**FILLED** Director of Leadership Gifts

Colorado Public Radio is a dynamic, growing organization that is seeking to add to its engaged and passionate staff. While CPR has grown significantly through traditional public radio fundraising methods, the cultivation of major and planned giving is recognized as a growth opportunity. At CPR, major (aka "leadership") gifts are recognized at $10,000+. We are seeking the right candidate who can lead a team of professionals in maximizing potential for this state-wide community resource.

The Director of Leadership Gifts is responsible for providing primary leadership of the major donor/planned giving department for donor development, communication and stewardship. This person is highly disciplined, organized and goal oriented with demonstrated competencies in team development, information management, project support, donor research and verbal and written communication.
