

2022 Q1 Issues/Program Lists Due April 10 for WNRI for Upfront interview program

January 11 Woonsocket Council member James Cournoyer discussing local issues including American Rescue plan funding; canal district plan; community development block grant funds

January 12 Woonsocket Mayor Lisa Baldelli Hunt on local issues including covid 19 initiatives, Main Street secondary career center buildout; Cass Park athletic complex buildout

January 19 Michael Sousa, CEO Landmark Medical Center discussing medical services offered by the hospital.

January 25 Woonsocket City Council member Valerie Gonzalez discussing local issues including affordable housing, homeless issues and sex education in local schools.

January 26 Woonsocket Mayor Lisa Baldelli Hunt discussing local issues including comprehensive plan, finding city employees to fill jobs and public safety issues.

January 27 RI state attorney General Neronha Announce Settlement with Opioid Distributors, Bringing Rhode Island's Opioid Litigation Recoveries to over $114 Million, should illegals vote or have licences, crime statistics and backlog of court cases

February 01 Rhode Island Governor Dan McKee discussing state budget, state response to Covid 19 and restoring state economy by helping small business

February 02 Robert Martin, Crossroads real estate discussing housing inventory, interest rates and sellers market

February 08 Senator Roger Picard, district 20 discussing state budget, legalizing marijuana in Rhode Island and bills pending in General Assembly

February 16 Mayor Lisa Baldelli Hunt on local issues including covid 19 clinics, clean up of polluted industrial sites and Main Street renewal.

February 22 Woonsocket City councilmember Roger Jalette discussing canal district plan, filling vacancies in city departments and unnecessary city spending

March 02 Woonsocket Superintendent of schools and school committee chair Paul Bourget discussing school issues including in person instruction, school re-building