60 MINUTES

10/07/18 "The Kavanaugh Vote" – an interview with Senator Susan Collins (R-ME) and Senator Heidi Heitkamp (D-ND), who both explain their critical votes for and against, respectively, Judge Brett Kavanaugh's confirmation to the U.S. Supreme Court. Collins discusses the internet donation campaign against a potential opponent; Heitkamp talks about how her initial decision changed. (See also: "The Compromise", OAD: 09/30/18) (C: Scott Pelley – P: Andy Court, Ashley Velie, Howard L. Rosenberg)

"John Green" – an interview/profile of writer John Green, best-selling author of numerous young adult novels. Green discusses his YouTube stardom, success, and mental illness (OCD and anxiety), a topic that his books attempt to destigmatize and normalize for teenagers. Includes interviews with: Sarah Urist Green, wife; five unidentified but self-labelled "nerd fighters," young attendees at the VidCom conference created by Green; Hank Green, brother. (C: Jon Wertheim – P: Sarah Koch, Chrissy Jones)

"The Pavarotti of Pasta" – an interview/ profile of Massimo Bottura, famed Italian chef and owner of Osteria Francescana in Modena, Italy. Once met with backlash over his deconstructionist take on the classic regional cuisine, Bottura now operates the number one restaurant in the world as well as numerous refettorios, or soup kitchens that feed the poor and alleviate food waste. Includes interviews with: Lara Gilmore, his wife. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin, Sabina Castelfranco)

The Mail - selected viewer comments on the first broadcast of the fifty-first season: "The Compromise", "Inside The Epidemic" and "Paul McCartney" (OAD: 09/30/18)

- 10/14/18      “President Trump” - an interview with President Donald Trump, conducted at the White House on Thursday, 10/11/18 -- nearly two years after he was first elected. Topics of the wide-ranging conversation included: his reluctance to confirm the existence of global warming despite the onslaught of hurricanes in the U.S.; the newly reported disappearance of Washington Post reporter Jamal Khashoggi in Saudi Arabia; trade deals in China; Trump’s amicable relationship with controversial leaders Kim Jong-un of North Korea and Vladimir Putin of Russia. President Trump also addresses his sole regret: exiting NAFTA too late; and opines the treatment he receives from the press. He stands by his immigration tactics and his treatment of the Judge Brett Kavanaugh accuser Dr. Christine Blasey Ford. (See also: “The Republican Ticket”, OAD: 07/17/16; and “The 45th President”, OAD: 11/13/16) (C: Lesley Stahl – Producers listed at the beginning of Part I and Part II: Ruth Streeter, Richard Bonin, Graham Messick; Producers listed at the end of Part I: Ayesha Siddiqi, Kaylee Tully, Jack Weingart)
DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
UPDATE: “The War Against Women” (OAD: 01/13/08); “The Islamic State” (OAD: 09/21/14)
- 10/21/18      “Genetic Genealogy” – a report on the new tool (“genetic genealogy”) combining high-tech DNA analysis with more traditional family genealogy methods that has been integral to solving crimes, especially cold-cases including the “Golden State Killer.” Investigators on a whim submitted the suspect’s DNA to a public database, a free open source website created and used by genealogy enthusiasts/hobbyists to find a family relation, which eventually led to his arrest. While more cold cases have been solved, the new method raises the issue of DNA ethics, reliability and lack of standards in a burgeoning field. Includes interviews with Paul Holes, cold case investigator; Curtis Rogers, CEO, GEDMatch; Cece Moore, genealogist, Parabon NanoLabs; Jim Scharf, cold case detective; Brian Martin, Fort Wayne homicide detective; Steve Armentrout, CEO, Parabon NanoLabs. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Michael Karzis)
“Off The Rails” – a report on New York City’s sprawling, centuries-old subway system and the man tasked with fixing it, Andy Byford, the Metropolitan Transit Authority’s new president. Byford addresses his plan to modernize the subway system by computerization and replacement of old signaling systems to alleviate delays and ease ridership amid financial challenges, politics, and disgruntled passengers. Includes interviews with: Andy Byford, President, NYC Transit Authority, MTA; Rakiya Spady, train operator; Melvin Wright, train operator and Cheryl Nicholson, train conductor; Haley Dragoo, Twitter Division, Rail Control Center, MTA. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)
“Fly Like An Eagle” – an interview/ profile of falconer Lauren McGough, a young woman from Oklahoma who travelled to the Mongolian steppe in Central Asia to learn the traditional ways of hunting with eagles from Kazakh nomads, themselves a dying breed. Includes interviews with: Chukan, eagle hunter; and Ouni, eagle hunter. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young, Katie Kerbstat)

