03-05-23 Second Harvest Food Bank (TRT 12:00)

Our community, like so many others in our country, is home to people who struggle with hunger. Since federal nutrition programs don't reach everyone in need, food banks help fill the gap. Each year, Feeding America releases a study called Map the Meal Gap to help us better understand how many people in our service area are going hungry each day.

03-12-23 Symphony of the Mountains | Concerts for the Homeless April 1 Concert (TRT 12:00)

In keeping with its mandate to be Entertaining, Educating, and Enriching the community, Symphony of the Mountains is initiating an outreach program to raise awareness regarding concerns for people who are homeless. As part of this effort, the Symphony has co-commissioned a Violin Concerto called "Paths to Dignity" by Lucas Richman. It addresses the "Paths to Dignity" for unsheltered people. In the weeks leading up to the concert, extensive outreach will help educate our communities about the issues of people who are homeless and will provide music in places where individuals and families who are unsheltered can enjoy it.
