Monday-Friday

Issues covered during this quarter:

Date	Issues	Speaker(s)	Description
4/1	News Roundup & Comment	Jim Schneider	Here's your weekly selection of highlights from the Round-Up broadcast: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Biden administration officials blame Russia for high gas prices. However, according to the Republican research shows that actually it's every action that the president took against energy in the first 15 months been the cause. -President Biden announced that he will tap in to the strategic petroleum reserves to help control gas prices. -Democrats in the House of Representatives have blocked Republican efforts to move ahead with consistent Energy Independence from Russia Act yesterday that would have reopened U.S. energy projects to combat caused by the Biden administration's anti-fossil fuel agenda. -Washington state is preparing to ban most gasoline powered vehicles within the next 8 years. -The Phoenix metropolitan area experienced the highest inflation rate in the nation of the 21 largest metro areas. -A day after Russia said it would drastically reduce attacks on strategic northern cities in its war against Ukraine, missiles hitting those regions overnight emerged Wednesday as Ukrainian and Western officials remain optimistic of an easing of the offensive. -The U.N. Human Rights Council Wednesday said there are at least 24 cases in which it appears Russia is using cluster bombs in Ukraine. -The U.S. troop presence in Europe has swelled from 60,000 to about 100,000 as a result of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. -Ukraine has accused Russia of forcibly relocating thousands of civilians from Mariupol, the strategic port city, since the Russian shelling. -Johnny and Friends has helped nearly 300 Ukrainians with disabilities, and their caregivers, escape across the border since the war in Ukraine began. -German officials plan to prosecute those who display the "Z" symbol as a way to show support for Russia in Ukraine. -China is taking over the Solomon Islands and the Pacific. -Surgeon General Murthy and Secretary of Health and Human Services Becerra illegally pressured tech companies for sharing contrarian COVID views according to a federal lawsuit filed March 24th. -Governors from 21 states suing to end the federal public transportation mask mandate claiming the mandate harms the states and interferes with local laws. -President Joe Biden received his 4th dose of the COVID vaccine and spoke to reporters afterward to announce he will approve more COVID funding immediately in order to prepare for the new variants that could arise in the future.
4/4	Citizens Vaccine Injury Reporting System	Jim Schneider/ Dr. Elizabeth Lee Vliet	Dr. Elizabeth Lee Vliet is the president and CEO of Truth for Health Foundation, a non-profit public health organization. In 2020, she has been part of the team of frontline physicians treating COVID early at home. With Dr. Peter D'Amico, co-author/editor of the Guide to COVID Early Treatment: Options to Stay Out of Hospital and Save Your Life, she received her 2014 Ellis Island Medal of Honor recipient for her national and international educational efforts in health care. She is an endocrine aging in men and women. She is a past director of the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons and received her M.D. degree and internship in Internal Medicine at Eastern Virginia Medical School and completed her residency at Johns Hopkins. She appeared on Crosstalk as an independent physician, not as a spokesperson for any pharmaceutical company, insurance plan or political party. She is a patient advocate. The program began with news of an audio clip from 2004 of Dr. Anthony Fauci. In the clip he argues that the flu doesn't need the flu vaccine because the best vaccine is getting infected yourself. Dr. Vliet responded by saying that God's design of our natural immunity is the best protection of all and we should always approached vaccination. In other words, we've never recommended vaccinating people who've never had the illness. So in 2004, Dr. Fauci was being honest with the public but in 2020 he had a different attitude and contradicted himself and medical practice. Fauci's name is on many of the patents related to the development of the COVID shots. He earns royalties from the agency but for himself personally based upon the patent royalties. This isn't illegal under government patent law but indicated it's still a conflict of interest that's pushing him to make false statements that the only way you can stop COVID is to get one of the vaccines. Dr. Vliet contends that the call for continued boosters is about control of the population, making money for pharmaceutical companies and the patent holders which includes Fauci, the NIH, CDC and all of the stakeholders that have a stake in the components of the COVID shots. What we're not being told is that these are gene-therapy agents and not traditional vaccines. They don't create natural immunity. They are designed with the lipid-nanoparticle coating that takes the mRNA (or DNA) across the cell membrane that the mRNA directs the body's DNA to produce the synthetic spike protein which has toxicity in the cell causing all the damage with the shots. So every time you get a new booster, medical practice is showing that your susceptibility to fungus, bacteria, viruses and even cancer, increases. This is an information-packed program that has much more including the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What percentage of the adverse effects associated with the vaccines is the VAERS system a • Information on Dr. Vliet's Citizens Vaccine Injury Reporting System. • Why has the Biden administration cut off more states from receiving monoclonal antibodies? • The World Health Organization is proposing a new pandemic treaty. What are some of the implications and how might they affect you?
4/5	Transformed: A Concert Pianist's Story	Jim Schneider/ Sam Rotman	Sam Rotman is a renowned international concert pianist who has performed over 3200 concerts in 61 countries in 16 concert halls around the world. He has released four recordings. He received an honorary doctorate in music from an Eastern European Jewish family that found new life in Christ. Sam's father was born in Romania in 1905 and his mother was born in Czechoslovakia in 1915. They were Jewish and fled Europe due to Adolph Hitler. They moved to South America where they learned to speak Spanish, and their two sisters were born there. Sam's parents then applied and were approved to come to the U.S. They came through New York City in the summer of 1950 and Sam was born in October. Sam's home life was very religious. He attended Hebrew school five days a week for eight years and was a devoutly Jewish. Around age 11 or 12, Sam admits he began to develop a very foul mouth. He could lie to his parents and teachers and began to curse. He found himself praying in the morning yet swearing at school. He could be moral and good but very immoral when he wanted to. In other words, he was showing where his heart really was.

