The broadcast studio for WJQB/FM, owned & operated by WGUL FM, Inc., is located at 13825 U.S. Highway 19 N., Hudson, Florida 34667. WJQB106.3 FM broadcasts Scott Shannon's "True Oldies" format, specifically targeting adults 35+; a group that accounts for over 50% of the adult metro population. Music from the late 1950's through early 80's is featured.

True Oldies satellite programming airs from midnight till 6:00am daily Monday through Friday followed by our live, locally produced morning show airing from 6:00 am to 10:00 am Monday through Friday. On February 14th of 2012 WJQB added "The Afternoon Drive" with Dino D'Addario, a live segment aired Monday - Friday from 4-6pm. This segment was added to provide even more local interaction and focus to serve our broadcast coverage area. The remainder of the day Monday through Friday, 10:00 am - 6:00 am is provided by satellite programming originating from New York. Sundays the satellite format airs the entire day, excepting a locally produced financial program at which airs from 9:30 am until 10:00am. Sunday remotes air on WJQB (when sold) usually between the hours of 1 and 3pm. Saturday's programming is provided totally by satellite with the exception of live remote broadcasts (when sold and scheduled) usually 2-3 hours in length. WJQB inserts local weather twice each hour from 6:00 am to 7:00 pm and public service announcements throughout the day. ABC news is broadcast each hour from 6:00 am - 7:00 pm.

The following are some but not all of the local issues addressed by WJQB's aggressive schedule of Public Service Announcements.

1) ISSUE: Community organizations

DESCRIPTION: True Oldies makes public service time available to a wide variety of organizations that serve the community including local schools and churches that provide services and outreach to the surrounding communities.

2) ISSUE: Charities benefiting children & families

DESCRIPTION: The impact of the Naturcoast's challenging economy has dramatically affected area families. WJQB works closely with numerous service organizations to raise awareness and funds for programs to benefit these families. WJQB's audience includes many grandparents who have found themselves with the responsibility of raising their grandchildren, due to difficulties (health, incarceration, drug dependency) experienced by their adult children.

3) ISSUE: VETERAN'S SERVICES

DESCRIPTION: Returning veterans face a myriad of challenges, from PTSD to securing employment in this challenging economy. WJQB True Oldies works closely with Sand Soldiers of America and other support organizations to provide assistance to these veterans.

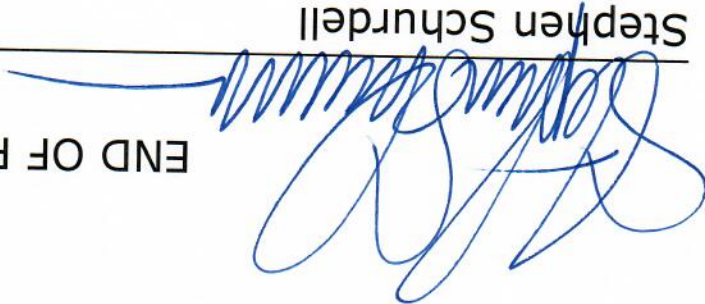

(4) ISSUE: HUMANE AND ETHICAL TREATMENT OF ANIMALS

DESCRIPTION: The Naturecoast area has a severe challenge dealing with pet population and pets that are abandoned or abused. True Oldies 106.3 takes a very active role in publicizing the plight of these animals, and raising funds for their care.

(5) ISSUE: Services for aging residents:

DESCRIPTION: As a retirement destination, Florida has a huge senior population. WJQB works with organizations like Cares and several Hospice organizations to provide information and support for these aging residents.
