

WKIN-CD

Quarterly Issues & Programs List

Third-QUARTER 2022

A quarterly list of community issues the station addressed in its programming during the preceding three months, and the programming which gave “significant treatment” to those issues.

The following issues were presented on WKIN-CD public affairs program “A Closer Look”:

ISSUES:

1) 7-03-2022 WETLANDS WATER PARK COVID RESTRICTIONS (TRT 12:00)

Matt Townsend Parks and Recreation Director in Jonesborough TN, talks about the opening of the Pool this year. He explains the COVID Restrictions. He explains that due to COVID there is a shortage on Lifeguards this year, but they do have enough to handle this summer, and how the facility is dealing with COVID restrictions, pools are considered safe by the CDC. Wetlands Water Park staff are staffed with a cleaning crew to wipe down equipment and clean the facility for guests. He explains that masks are not needed but can be worn if desired.

2) 7-10-2022 CANCER FUNDRAISER- CREEPER TRAIL RIDE (TRT 12:00)

Research on rare cancers is drastically underfunded and attracts fewer research dollars than more common cancers, like breast and lung cancer. This results in fewer treatment options for rare cancer patients. Research on finding cures for rare cancers could yield to treatment of other more prevalent forms of cancer, making the need for research funding important for all cancer patients

3) Juvenile Court 7-17-2022, CASA Court Appointed Special Advocate” organization. (24:00)

Mary Kilpatrick, Executive Director for CASA speaks to “A Closer Look” about CASA. She outlines details regarding how this process works to train and appoint special advocates that will be serving children in the juvenile justice system.

4) 7-24-22 CASA Mrs. International (12:00)

Mrs. International 2021, Yolanda Stennett and Mary Richardson, National Executive Director Joins Lynda Fontaine on “A Closer Look”. They talk about the upcoming Mrs. International Pageant at the Meadow View Convention Center. The International Pageants system emphasizes community service with half of each contestant’s competition score based on knowledge of and work with her platform. Growing up as an at-risk youth, Stennett was headed down the wrong road as a young girl. Today, she attributes her success to her mentor that gave her the tools to succeed both academically and emotionally. “As an adolescent, a church mentoring program literally saved my life,” said Stennett. “Studies show that the presence of a mentor in an at-risk youth’s life reduces crime involvement, drug addiction and depressive symptoms, and significantly increases the enrollment in higher education and career leadership positions. I’ve been a mentor and youth advocate my entire adult life and my new role as Mrs. International 2021 will allow me to spread my mentoring philosophy nationally and internationally: reach one; teach one—by any means necessary,”

5) 7-24-22, Lamp Light Theatre (12:00)

Billy Wayne Arrington, Founder and President of Vision Productions and Billy Wayne Ministries along with Stephanie Davidson, Public Relations Manager Joins Lynda Fontaine on “A Closer Look” to talk about the Lamp Light Theatre in Downtown Kingsport. HALO PROJECT, Hope and Love Outreach for At Risk and underprivileged children. A project that sponsors children to go to camp and raises money to supply back to school items and clothing, along with Christmas Gifts every year.

6) 7-31-22, Hemp vs. Marijuana regulation. Department of Agriculture (12:00)

Jeff Aiken with the Department of Agriculture talks to Lynda Fontaine on “A Closer Look” to talk about his role in the Department of Agriculture as Deputy Commissioner in Tennessee. Jeff gives an overview of what the department does including the flagship program called “TN AG Enhancement Program”, which is a “cost share program” for full time farmers that allows farmers to improve the genetics for their animals, purchasing equipment that will make their farms safer daily. Tennessee has over 70,000 diverse farms in the State. They discuss the topic of Regulation of Hemp and how it’s different from marijuana and discussed the debate regarding the legalization of marijuana vs. Hemp.

7) 8-14-22, HIV/AIDS – Rent (12:00)

Jakob Buckles and Dustina Buckles talks to Lynda Fontaine on “A Closer Look” about acting in the Kingsport Theatre Guild’s Play called “Rent”. Rent is a rock musical that tells the story of a group of impoverished young artists struggling to survive in the New York’s East Village during the AIDS crisis. Living through the 80’s watching friends die is why they decided to be a part in this play.

8) 8-07-22, Home growing gardens, High food prices (12:00)

Lydia F. Hoskins, Extension Agent Family & Consumer Sciences at UT/TSU Joins Lynda Fontaine on A Closer Look to show you how to make a couple of great summer salads. They discuss how to grow your own vegetables and how that is becoming more mainstream with high gas and food prices.

9) 9-11-22, Kingsport Redevelopment (12:00)

The Kingsport Tennessee City Manager talks about redevelopment of the Brickyard area. He explains how important this is to improve downtown living. Not everyone is happy with the decision to move forward with this project due to the cost and time frame of the project, but the improvements outweigh those concerns he says.
