COVID-19 PANDEMIC
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1, "STAYING HEALTHY THROUGH THE END OF 2021 WITH DELTA IN THE BACKGROUND": I don't know if it's just us, but this year really has flown by. It's odd to think that 2022 is only three months away. Unfortunately, the Delta variant is causing the COVID-19 pandemic to still linger on this year, but many are optimistic that the worst is now behind us. Pediatrician Dr. Jenna Wheeler joins us this week to offer up some advice on holiday gatherings, keeping healthy through flu season and the importance of getting younger children vaccinated as soon as they're eligible. With the Dayton Children's Hospital vaccine clinics ready to launch soon, this might be an opinion to lean on.	10/3/2021	9:30 AM	00:09:26
WHIO REPORTS, "COVID-19: An Update": This edition of WHIO Reports focuses on the COVID crisis from some of the Miami Valley's top experts in medicine and public health. In just the last month, we've seen another spike in COVID cases and hospitalizations, especially among younger people, age 20 to 40. More recently, Ohio's Health Director said it's beginning to look like the increase in cases has crested, and increased vaccinations are paying off.	10/10/2021	8:30 AM	00:24:30
EVENING EDGE WITH TODD HOLLST: Talking about dangers of animals testing positive for COVID-19.	10/19/2021	6:00 PM	00:05:00
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1, "ENDEMIC COVID: THE DISEASE THAT NEVER LEAVES": Many experts believe we have missed our chance to eliminate Covid-19, and that now it is very likely to become an endemic disease--one that persists, though at lower levels, and never goes away. Two noted infectious disease experts discuss what that means for precautions and lifestyles in perpetuity.	10/24/2021	9:00 AM	00:13:33

VIEWPOINT, SEGMENT 1, "THE MODERN PET: A MUCH-ADORED FAMILY MEMBER": You may have held out on getting a pet for years and years, but when the pandemic hit, it seemed like an opportune time to add a new furry member to the family. Today, more than 70 percent of Americans own one pet or more, and this number is only set to increase in coming years. We speak with two pet experts this week about the evolving sector and the pedestal we place our pets on in this country. An episode Miami Valley pet lovers might relay to.	10/17/2021	9:30 AM	00:12:03
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1, "THE RISE OF 'INFLUENCE' IN THIS WORLD": Being an influencer has turned into a career option for some, and today, some college students are pursuing degrees in social media to work within the industry or try their hand at becoming an influencer themselves. We discuss the state of social media education and the larger implications of this shift in modern culture. With Dayton, OH being home for a number of local and national influencers, this topic might be interesting for the Daytonians.	10/24/2021	9:30 AM	00:09:42

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2, "LIVING IN POVERTY IN THE RURAL U.S.": Poverty exists, but it's hard to grasp what it's really like if you've never experienced it firsthand. Journalist Sarah Smarsh joins Viewpoints this week to share her story of growing up poor in rural America. She shares memories from her childhood and her perspective on how modern culture stigmatizes and traps people stuck in the cycle of poverty. A pertinent topic for those listeners who grew up and live in rural areas of Ohio.	10/31/2021	9:30 AM	00:10:02
EVENING EDGE WITH TODD HOLLST: Discussing how daylight savings time influences the economy.	11/5/2021	6:00 PM	00:05:00
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1, "THE LANDSCAPE OF FOOD INSECURITY AS FOOD PRICES CONTINUE TO SOAR": In 2020, nearly 40 million Americans lived in food-insecure households. With food prices rising across the country, food insecurity is only set to worsen, disproportionately affecting minority populations. How can people help? A great introduction episode for those Daytonians who would like to join the local community efforts to battle hunger.	11/7/2021	9:30 AM	00:08:15