10/28/18      “Inside the Secret Archive” - a report on the discovery of documents kept by the Catholic diocese in Buffalo, New York detailing sexual accusations against priests and how they were ignored by Bishop Richard Malone, who failed to act; and a first time television interview with the whistleblower who anonymously exposed this information. The Buffalo diocese is under federal investigation. Bishop Richard Malone refuses to resign and accused priests remain part of the Catholic Church. Includes interviews with: Siobhan O’Connor, whistleblower and former executive assistant to Bishop Malone; Father Bob Zilliox, former Bishop’s counsel; and Paul Snyder, hotel owner/Deacon, Buffalo Diocese. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Guy Campanile, Lucy Boyd)

“America’s War Against ISIS” - a report on the current state of the war on ISIS (ISIL/Daesh) and the city of Raqqa, Syria, which continues to rebuild since the terrorist group lost control of it last year. With the aid of U.S. weapons and training, Syrian Democratic Forces (SDP), a civilian militia consisting of mostly Kurds and many women, has taken back a third of the country. While they protect U.S. forces, and keep the world safe from potentially dangerous extremists by holding ISIS detainees, the city struggles in a state of uncertainty, lacking civilian aid. Includes interviews with: Leila Mustafa, head of civilian counsel of Raqqa; General Mazlum Kobane, SDP leader; Senators Jean Shaheen (D-NH) and Lindsay Graham (R-SC ); Adrien Guihal, ISIS detainee. (C: Holly Williams – P: Keith Sharman, Omar Abdulkader)

“Jaap” – a profile / interview of Jaap van Zweden, the new conductor of the New York Philharmonic. The Dutchman who quit his post as first chair violinist to pursue conducting at age 37 was a surprise pick to lead the storied orchestra. Includes interviews with: Deborah Borda, president of New York Philharmonic; his wife, Aaltja; and comments by his son Benjamin. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein, Magalie Laguerre-Wilkinson)

The Mail - selected viewer comments on last week’s broadcast and praise for what they didn’t see -- politics.

