Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
KDVR	Crime/Law Enforcement	5PM	10/19/2020	98	5PM Fox31 Evening News	The family of a man killed in a hit-and-run while riding a scooter through downtown Denver is pleading for the driver to come forward. The other four people in the group that night were visiting Patton from California. The friends were enjoying a night out on the town during the long holiday weekend.
KDVR	Consumer Issues	11AM	11/19/2020	68	11AM Fox31 Morning News	AG Phil Weiser tells the FOX31 Problem Solvers imposter scams are the most common among those reported in the state. Weiser says imposter scams will play on the hopes or fears of those who are targeted. Weiser tells the Problem Solvers the office is working with the FTC and the Colorado Bureau of Investigation to crack down on pandemic scams, but victims must report them.
KDVR	Economy	9PM	11/16/2020	60	9PM Fox31 Evening News	Colorado's ski communities are sending out an "SOS" to their residents to help stop the spread of COVID. "SOS" stands for "Save Our Season" and "Stop Our Spread." It's a grassroots effort taking place in Steamboat Springs as COVID cases continue to climb. By taking part in the pledge, residents will help save lives, the local economy and jobs.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KDVR	Housing	9AM	11/20/2020	60	9AM Fox31 Morning News	The first sanctioned, staffed camping operation in Denver is set to open Dec. 1 in the Capitol Hill neighborhood. The encampments, referred to as Safe Outdoor Spaces, are a collaboration between Interfaith Alliance of Colorado, Radian Inc., Colorado Village Collaborative, Earthlinks and other groups. The spaces will offer shelter to unhoused people in Denver during the COVID-19 pandemic.
KDVR	Transportation	10PM	10/20/2020	73	10PM Fox31 Weekend News	The Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) is working on several projects this fall designed to keep drivers safe. CDOT tells the FOX31 Problem Solvers that aging pavement, weather and traffic volume make potholes one of Colorado's biggest year-round issues. The goal of all projects is to add capacity and improve safety.
KDVR	Community	5PM	10/25/2020	135	5PM Fox31 Evening News	More than 65 contractors, plumbers and community members volunteered to go house-to-house in evacuated Grand County neighborhoods Sunday and winterize evacuated homes. Sheriff's deputies escorted groups of volunteers through the blocked-off zone to ensure safety for those winterizing as plows worked to clear snowy roadways.

KDVR	Employment	8AM	12/08/2020	73	8AM Fox31 Morning News	Legal experts are warning employees that they can be fired for refusing to get vaccinated. Barring an individual employment contract or union collective bargaining agreement, the United States is largely a country of at-will employment, giving bosses a lot of leeway. When it comes to COVID-19 vaccines, workers might not have much of a choice.
KDVR	Nat'l Government	5PM	12/11/2020	104	5PM Fox31 Evening News	The wait is hitting home for small businesses in the Denver metro area as lawmakers negotiate a second national coronavirus relief bill. Friday, Rep. Jason Crow called a panel of owners from the Stanley Marketplace together to talk real impacts in Aurora, inviting FOX31 as the only TV station to join. As lawmakers consider paycheck protection plans and loans, local small businesses told Crow they need grants instead. Owners also say relief loans granted in the spring were lifelines but they're now running out, leaving businesses scrambling to come up with money to pay the government back.

KDVR	Local Government	11AM	12/7/2020	85	11AM Fox31 Morning News	Business owners and politicians across Colorado continue to push back against Level Red restrictions imposed by the state health department. Members of the Town of Parker Council passed a resolution unanimously in opposition to the Polis administration's restrictions. This resolution is symbolic. The local government adopted the measure to show support for small businesses in the community.
KDVR	Environment	7AM	10/26/2020	120	7AM Fox31 Evening News	Firefighters said the snowstorm has helped slow the East Troublesome Fire and Cameron Peak Fire. While the precipitation is helpful, the snow and cold can cause issues for firefighters as well. Snow-covered roads can delay firefighters from getting where they need to be. Also, the cold snap could lead to equipment issues with water pumps. Firefighters will continue to make headway on both the East Troublesome Fire and Cameron Peak Fire by using snow to their advantage. Fire officials expect the fires to flare up once the snow melts and the areas dry out again later this week.