ECONOMY
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1, "THE GREAT RESIGNATION' AS LABOR SHORTAGES CONTINUE": Today, there are close to 11 million vacant jobs in the U.S. – a record-breaking number. Why are more Americans not filling these positions? How is this affecting businesses? What will eventually happen if these jobs go unfilled? We explore these questions and more this week as we're joined by hospitality entrepreneur, Ravindra Jayara, and senior labor economist, Dr. Abigail Wozniak. A relevant topic for the Dayton audience as our region is seeing labor shortages as well as the rest of the country.	11/14/2021	9:30 AM	00:09:33
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1, "STAFFING STRUGGLES THREATEN SURVIVAL OF RURAL HOSPITALS": Rural hospitals have long struggled to maintain staffing levels of nurses and other professionals that are adequate for good care. The pandemic has made it much worse, as staffers have quit, and patient loads have increased. Experts discuss the roots of the staff shortage, the effects on care safety, the extreme cost of efforts to attract and retain staff, and the threat to hospital survival posed by the problem.	11/14/2021	9:00 AM	00:12:02
WHIO REPORTS, "Labor Shortage/Supply Chain Issues/Vaccine Mandates/Childcare Availability": This edition of WHIO Reports will focus on the continued labor shortage and supply chain issues, along with vaccine mandates and childcare availability that has plagued not only the Miami Valley, but also in the state and nationally.	11/14/2021	8:30 AM	00:24:30

RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1, "HOMELESS AMERICANS: MYTH VS. REALITY": Around a half million people are homeless in the US on any given night, but the street homeless who are most visible often incorrectly influence our assumptions about the homeless. A noted researcher discusses myths and truths about their addictions, employment, residences, and more, and why people often become homeless. With over 500 people in Dayton being officially homeless with at least 17% of them being families with kids, this topic is pressing for the local audience.	11/21/2021	9:00 AM	00:11:35
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1, "A BREAKDOWN IN HOUSING": In some cities, people are seeing as high as 30 percent increases on monthly rent. For middle and low-income citizens already on a tight budget, it's impossible to make ends meet – especially as prices for food, gas and other basics keep ticking upwards. We speak with two housing experts about the complete lack of affordable housing in this country and the worsening homelessness epidemic. A topic that quite pertains to the Dayton housing market.	11/21/2021	9:30 AM	00:09:06
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1, "GIVING BACK AS CASH TRANSACTIONS BECOME LESS COMMON": Do you find yourself carrying less and less cash in recent years? You're not alone. Last year, cash payments made up about 18 percent of all transactions, according to a national study conducted by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. For homeless populations and nonprofit fundraisers that rely on in-person cash giving, what's the outlook? How can the public help in different ways or donate through digital transactions?	12/5/2021	9:30 AM	00:10:52
WHIO REPORTS, "West Dayton Incubator": This edition of WHIO Reports will focus on the Greater West Dayton Incubator or the GWDI is just two days away from opening. RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1, "THE DANGERS OF FACIAL RECOGNITION": Facial recognition technology is everywhere, from your smartphone to the grocery store to city streets. But do we really want to be constantly tracked? Law enforcement finds it immensely helpful, but many experts say it's a massive invasion of privacy that needs limitation. Experts discuss. Great episode for the Daytonians interested in technology and its ethical aspect.	10/31/2021	9:00 AM	00:13:30
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2, "REGAINING DIGITAL PRIVACY": While it may seem like people have some control over privacy settings, this is merely an illusion argues law professor Neil Richards. This week on Viewpoints - we highlight the lack of privacy online and why consumers should expect better from corporations and their government.	11/21/2021	9:30 AM	00:09:21

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1, "THE CONSEQUENCES OF VOTER ERROR": In 2006, Filipino immigrant Elizabeth Keathley mistakenly registered to vote while at a DMV in Illinois. After receiving her Voter ID in the mail, she ended up casting a ballot in the next election thinking she could do so. However, she wasn't a U.S. citizen at the time and, because of her actions, faced eventual deportation back to the Philippines. We speak with Keathley and the lawyer who helped her, Richard Hanus, about her years-long legal fight and the common confusion around the Motor Voter Law. With Dayton being home of hundreds of immigrants and Ohio primary elections on the way, this would be a great topic to look into for the local audience.	12/26/2021	9:30 AM	00:10:50