			As he grew up in his very religious home, his mother developed within him a love for classical music. He could learn to play piano. The more he practiced the better he got and the better he got, the more he wanted to play. At age 11, he made the decision that he wanted to be a pianist. At age 12-13 he began entering competitions and at age 16 he won a competition while playing with a large group of people in attendance. Then at 17 he auditioned and got into the Juilliard School of Music where, while studying, he obtained Bachelors and Masters degrees in piano. Sam was very focused on music and practicing and developed a very self-righteous attitude. He didn't want to shame his parents as they had sacrificed greatly for him so he never drank. Keep in mind, this was before New York City during the height of the hippie movement so there were lots of drugs. Sam refrained from getting engaged in pre-marital sex. In spite of all that, he still knew that while he was controlling his external behavior, he was not inside. It was at this time that he met three born-again Christians at Juilliard. He noticed that there was something about them because whenever he'd see them outside of class, they'd be reading the Bible and all they'd talk about in class was the Bible. His classmates were patient with Sam, eventually exposing him to the New Testament. So how did things turn out for this very self-righteous, hard working, Jewish boy, both musically and spiritually? The conclusion to this fascinating testimony when you review this edition of Crosstalk.
4/6	The "Trans"-formation of our Nation	Jim Schneider	Many listeners may be aware that on March 31, from the White House all the way down to schools and churches, an emphasis placed on the Transgender Day of Visibility. Before getting into various news stories noting the seriousness of this issue, Jim communicated that no one can change the biological makeup given to you by God. In addition to the science, even more important is the Word says. He noted scriptures such as Genesis 1:27, 5:2, 6:19, 7:16 and Matthew 19:4-6. Here's a brief sample of the stories Jim addressed: Last week President Biden issued a proclamation on Transgender Day of Visibility 2022. In that proclamation, he said, "We celebrate the activism and determination that have fueled the fight for transgender equality." The audio of the statement as well and Jim provided the audio. On March 31, the White House issued a 12-page "fact sheet"—The Biden-Harris Administration Advances Transgender Visibility for Transgender Americans. 4/11	Jihad: Islam's Unholy War	Jim Schneider/ Usama Dakdok	Since the September 11th Islamic terror attack on the U.S., the West has become aware of the Arabic world and jihad? 4/12	Border Crisis to Get Worse?	Jim Schneider/ Jessica Vaughn	Jessica Vaughn is the director of policy studies for the Center for Immigration Studies. Her expertise is in immigration enforcement and public safety. She's an instructor for senior law enforcement officer training seminars at the University's Center for Public Safety in Illinois. What is Title 42 that the Centers for Disease Control is terminating? How does this relate to immigration and what that the DHS secretary is referencing? According to Jessica, Title 42 is a provision in the federal statutes that enables President Biden to block entry of anyone he deems poses a threat to public health. This could be one individual with a contagious disease, a group of people, or everyone as we saw with the Trump administration during the early portion of the COVID pandemic. This means that the Border Patrol and Customs and Border Protection at the legal ports of entry can expel anyone from the U.S. or prevent them from entering instead of having to process them through a formal removal procedure which is more time consuming. This is what allowed President Trump to shut the border down during the pandemic. Not only helped slow the spread of the coronavirus, it also put a stop to the immigration surge. The Biden administration has announced that it will end use of Title 42 on May 23rd and instead begin using Title 8, which is actually our immigration law, the law that Congress passed that sets out what they want the federal government to do when someone who attempt to enter the U.S. illegally. Have we actually been following Title 8? Title 8 says that illegal arrivals are to be detained until they can be processed, their asylum claim can be completed or they need to be returned to Mexico. Jessica sees this as a rather significant part of the Biden administration because they haven't been doing much with Title 8 at all. In fact, they've been focusing limits on the Border Patrol, but also on Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). They've been focusing on the most egregious cases such as those concerning illegal aliens that commit horrible crimes. The soon termination of Title 42 could be sparking a new wave of illegal immigration into the U.S. Under the Obama administration, 1,000 illegal immigrants per day was considered a problem. Now they're talking about a potential for 18,000 illegals crossing every day. She indicated the plan is not to stop this influx, but to try to accommodate it, processing them so that most of them can be let into the country. This program has much more to offer on the immigration situation including views from Crosstalk listener.
4/13	Transhumanism	Jim Schneider/ Alex Newman	One of the components of the Great Reset agenda involves the merging of machines/technology with humans and transhumanism. Although we've alluded to this in past programs, this entire program looks at this issue in detail because transhumanism seeks to take surveillance, which up until now has been outside the body, and control it on the skin. Returning to Crosstalk to discuss this issue was Alex Newman. Alex is an award-winning international author, researcher, educator and consultant. He is senior editor for The New American and contributes to Liberty and Liberty Sentinel. Transhumanism may sound like bad science fiction but it's not. Many of the most powerful people on the planet are proponents of this movement. That includes Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum, Microsoft CEO Satya Nadella, and Ray Kurzweil who is the director of engineering at Google. Why does Alex believe this issue is so significant? It's because what's at stake is the future existence of humanity. A homosexual activist Yuval Noah Harari, who's deeply connected to the World Economic Forum and author of Sapiens, Schwab. Harari's material isn't well known among the general public, but at the level of the elites, politicians, and Angela Merkel read his books. Harari believes that in the next 100 or so years, humans may not exist at all as we'll become deities ourselves and masters of evolution. The new transhuman-human will be so different from current humans that they won't be the same species. Some individuals have been dreaming about this for decades but we lacked the technology for anyone to do it seriously. Alex believes we're quickly entering the "marketing phase" where we'll start hearing more about it in our culture. It'll probably be marketed within the contexts of convenience and security, perhaps even fun. There's a range of technologies involved in this, one of them being technological upgrades to human beings, allowing the human brain to interact with computer systems. Another involves biological engineering and genetic modification. Combine this with the surveillance digital identity systems and digital currencies and for Alex, it's a concerning picture for our future. 5G is connected to this as well because you need to be able to have numerous devices communicating with each other at speeds. This is why you may have heard the phrase, "The Internet of things" which can include "smart" appliances like a refrigerator, home alarm system and more. However, the next step is the "Internet of bodies" and that requires implants implanted in the body. This might include taking a pill that monitors your health or microchips implanted in your body. There's much more to take in from this broadcast including audio clips from Yuval Noah Harari and more.

