

Federal communications commission public file for April, May, and June 2022 issues list

April 5, 2022 John Ward, city Council vice president, talking about issues including spending American rescue funds for the city of Woonsocket.

April 6, 2022 Woonsocket mayor lisa baldelli-hunt, talking on Woonsocket city issues including planning the current budget starting July 1, 2022

April 19, 2022, councilmember James Cournoyer talking about Woonsocket issues including street paving and budget issues.

May 10, 2022, Alan Waters , candidate for attorney general state of Rhode Island talking about his current campaign to be elected.

May 11, 2022 Ashley Kalus candidate for governor of the state of Rhode Island talking about her candidacy to be elected.

May 17, 2022 councilmember david Soucy talking about issues concerning the city of Woonsocket including the spending of American rescue funds .

May 18, 2022, mayor lisa baldelli-hunt talking about issues concerning the city of Woonsocket including public works issues at the waste water treatment plant.

May 25th 2022, lieutenant governor Sabina Mattos talking about the issues concerning for reelection to that office in November.

May 26, 2022, Eugene ^{Jadette} Gillette, public safety Director for the city of Woonsocket talking about police funding, police staffing and community policing.

May 31, 2022, superintendent of schools Dr. Michael Skelton, Beacon charter school talking about the importance of charter schools and it's graduating class of 2022

June 1, 2022, superintendent of schools Dr. Patrick McGee and school committee chair person Paul Bourget talking about the graduating class of 2022 and school funding for the city of Woonsocket and it's future building program to update schools.

June 7, 2022 councilmember Valerie Gonzalez talking about the issues of the day including the cities diversity issues

June 8, 2022, Mayor lisa baldelli-hunt talking about Woonsocket city issues including lowering