: The public library system in the U.S. is one of our most cherished community services, yet in these days of government budget cuts, libraries around the country are feeling the pinch of shorter hours, fewer staff and old technology. Our guests discuss why funding and supporting our libraries is a way to raise smarter kids, help residents with social service navigation, boost the economy, and help immigrants become full American citizens. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Dr. Timothy Crist is the president of the Board of Trustees for The Newark Public Library, Newark NJ; Karin Slaughter, internationally bestselling author whose latest novel is titled The Kept Woman, founder of Save the Libraries. Compliancy Issues Covered: education, philanthropy, community services, employment, community activism, African American issues, Latino issues

11/27/16 9:00AM 00:11:15

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: Schools are emphasizing science, technology, engineering and math—the STEM subjects. Many people believe science is too technical for kids to understand. We talk to two experts who say children take to science readily if it's presented in the right way by tapping into the “ick factor” that seems to fascinate them. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Chris Martine, David Burpee Prof. of Plant Genetics and Research, Bucknell Univ.; Jessica Garrett, science teacher and co-author, Oh, Ick! 114 Science Experiments Guaranteed to Gross You Out Compliancy Issues Covered: education, science and technology; women's issues

11/27/16 9:00AM 00:10:15

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 2: During the holidays, many parents fret over the materialistic messages their children are exposed to. We talk to a mom and an author who together have created a children's book and game designed to make giving back to others a fun pursuit. Host: Marty Peterson. 12/04/16 9:00AM 00:11:57

VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: High school graduates who plan to go on with their education are making plans to head off to college this fall. Not all of them were accepted to the college that was their first choice, and many are disappointed about it. Some young people didn't get into college at all because they weren't offered the help they needed to find a college that suited them financially and culturally. We talk to an author and to a high school counselor about the myths surrounding acceptance to an “elite” college, why a small or state school can be a better fit, and how high school counselors can better serve diverse and often financially strapped students. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Frank

RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL: SEGMENT1: Many people feel that gifted children don't need any help because they're so talented. But many gifted kids are so bored in school they become disruptive and do poorly, so they're not identified and their need for a challenge isn't met. Other gifted children have disabilities, such as learning disabilities, that are not identified because they are masked by their gifts. Experts discuss how to meet the needs of these children educationally and emotionally. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. James Webb, clinical psychologist, President, Great Potential Press and founder, Supporting Emotional Needs of the Gifted; Megan Foley Nicpon, Assoc. Prof of Counseling Psychology, University of Iowa and Assoc. VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 2: Raising kids these days isn't easy. Parents have expectations for their children that often don't jibe with who the child is and his or her temperament -- and that can lead to problems with behavior that disrupt family life, and end up being counterproductive for the child. We talk to a psychologist about why kids behave the way they do in certain situations, and offer strategies for dealing with a child that can help them grow more responsible and independent. Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Dr. Ross Greene, a