4/15	In Defense of Easter	Jim Schneider/ Tim Chaffey	Tim Chaffey is the director of Midwest Apologetics. He’s also the content manager for attractions at the Creation Museum. He is both a researcher and an apologist. Tim has served in the positions of a pastor and is the author of numerous books including ‘Old Earth Creationism on Trial’, ‘God and Cancer: Finding Hope in the Face of God’s Trials,’ and the book we’re discussing today ‘In Defense of Easter: Answering Critical Challenges to the Resurrection of Jesus.’ Jim came right out with a tough accusation often tossed at Christians concerning Easter. It claims that Easter is a pagan holiday with connections to Ishtar or Ashtoreth. Tim began by explaining that it’s not wrong to celebrate the fact that Jesus rose from the dead. In fact, he said, he was celebrating it every day. The term ‘Easter’ most likely has a German origin (Ostern) which has to do with the rising of the sun. He said that while eggs and bunnies have become attached to the holiday, at the beginning God considered those things as symbols of themselves, rabbits and eggs aren’t pagan. For Tim this means there really isn’t much basis for the idea of connections to the celebration Christians call Easter. Why does Tim believe the matter of the resurrection is so critical? He referred to 1 Corinthians 15 where he said that if there is no resurrection from the dead, Christ is not risen and our faith is futile. This means we’re still in a state of being forgiven and we’ll suffer eternally for them. So if Christ hasn’t risen, there is no Christian faith. Tim described the resurrection as God’s stamp of approval regarding what Jesus did. Had Jesus only died and stayed in the grave, that would have made him a false prophet because he said he would rise. The Bible uses the phrase, ‘many infallible proofs’ concerning the resurrection. Much of this hinges on the fact of eyewitness appearances in the gospels. So why is there continued doubt by so many people today? Tim believes either people haven’t looked at the evidence or don’t want to believe. That’s an interesting point because as Tim’s book points out, Jesus not only appeared to his disciples but also appeared to skeptics as well. As this program moved along, Jim had Tim address the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> –Change in the disciples as proof of the resurrection. –The 2 classes of arguments skeptics use to try and explain away the resurrection. –The existence of the church as proof of the resurrection. –What is the ‘principle of embarrassment’? –Did Jesus arise physically or did he arise spiritually? –Does the Bible text contradict itself regarding the resurrection?
4/18	Striking at the 2 nd Amendment	Jim Schneider/ Mike Hammond	It seems that every time there’s a shooting of some kind, there’s a call for new gun laws. This often takes the form of the 2nd Amendment of our constitution. Interestingly, the vast majority of mass shootings take place in gun friendly states. The Biden administration hasn’t been friendly to the 2nd Amendment and this program looked at some of the ways they are trying to chip away at gun rights. Joining Jim for the latest news on this issue was Mike Hammond. Mike is the legislative counsel for Governor Newsome. The program began by looking at mass shootings, with one having taken place as recently as this past week. Mike said that mass shootings, doesn’t that signal the need for gun control? Mike responded by saying that the reason these shootings are happening is due to the amount of attention given to the shooter with the desire for the 15 minutes of fame that the shooters are seeking. He went on to note that we began to see this in Sacramento, two of the most heavily regulated, biggest gun control jurisdictions in America. Gun control is not the answer and what we’re seeing is a replication by disturbed people who are watching what’s taking place in other jurisdictions and want in on the action. Conversation then moved to the mall shooting in Columbia, South Carolina. It’s been reported that the shooter had to post a $25,000 bond and can return to his day job as long as he wears a monitoring bracelet. Mike asked if a monitoring bracelet will pick up whether he’s holding a gun or not? As he put it, “... the answer is yes. Criminal matters has a direct impact on the extent to which crime occurs.” As an example, he cited New York where crime is up 40%. Why? It’s not because there isn’t enough gun control. It’s, “...because people are not being held accountable for their transgressions and people are not specifically being removed from society when they’re dangerous.” Concerning some of the gang wars, the members are using fully automatic firearms. A typical citizen would have to do a background check and pay a large fee in order to own one. The gangs have no problem getting them because they buy them on the black market and nothing you do in terms of limiting access to firearms by legal gun owners will prevent them from getting such lethal weaponry. Jim noted Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot who’s been an advocate of defunding the police yet it’s been reported that she has a unit of 70 police officers protecting her and a 20 officer body guard detail. Mike mentioned senators and representatives who have no problem spending billions of dollars on armaments for their capitol offices yet at the same time they have a problem with you having access to firearms to protect yourself. Mike also commented on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What should we know about President Biden’s pick to head the ATF, Steve Dettelbach? • What is a “ghost gun”? • Alabama lawmakers passed legislation to block federal gun laws and become a sanctuary state.