48 HOURS

10/06/18      48 HOURS: “Hollywood Horror Story” – a report on the brutal murder of Iana Kasian, a woman killed by a perpetrator who left the crime scene like something out of a graphic novel. Kasian, a tax attorney, in what seemed like a charmed life, immigrated to the United States to be a translator. While living in California, she met Blake Leibel, the son of a wealthy Canadian real estate family. He lived a complicated life, but longed to make it big in the Hollywood film industry. Almost a year before he met Kasian he was obsessed with the notion that his family would be harmed by someone tied to his brother Cody, who had big gambling debts. At the time Kasian was killed, Leibel was divorcing his wife, living with Kasian and his newborn daughter Diana. He was also romantically involved with another woman. Kasian’s mother, Olga Kasian, became concerned when she could not reach her daughter. She called the police, who eventually gained access to the home she shared with Leibel -- authorities were shocked by what they found. Leibel was barricaded inside a bedroom and Kasian was discovered dead in the bathroom. Her body covered with a blanket, she was extremely pale, and she was scalped. It was a horrible, sadistic killing, just like a scene in one of Leibel’s movies. Police arrested Leibel. Investigation led to the discovery that Kasian’s body was drained of blood. It took 6-8 hours for her to die. Leibel stood trial and the scenes from his graphic novel and the film he directed took center stage. He was found guilty of first-degree murder without parole. On-screen text graphic: Olga has filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Blake Leibel. Any proceeds would go to Diana. Diana is an American citizen. Olga is still hoping to raise her in the United States. Interviewed: Scott Johnson (Hollywood Reporter writer/48 HOURS consultant); Olga Kasian (mother); Jake Finkel (Kasian family attorney); Jake Edminston (National Post reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Rob Martindale and William Cotter (Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department investigators); Leslie Thompson (Los Angeles Sheriff’s Department crime scene specialist); Kris Mohandie (forensic psychologist/48 HOURS consultant). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 10/13/18      48 HOURS: “Dead Ringer” - a report about former pro boxer Ramon Sosa, the potential victim in a murder-for-hire scheme, who with the help of law enforcement agents, managed to survive -- all the while setting up a sting operation to catch those responsible. Sosa owned the popular Woodlands Boxing and Fitness in Montgomery County, Texas. He had a family and a beautiful second wife who helped him run their booming business. After six years together, things began to sour between Sosa and his wife -- he learned of a divorce attorney and missing money from the business. And then someone wanted him dead. A friend of Sosa's named Mundo, who worked out at the gym, overheard Sosa's wife Lulu and was sure she had murder on her mind. They came up with a sting operation to protect the boxer, in which Mundo posed as a hit man. When they had evidence, they contacted the police, who then took over the case. Mundo still played along, agreeing to kill Sosa, and provided photographic proof of the death. Police staged the death scene, with Sosa's "dead body" photographed in a ditch with a bullet hole in the head. Lulu Sosa was arrested, and claimed she was innocent. She was charged with solicitation of capital murder. After 15 months, she gave up the fight and agreed to a plea deal to reduced charges and twenty years in prison. On-screen text graphic: Lulu Sosa comes up for parole once a year. This past Tuesday, she was denied parole for a second time. Interviewed: Ramon Sosa; "Mundo"; Beth Blair (friend of the Sosa's); Raul Marquez (former Olympic boxer/friend of Ramon's); Natasha Flores (friend of Lulu's); Julio Joglar (Lulu's divorce attorney); Mike Atkins (Lieutenant, Precinct Three Constable's Office, Montgomery, County, Texas). (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Susan Mallie, Jennifer Terker, Claire St. Amant)
- 10/20/18      48 HOURS: “The Fitbit Alibi” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a report on the groundbreaking 2016 murder case of Nicole Vander Heyden that was solved using 21st century technology. Vander Heyden went out with her live-in boyfriend Doug Detrie and other friends for a night on the town in Green Bay, Wisconsin and never made it home. A day later, she was found beaten and strangled in a field. Her live-in boyfriend became the prime suspect and was arrested because he had separated from the group during the barhopping and went home without Nicole. Detrie was wearing a Fitbit device and the data recorded during the time of Vander Heyden's murder corroborated with what Detrie had told police, therefore clearing him of suspicion. He was released 18 days after his arrest. Over the next several months, clothes and other items found at the murder scene were processed by the police for DNA, which led police to George Steven Burch, a man who had moved from Virginia to Green Bay for a fresh start. Burch was questioned about a hit-and-run and had handed over his cell phone to police. The phone was an Android device with a Google account, which stores and tracks a person's exact location within Google's servers and is viewed with a tool called Google Dashboard. Investigators got a warrant to view Burch's account and discovered that on the night of the murder, the data tracked him to Nicole's house – the crime scene – where he stayed for nearly an hour. He was arrested and charged with first-degree intentional homicide. On February 19, 2018, George Burch went on trial for Nicole's murder. The technology evidence from Fitbit and Google played an important part of the proceedings. Also in the courtroom, the sister and fiancé of Joey White, a man Burch killed in Virginia twenty years ago. Neither is surprised that Burch is on trial again. Only this time, they hope he is found guilty, and is not acquitted. It took the jury three hours to find Burch guilty. On-screen text graphic: Doug Detrie continues to raise Dylan, now two. George Burch will be sentenced on May 4, 2018. He faces life in prison. Interviewed: Vicki and Brandon Meyer (Nicole's mother and brother); Brian Slinger and Richard Lopnow (Police Sergeants); Kate Briquelet (journalist); Shawn Vander Heyden (Nicole's former brother-in-law); Tiffany Hoffman (Nicole's friend); and Shayna Stowe and Carla Rhods (fiancé and sister of Joey White). 48 HOURS (continued)

