

---

WGFB-FM
The Rockford Files
June, 2015
Host Paul Arco
5:30 a.m. – 6 a.m.

June 7, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Anne O'Keefe, president and CEO of Rockford Area Arts Council. Anne talks about the upcoming summer schedule, how the arts impact negative attitudes about our community, and the future of the Arts Council.

June 14, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Cathy McDermott, manager of the City Market. Cathy discusses the popularity of City Market, the impact on downtown Rockford businesses and what's new at this year's market.

June 21, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Diane Jones, president of The Center for Sight & Hearing. Diane talks about the history of this non-profit organization; its work with helping people with vision and hearing problems; and its upcoming golf play day.

June 28, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Judi Sheley, tournament director of the Rockford Pro-Am. Judi discusses the tournament's new location, the Rockford Country Club, this year's pro golfers, and other activities taking place during the July 13 event.

---

---

The Rockford Files

May, 2015

Host Paul Arco

May 3, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Mick Hockinson, executive director of The First Tee. Mick discusses the new partnership between The First Tee and the Rockford Park District, how golf helps kids develop life skills and plans for the organization's upcoming golf play day. May 10, 2015

May 10, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Jerry Heinzeroth, president of the Laurent House Foundation. Jerry discusses the history of this crown jewel, Frank Lloyd Wright's influence on this Rockford home and information on scheduling tours of the home.

May 17, 2015

Paul Arco chats with Melody Roccaforte, Steve Addante and Tracy Richter from Healing Pathways Cancer Resource Center. We talk about programs and services Healing Pathways offers cancer survivors and their loved ones, and plans for the upcoming Bow Tie March and Run. Paul Arco talks with Sam Schmitz, president, and Courtney Geiger, director of mission services for Goodwill. Sam and Courtney talk about the mission of Goodwill, its coverage territory and the many programs and services it offers the community.

May 24, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Sam Schmitz, president, and Courtney Geiger, director of mission services for Goodwill. Sam and Courtney talk about the mission of Goodwill, its coverage territory and the many programs and services it offers the community.

---

---

The Rockford Files

April, 2015

Host Paul Arco

April 5, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Nancy Rainwater, Vice President of the Alzheimer's Association. Nancy talks about how the organization got started, signs and symptoms of Alzheimers, the impact of the ice bucket challenge and its upcoming Unforgettable Art event.

April 12, 2015

Paul Arco talks to Matt Toohey, executive director, and Mike Robinson, board president of Access Services of Northern Illinois. Matt and Mike discuss the mission of the organization and details about its upcoming golf outing in Lake Geneva.

April 19, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Libby Simms, community liaison, for Lutheran Social Services of Illinois. Libby talks about the history of the organization, the number of programs and services it offers, and its local emphasis on senior program.

April 26, 2015

Paul Arco talks with Dola Gregory, executive director and founder of Rock House Kids, a nonprofit organization that provides assistance to at-risk children in Rockford. Dola talks about how her organization got started, how Rock House has grown over the years and highlights upcoming events.

---