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is anyone pushing back? • Was there money in the Biden infrastructure bill that was providing resources for the pipeline? • The latest concerning the beef industry, food shortage possibilities and more.

4/25	Jewish Background of the Scriptures	Jim Schneider/ John Metzger	Romans 1:16 says, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to all who believe; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." What does this mean "to the Jew first?" 5/9	Pro-Life Group Attacked on Mother's Day	Jim Schneider/ Julaine Appling	Julaine Appling is the president of Wisconsin Family Action, a group that advocates for marriage, family and life. Mother's Day is a time to honor mothers but such was not the case this year in Madison, Wisconsin, as an anarchist group attacked the offices of Wisconsin Family Action, an organization that believes in the sanctity of life. Last week Crosstalk reported on the draft leak from the Supreme Court indicating that a reversal of Roe v. Wade was likely. The attack in Madison is yet another example of the hate and intolerance against humanity of those opposed to such a reversal. Should anyone be surprised that those committed to violence against innocent, unborn children in the world use firebombs, vandalism, destruction and threats against those who stand for the sanctity of life? This is your opportunity to hear Julaine present specific details on this case that you likely won't hear from the mainstream media. From molotov cocktails, the ensuing fire, to the graffiti, the response of public officials and more. Listen to this edition of Crosstalk.
5/10	30x30 Land Grab & Environmental Extremism	Jim Schneider/ Craig Rucker	We've been told that the greatest existential threat to our nation is Global Climate Change. As a result, the government has been doing everything possible to send us back to the pre-Industrial era. The price hikes we are all seeing for diesel and escalating food prices recently became a laughing matter to the President. Policies are being enacted to cut our energy supply, to cut our food supply, and to cut the livelihood of farmers. There are many coming are many, but there's one with which you may not be familiar called the 30x30 plan. It's an attack on our land that puts even more land under the control of the federal government. Here to discuss this and related environmental issues, we welcome back Craig Rucker, President and Co-Founder of Citizens for a Constructive Tomorrow. This organization presents a balanced perspective on environmental issues and other important issues.
5/11	Food Inflation... Food Shortages... Food Crisis... Famine?	Jim Schneider/ William F. Jasper	Jim began by noting that according to Tom DeWeese at the American Policy Center, On March 24th, after the war in Brussels, President Biden announced that the food shortages around the world would be real because of the war. Interestingly, in the last 5 months, 20 food and fertilizer plants and storage facilities across the U.S. have been destroyed by fire. Breitbart reported that the prices of U.S. farm products continued to rise in March reflecting the inflationary pressures on our economy and fears that the war in Ukraine and sanctions on Russia could lead to food shortages around the world. Joining Jim to examine what's behind all of this was William F. Jasper. He's senior editor at The New York Times Magazine. He's an author, journalist and commentator as well as a top investigative reporter and documentarian. More than three decades he served as an accredited correspondent at the United Nations in New York and around the world. William believes that famine in America is a real possibility due to the vulnerabilities in our food chain. He wrote on this, he dealt with over a dozen different issues that are coming together in what he described as a "perfect storm," to potentially bring famine to the developed world and even the U.S. In his article he puts much of the blame for the human desolation of famine on the shoulders of the World Health Organization (WHO). He indicated that if you look at the COVID lock-downs and mandates that began in 2020, we see a very stringent, communist-style controls on the entire economy. Many within the WHO admitted that this was a mistake over the world. In fact, they felt more people would die from the lock-downs and mandates than from the war. What the lock-downs and mandates specifically did was to disrupt the planting and harvesting cycles along with the transportation of food, fertilizer and fuel. All that has been compounded by the Russia/Ukraine war which has disrupted deliveries all over the world. That, in turn, has escalated the price of fuel, fertilizer, potash and nitrogen. William contends that we haven't seen the worst of it, so be sure to review this edition of Crosstalk as he discusses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How does the avian flu play into this? • Fires at various food processing plants. • Why are we paying farmers not to grow? • The control over water. • How the key individuals who led our COVID response are also the key leaders of the global climate movement. There's more to hear and listeners brought their thoughts to the discussion as well.
5/12	The "Disinformation"	Jim Schneider /	Under the auspices of the Department of Homeland Security, the Biden administration is establishing a Disinformation Governance Board. This new board has been mocked as being a "ministry of truth" harking back to the George Orwell. Is there similarity between this new board and actions that have been taken by socialists to take us down this road in the past?

	Governance Board”	William Federer	Returning to Crosstalk to tackle this issue was William Federer. William is a nationally known speaker president of Amerisearch, Inc. He’s the speaker on The American Minute daily broadcast. He has authored including, America’s God and Country Encyclopedia of Quotations, Who is the King in America?, and History From Plato to the Present. Speaking of this new disinformation board William said, “This is what all tyrants do.” He pointed to H Venezuela. 5/16	Are You Going to a Better Place	Jim Schneider / Richard Schmidt	Tragedy is unfolding all around us as we witness a society and world that is crumbling. Just look at the news those insisting that we as a society continue to allow the targeted killing of the unborn. What must be remembered amidst all of this is that we’re only on this earth for a short time. The Bible says we’re like a vapor. We’re here for a time and then it vanishes away. What happens next? If you’ve never stopped to think about your eternal destiny, there’s never a better time to begin than right now. Appearing on Crosstalk to help listeners do just that was Dr. Richard Schmidt. Dr. Schmidt is the pastor of the Church and also heads Prophecy Focus Ministries. He is speaker on the WVCY-TV program Prophecy. In his current pastoral ministry, he spent 32 years in law enforcement including becoming acting sheriff of Missouri until his retirement in 2019. He’s the author of some books on Bible prophecy and a book we’re discussing called Going to a Better Place? Why do people want to ignore the question concerning their eternal destiny? Dr. Schmidt admitted that in the 16 years of his life, he wasn’t sure where he was going. He was taking the advice of what others told him to do even his pastor didn’t seem to know the answer to the question of how you can know for sure you’re going to heaven when you die. The bottom line is that apart from Scripture, we have no assurance, outside of hearsay and arguments, that we’ll get to heaven one day. Dr. Schmidt presented his testimony where he first heard the Gospel. This was an important moment for him. As a Christian upbringing, he was well aware of Christ’s birth, death and resurrection. The problem is, up to that point he didn’t get the real punch-line of why Christ came.” If you need assurance of salvation or you know someone who does, listen to this edition of Crosstalk with the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why Dr. Schmidt believes the Bible is the rule of law. • Why we must think about our death and our eternal destination. • Does baptism, at birth or even later, merit salvation? • The judgment of Revelation 20 and those who haven’t accepted Christ. Questions from listeners cap off this hope-filled broadcast.
