Re: Children's Television Act of 1990 and Closed Captioning
Quarter 4 (October 1, 2016 – December 31, 2016)

Dear Sir/Madam:

The Fox News Channel and the Fox Business Network (collectively, “Fox News”), as a standard practice, do not format or air any children's programs and/or stories and therefore are in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission pertaining thereto.

With regard to closed captioning, the FCC holds video programming distributors (as opposed to programmers) responsible for compliance with the closed captioning rules. Accordingly, Fox News is under no obligation to demonstrate that it is in compliance with the closed captioning obligations. However, as a courtesy, Fox News hereby notifies you that Fox News is in compliance with all closed captioning benchmarks, rules, and regulations promulgated by the FCC. Unless we notify you otherwise in writing, you may rely on this certification for Fox News being in compliance with the FCC's' closed captioning requirements that apply in future calendar quarters.

Very truly yours,

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 4th Quarter 2016. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, Turner Classic Movies, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

For your convenience, the certificates of compliance are also available online for your review. Please follow these steps in order to download the certificates:

- 1. Go to the Turner Resources web site at www.TurnerResources.com. [Note – if you do not have a user ID and password, you will need to register online with the web site.]
- 2. From the homepage for TurnerResources.com, you will find the Children's Television Programming certificates of compliance by clicking on a "link" called "FCC Compliance."
