Topic: Today on Insight, John and Josh Rosenstern discuss the United States’ involvement in foreign wars, militarily and financially. It is estimated Hamas takes in 8 to 12 million dollars a month from “online charitable organizations”; much of which, comes from aid and funding that is traded or given to the corrupt leaderships ran by terrorists. There is a looming declaration of war against Iran who funds the majority of terrorist organizations around the world. Shipping and transportation in the Red Sea is being affected by Iran, and the US Senate is asking questions about US involvement in the region. Brother Josh asks, is it in America’s best interest to go after Iran, and those factions that support Islam. Our attention currently must remain on Gaza and stopping the Hamas and Hezbollah mission to destroy Israel.