5/17	Warning! WHO Pandemic Treaty Places U.S.	Jim Schneider / Alex Newman	The Biden administration is advancing a plan to surrender our national sovereignty to the U.N World Health Organization (WHO). This plan would allow the WHO to acquire unprecedented power, enabling them to declare a global health emergency in any nation, including the U.S., and give them control over the food supply, agriculture, and more. Bringing you the details was Alex Newman. He’s an award-winning international freelance journalist, author, educator and consultant. He is senior editor for The New American and contributes to other publications including Crimes of the Educators and Deep State: The Invisible Government Behind the Scenes. He is founder of

	Sovereignty at Risk		According to Alex, the World Health Organization was one of those multilateral institutions born in the WWII. Nearly every nation-state is a member and it operates much like the other U.N. agencies. It has purports to delegate great powers to itself. These powers haven't been used in a blatant way, at least not by Western nations, but it is very influential. For example, when you look at COVID, the fact that many nations are unable to implement the exact same policies all at the same time, it was because it was coordinated through the WHO. Alex went on to describe how the Biden administration's Department of Health and Human Services has directed the director general of the WHO a series of 13 amendments. The most significant change that would come from these amendments is a striking of the language in the international health regulations requiring the consent of the target government. Here's why this is very troubling. Alex described how the Ivory Coast had an Ebola outbreak under the leadership of the WHO. The WHO declared this a disaster. Whole villages were ordered to be under quarantine and placed under medical martial law. The Obama administration sent troops there to help this totalitarian exercise. In that case the government of the Ivory Coast was required to consent to this. However, under the amendments the regulations proposed by the Biden administration, that consent by the target government would no longer be required. Hypothetically, this means that if the WHO believes that climate change, racism or gun violence is a public health threat, they would have the power to do whatever they feel is necessary without the consent of our government officials. Could the Biden administration send U.S. troops somewhere or perhaps against U.S. citizens? Might they be able to enforce something here? It's something to ponder, but make certain you have the facts by listening to the program.
5/18	Encouraging Young People to Keep the Faith	Jim Schneider / Dr. S.M. Davis	Dr. S.M. Davis is a nationally known speaker at churches and conventions, leading the ministry, Solve the Problems. He gives biblical solutions to critical family and church problems as well as to foresee and avoid problems. He has over 40 years of decades of pastoral ministry. When it comes to keeping young people in the faith, you may hear about Proverbs 22:6 which says, "Train the child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." Should we take this as a 100% guarantee? While Dr. Davis doesn't believe this is a 100% guarantee from God, he does believe it is a very strong promise. As parents, what we're supposed to do as parents, and not do what we shouldn't, that we can expect our children will follow. In order to help in this regard, Dr. Davis has developed seven steps/principles to guide parents in raising children. Here is an example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Joyfully and regularly emphasize that God is our creator. • Keep your child focused and interested by teaching him what God wants him to learn. • Replace all the anger in your marriage and parenting with kindness, love and joy (Eph 4:32). • Give your children hope for a good marriage by modeling such a marriage before them. • Always keep the lines of communication open between you and your child so that a spouse can help them. • Keep your child's heart by continually reminding yourself to smile and listen and pray for them. • Make your child feel included and important by creating a team spirit in your home. Crosstalk listeners lit up the phone lines as they brought their questions and comments to this important program.

