Creation Moments radio broadcast Taylor-made for your radio station!

If the Creation Moments radio broadcast sounds a bit different than usual, it's because our new host is creationist author and director of the Mount St. Helens Creation Center Paul Taylor.

No relation to Ian Taylor, Paul is an international speaker on creation, evolution, Genesis and apologetics. Paul travels across America and around the world speaking on a variety of topics of interest to Bible-believing Christians. Paul has formerly worked for Answers in Genesis (UK) and for Creation Today (Pensacola, Florida). He has also addressed conferences throughout America.

Creation Moments is pleased to welcome Paul to our ministry. Paul, a prolific author, is also writing the scripts he'll be presenting Monday through Friday on your radio station.

If you would like to arrange a live interview with Paul, give us a call at 1-800-422-4253 from 8 am to 4 pm (Central Time). We'll take care of all the arrangements!