10/20/18 48 HOURS: “Cold-Blooded Killer” (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report about Mike Williams, a missing Florida man who was believed to have been eaten by alligators in December 2000, and his mother’s belief that something sinister happened. Williams, a successful real estate appraiser, left home to go duck hunting on Lake Seminole on his sixth wedding anniversary. When he did not return home, his wife Denise started looking for him. A massive search ensued. It ended after 44 days with Williams listed as “still missing.” People wondered if he had run off. After six months, his waders, hunting license and a flashlight were discovered at the lake and another explanation was offered: he was eaten by alligators. Mike’s mother, Cheryl Williams, always believed there was more to the story. For nine years, she wrote to the governor of Florida urging him to re-open the case. She even contacted wildlife experts, who told her that alligators do not feed in cold winter months. In the meantime, Denise Williams moved on with her life, cashed in life insurance policies and completely cut off contact with Mike’s mother. She eventually married Mike’s best friend Brian Winchester. Seven years later, the re-opened investigation led to suspicions that both Cheryl and Brian were involved, but police could do nothing because they were married to each other. Soon after, their marriage disintegrated. Police saw an opportunity when Brian cracked after assaulting and kidnapping Denise, to which he pleaded guilty and cut a deal with prosecutors: he finally admitted to killing Mike Williams. Brian revealed the location of the body, with the understanding he that would not be charged with murder. He said it was all Denise’s idea -- she was not willing to be divorced, but wanted to be with Brian. She was arrested and charged with murder and is currently awaiting trial. On-screen text graphic: Denise Williams is scheduled to stand trial for the murder of her husband on December 10, 2018. Mike and Denise's daughter is nineteen and in college. She is said to be close with Denise's sisters. Interviewed: David Arnette and Alton Ranew (Florida Department of Law Enforcement officers); Scott and Anessa Dungey (Mike’s high school friends); Clay and Pattie Ketcham (Mike’s real estate appraiser/co-worker and wife); Brett Ketcham (high school friend); Jennifer Portman (48 HOURS Consultant/journalist, Tallahassee Democrat); Matt Aresco (alligator expert); Derrick Webster (Jackson County Sheriff’s Office); Tim Jansen (Winchester’s attorney); Ethan Way (Denise Williams’ attorney) (C: Richard Schlesinger – P: Josh Gelman, Jaime Hellman)

10/27/18 PREEMPTION

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

10/07/18 “How We Remember” – an interfaith special examining the ways we choose to remember our shared history and why. Featured: (1) Three years after a white supremacist murdered eight congregants and their pastor at Charleston’s Mother Emanuel AME Church, the congregation grapples with both the memory of loss and the struggle against white supremacy in America. Following the massacre, Dr. Maxine Smith, a life-long member of Mother Emanuel AME Church, was a key liaison between the public and the church, and is now a leader on the memorial steering committee. She discusses the meaning of remembrance in her community and why the congregation decided to memorialize the death of its members. New York-based architect Michael Arad was chosen to design a memorial that will honor the lives of the nine slain members as well as the survivors. The Reverend Eric Manning, pastor of Mother Emanuel AME Church, discusses the resilience of the community, the legacy of white supremacy in America and why we need to remember. Also includes comments from Lee Bennett, Jr., Mother Emanuel AME Church Historian. (2) Historian and public scholar Judith Dupre, author of the 2007 book Monuments: America’s History in Art and Memory, discusses the history of monuments in America and why remembering is a part of the human condition. (3) Just blocks away from the September 11 memorial, the last vestiges of what was once Little Syria, one of America’s most religiously diverse neighborhoods and the epicenter of the Arab literary movement, is threatened by the sprawl of skyscrapers erected in a recent construction boom. Joseph Svehlak is a tour guide and member of the Friends of the Lower West Side, a group of activists whose mission it is to preserve and landmark historic buildings in the former Little Syria region. Also featured is Todd Fine, a historian and co-founder of Save Washington Street, a coalition of preservationists and concerned citizens formed to protect the historic legacy of the Lower West Side. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Jennie Kamin. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington.