5/21	The Surrender of U.S. Sovereignty to WHO	Jim Schneider / Dr. Michele Bachmann	This edition of Crosstalk revisited a subject that was looked at on Tuesday the 17th in our program with just days away from a World Health Organization meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, and at stake is the sovereignty of the U.S. The Biden administration is planning to offer devastating amendments and agreeing to regulations that would strip the World Health Organization (WHO) the authority to declare a health emergency and take control over the U.S. Joining Jim with specifics on this issue was Dr. Michele Bachmann. Dr. Bachmann is the Dean of the School of Law at Regent University. She previously served in the Minnesota State Senate then ran for Congress in 2006 and was elected a Republican woman from Minnesota elected to the U.S. House of Representatives. She was reelected another two years. According to Dr. Bachmann, in January the Biden administration shared proposed amendments to the international health regulations of the World Health Assembly, the policy-making body of the U.N. The administration failed to share

			people. In fact, the amendments weren't posted until April 12th on the WHO website. Until recently, the House and Senate knew nothing about this. Dr. Bachmann believes this was by design. She believes that the Biden administration felt they could take amendments and go "under the radar," the vote would happen in Geneva and it would be over. What should we be concerned about? For the last 2-1/2 years, America has been governed by emergency powers (into effect via congressional vote) to deal with COVID-19. What these amendments proposed by the Biden administration would do is to take the same concept of rule via emergency powers and give that power to Director-General of the World Health Organization. He would then be allowed to make decisions about health care that would affect the earth. That would include issues related to health care that we all experienced during the COVID crisis (lockdowns), with the enforcement coming through the Biden administration. What if the U.N. believes that an increase in gun violence or climate change rises to the level of a world crisis? Would the U.N. then have the power to confiscate guns or even ration gasoline? Get the answers to these questions when you review this critical broadcast
5/23	PTSD: Biblical Cures for the Wounded Spirit	Jim Schneider / Wayne Keast	Proverbs 18:14 says, "The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?" This was the launching point for this broadcast as Jim mentioned the many military veterans who are committing suicide. The percentage is far higher than for non-veterans. One of the reasons for this is a subject Crosstalk dealt with in a previous edition—Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). Appearing on Crosstalk to detail how he became involved in this issue was Wayne Keast. Wayne is currently a Chaplain in the U.S. Army and retired after 23 years of service. He now serves with the Armed Forces of the Americas as a Wounded Warriors with PTSD to find Christ. He's the author of Biblical Cures for the Wounded Spirit: Healing the Invisible Wound. Wayne began by noting how he was the product of a broken home. Looking for direction he entered the military for 3 years as an enlisted soldier, he left the military for 4-1/2 years at which time he got married. Eventually he was sent to Germany. He finished college and seminary and the Army sent him off for training to be a chaplain. And after his own surgery, he learned about war-time PTSD issues by listening to soldiers. This led him to realize that psychology, drugs and New Age philosophy aren't the answer. Instead, he learned that this invisible wound is successfully via the Word of God. Don't miss this edition of Crosstalk where you'll learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How does someone handle the grief experienced in combat? • How does a spouse or other loved one handle the playing-out of stress the combat veteran returns home? • How can the veteran deal with fear, guilt or a lack of peace? You'll also get an opportunity to hear how listeners responded to this crucial issue as well.
5/24	A Nation in Economic Turmoil	Jim Schneider / Dr. Ron Paul	Within the hour prior to this edition of Crosstalk, Jim checked the U.S. national debt clock. It showed a record high in national debt. Over two-thirds of the populace is saying the economy is bad. Inflation is out of control and driving up gasoline prices, and that's if the items you need are available at all (think baby formula)! Appearing on Crosstalk to bring some answers was Dr. Ron Paul. Dr. Paul is a medical doctor who served in the Air Force and Air National Guard. He was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives where he served as the chairman and founder of the Ron Paul Institute for Peace and Prosperity. What does Dr. Paul believe has brought us to this point of great debt? He pointed to multiple causes, but the primary one is the fascination with inflation which he believes is corruption and fraud. For example, he pointed to the fact that they don't have to pay for it because we have the reserve currency of the world. Add in the fact that we are printing money and it's no wonder our debt has tripled since 2008. Much is covered on this broadcast dealing with this issue including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • COVID relief money and its impact on inflation. • Who is holding our debt? • How long can the American dollar continue to maintain reserve currency status? • How can the American people get engaged and be part of the solution?
5/25	Tragedy in Texas	Jim Schneider / Dr. Richard Schmidt	Tragedy struck Uvalde, Texas, yesterday when an 18 year old gunman opened fire at an elementary school killing 20 children and 2 teachers. The gunman was also killed. It's the deadliest school shooting since Sandy Hook nearly 30 years ago. Why are mass shootings happening? Can they be stopped? Where do we go from here? Returning to Crosstalk to provide biblical guidance on this issue was Dr. Richard Schmidt. Dr. Schmidt is the pastor of Grove Baptist Church and also heads Prophecy Focus Ministries. He's a speaker on the WVCY-TV program Focus. Prior to his current pastoral ministry, he spent 32 years in law enforcement including becoming a Sheriff in Milwaukee County in 2017 until his retirement in 2019. From the law enforcement perspective, Pastor Schmidt admitted he's angry, upset and very concerned about the state and federal government, things aren't being done to solve this issue. For Pastor Schmidt, the main issue is the defunding of police. He noted that the number of officers nationally has decreased. Back in 2008 there were over 708,000 officers. Today we're down to about 690,000. That's a 2% decrease when we're spending billions and trillions to fund other things. For example, he's in favor of supporting the military. This past year we've sent them over 54 billion in funding. How much was added to the law enforcement budget? In other words, why don't we have officers at every school when we have the money? Instead we choose to spend it elsewhere. Pastor Schmidt publicly challenged every single person involved in local, state and federal government to stand up for themselves unless they're going to provide legislation to increase law enforcement and to increase what we spend on safety in schools and on the streets. What about the heart aspect of this issue? The Bible speaks clearly to that point as it's the core of the problem. It's laid it out clearly, while listeners had their chance to weigh-in as well, on this edition of Crosstalk.
5/26	Triumph in Turkey	Jim Schneider / Michael Germi	While America talks about the shooting in Texas, we must remember there are tragedies taking place all over the world. Despite such tragedies, there is also triumph as you'll hear on this program as it transitions us from Texas to Turkey. The Gospel is being advanced. Joining Jim to explain just what's happening in that part of the world was Michael Germi. Michael is a pastor and was born in Iran into a Shia Muslim family. He migrated to Australia in 2006 and found faith in Jesus Christ. He moved to the States where he now proclaims the Gospel to Islamic nations.

			After Michael was saved he realized he wouldn't be able to return to Iran to spread the Gospel, yet he still would give him the opportunity to somehow reach Iran, perhaps via radio or satellite. He noted that over 100 million people in Iran, about 60 million have satellite dishes that people obtain via the black market. Through satellite Christian TV and hear Christian radio. It was through this avenue that the Lord fulfilled his vision not only in Afghanistan and Tajikistan. The nation of Turkey became a part of his life due to his burden for Iranians, not only in Iran, but those scattered. He's been reaching them for over 10 years through the technology of Skype. In fact, one of his discipling lives in Turkey. This man is from Iran, was jailed there, was freed and was able to escape to this man had been praying that they could eventually plant a church in Turkey. Don't miss the conclusion of Michael's testimony as you'll discover how his father reacted when confronted and how God used Michael to establish not just one church in Turkey, but two! As you'll hear, Michael has a burning desire to reach Islamic nations with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. So rejoice when you review this edition of Crosstalk.

5/30	Why Socialism Is Not Biblical	Jim Schneider / Pastor David Brown	The roars of socialism are growing louder. We hear of equality and even more recently we are hearing of justice and have the same. We hear the rich need to pay their fair share. Those who have much are required by law to give to those who don't have what they have. There's the growing 'social justice movement' and a push for even steps toward communism. Month after month this roar grows louder and louder. You see the push on the legislative agenda pushing progressivism and shunning conservative values. Joining Jim to examine this phenomenon was Dr. David Brown. Dr. Brown is the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Creek, has a Masters in Theology and PhD in History – specializing in the history of the English Bible. Dr. Brown began by explaining why biblical Christianity is disappearing in America. He noted John Smith of Jamestown, who had to get the people to realize that if a man doesn't work, neither shall he eat (2 Thess 3:10). Move forward in time to the formation of the U.S. and you can see our nation was based on the Judeo-Christianity. They never separated God from state, our founders separated church from state because Christianity isn't a religion, words, they didn't want a national religion for the country as was the case in places such as England and France. Our founders believed that rights came from God and that He's the founder of liberty. Dr. Brown cited the Declaration of Independence indicating that the signers of the Declaration of Independence spoke of the Lord 4 times: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • '...the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God...' • '...they are endowed by their Creator...' • '...to the Supreme Judge of the world...' • '...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence...' Then on the Liberty Bell we read: 'Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.' With that basis set, Dr. Brown communicated how he fears America is in the same position as deplaved Isaiah 59. He referenced some items from our history since the 1960's to prove the point: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prayer and Bible reading banned in public school in the the early 60's. • Abortion legalized in 1973. • Ten Commandments removed from public schools in 1980. • Same-sex marriage legalized in 2015. We can see from this how God has been systematically removed from American culture and socialism is the result. Why isn't it biblical? Find out the specifics when you listen to this Crosstalk broadcast.
5/31	"Pride" Eve: A Nation Given Over	Jim Schneider / Peter LaBarbera	June is "gay pride" month, however, there should be no "pride" in what God calls an abomination. We see progression in Romans 1 where it's noted that God gave them up to uncleanness, vile affections and to dishonorable passions. How possible that this is exactly where we're at in our society today? Joining Jim to discuss some examples of this was Peter LaBarbera. Peter is the founder and president of the American Family Association. How did we get to this point? Peter believes it's because we continually caved in and indulged the LGBT movement. Peter believes this has been a revolution of the media as well. The LGBTQ movement has been hard to combat because the media protects the movement so you're only hearing one side of the issue. Below are LGBTQ related news stories from the first quarter hour:

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Biden administration has announced that K-12 schools must allow boys into the bathrooms to be able to obtain federal funds for their breakfasts and lunches. Establishments that accept federal funding must also allow males who claim to be females to be able to access the female bathrooms (showers, bathrooms & sleeping areas). • The Maine Department of Education had a video introducing the concept of sexual orientation identity to Kindergarten students. While it has been pulled, Jim presented audio that shows the nature of this indoctrination. • A North Carolina preschool is under fire because of a teacher using flash cards to teach LGBTQ themes. • A school district in Ohio is instructing teachers to begin the social transitioning of non-binary students without knowledge or consent. • A Pennsylvania school hosts a drag show for kids without parental knowledge or consent. • Philadelphia teachers urged to attend a graphic sex conference. There's much more that's mentioned/examined and you can become informed when you review this edition.
6/1	Monkeypox, COVID and Vaccination Information	Jim Schneider / Barbara Loe Fisher	Jim began with details concerning a story that ran in The Gateway Pundit. Back in November of 2021, the Nuclear Threat Initiative (NTI) is a non-profit, non-partisan global security organization on reducing nuclear and biological threats imperiling humanity. They partnered with the Munich Security Conference to conduct a tabletop exercise that concerned reducing high-consequence biological threats. On page 10 of the report, they discussed a possible monkeypox outbreak on May 15th of 2022 in the fictional country of Brinia. This is interesting when you consider that the first case of monkeypox was reported around May 2022 in Belgium. This was the first nation to introduce a compulsory monkeypox quarantine. In other words, anyone suspected of monkeypox need to isolate for 21 days. By May 26th at least 200 confirmed cases and over 100 suspected cases were reported in Australia and the U.S. Then on May 20th, the Biden administration had ordered 13 million additional doses of the monkeypox vaccine. Was monkeypox something all of us should be concerned about. Was the tabletop exercise and what followed a mere coincidence? Returning to Crosstalk to provide answers was Barbara Loe Fisher. Barbara is the president of the National Vaccine Information Center (NVIC), a non-profit charity she co-founded with parents of DPT vaccine injured children. She leads a national, grassroots movement and public information campaign to institute vaccine safety reforms and strengthen protections in the public health system. She has researched, analyzed and publicly articulated the major issues surrounding vaccine science, policy, law, ethics and politics of vaccination to become one of the world's leading non-medical experts on the subject. According to Barbara, one of the reasons people are talking about monkeypox is because there are rumors that the current strain is genetically altered in bio-hazard labs in China and elsewhere. Health officials deny this and they point to the current strain that link this disease to past outbreaks. However, we all know about the controversy surrounding the use of SARS CoV-2 and that it was potentially genetically engineered in Wuhan, China. Barbara reported that currently there are about 600 cases of monkeypox reported in 30 countries. About 90% are in the U.S. Monkeypox is an orthopox virus like smallpox. It causes open lesions and blisters on the skin. It can be transmitted through close, personal contact with open lesions or body fluids. The symptoms are milder than smallpox and include fever, chickenpox, shingles or other diseases that cause skin lesions. There have been no reported deaths in the U.S. As this program moved along, Barbara shared more on what she knows about this strange new disease. She also discussed the role of the World Health Organization and how they might affect U.S. health policies, the latest on the COVID-19 pandemic, approximately 10,000 adverse events been removed from the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) and much more.
6/2	WHO & New Pandemic Treaty... There's More to Come	Jim Schneider / Mat Staver	Mat Staver is the founder and chairman of Liberty Counsel. Mat is a constitutional attorney with hundreds of published opinions. He's authored a number of scholarly law review publications and numerous books. He's also been cited in many federal and state courts and before the U.S. Supreme Court. Last week at the World Health Assembly, there was a resounding defeat for President Joe Biden. He proposed amendments to the WHO's international health regulations. These are additional amendments that he hoped to add to the WHO's international health regulations. All 13 of those failed. If they had passed, they would have given the World Health Organization the authority to declare global public health emergencies. The battle, however, is not over. Here's a brief description from Mat of what's to come concerning WHO's international health regulations. The World Health Assembly will have a meeting this month where they will be pursuing two tracks at the meeting. On May 16-17 they will discuss a new pandemic treaty that is in the process of being drafted. This is being pursued by the WHO. On May 19. They reason that if the WHO had greater international enforcement authority, they would have been able to manage the management of the pandemic. Then on August 1, the working draft of the pandemic treaty will be submitted. It's at that time that we'll see if it passes. At this point we do know that they've been calling for increased global enforcement authority. This is to be discussed at the next World Health Assembly meeting in May of 2023. September 30th is the deadline for presenting amendments to the international health regulations. On October 1, the WHO General Dr. Tedros Ghebreyesus will convene a committee to make technical recommendations to the WHO. 6/6	Gender Dysphoria in Children	Jim Schneider / Quentin Van Meter	The matter of gender confusion across our land is off the charts. From preschool on, children are being taught drag queen story hours and through television programming parents once thought was safe, now promote young children to become confused. Children are taught that you may look like a boy, but you may actually be a girl, but you may actually be a boy. Children then are celebrated for doing so in a different sort and affirmed by society. And this confusion is only intensifying! Look at the emojis just released of so-called pregnant men. Girls are being decimated. This is the consequence of ignoring the fact that God created male and female. But how do we deal with these matters with children? Many are running to the medical profession for prescriptions of sex hormones, and sadly some are even following procedures to mutilate their own bodies. Addressing these matters is Dr. Quentin Van Meter. He is President & Interim co-Executive Director of the American Academy of Pediatricians. He is a Board-Certified Pediatric Endocrinologist of 44 years. Dr. Van Meter obtained his medical degree in 1973. He did his pediatric internship and pediatric residency at the Naval Regional Medical Center in Oakland, California. He completed his pediatric endocrinology fellowship at The University of California, San Francisco. He is engaged in his own full-time endocrine practice and has been campaigning around the world to educate medical professionals about the harm of affirmation of gender incongruities.
6/7	Gender and Marriage War	Jim Schneider / Bodie Godge	Regular listeners to Crosstalk know we are in a war; a war between a biblical worldview and a secular worldview. This war is being fought in areas such as creation vs. evolution, life vs. killing the unborn, global governance vs. national sovereignty. Some of the more prevalent battles taking place in society today are the battles over gender and marriage. We hear stories about "drag queen" story hours, restroom debates, gender reassignment surgeries, biological males on women's athletic teams, and more. This is the result of many in society abandoning the authority of God's Word and instead asking the question, "What do I want to say that?" To help equip students, parents, Christian leaders, pastors and others to uphold the truths of Scripture on gender and marriage, Jim welcomed Bodie Godge. Bodie is a speaker author and researcher at Answers in Genesis and a member of the Answers in Genesis Review Board. He's been involved with many books and DVD's and is a regular speaker in the Creation Series. He's the author, co-author or editor of numerous books including being co-editor of a book discussing the gender and marriage war, a broadcast, The Gender & Marriage War. When did this war begin? Bodie noted that it began with sin but he suggested that moving ahead to the modern era, "...the modern gender and marriage war really started to take place." He went on to describe how in the late 1700's/early 1800's a big shift was taking place in the West. With the Industrial Revolution, subjects, people began rejecting God's Word. One of those was creation. People began to embrace materialism and things like long ages for the earth as well as the attacks from higher criticism that began to unfold. Eventually we had the Scopes Trial in 1925 and before long the Bible and prayer began to be removed from public life. What was next? The sexual revolution. It was a time when people began living out the "fruit" of that war between God and His Word. In fact, in his book, Bodie uses the phrase "sexual humanism" to describe what was taking place. Bodie then backed up to describe where this comes from. He explained how there are really only two worldviews: theism and humanism. If it doesn't come from God, it comes from the mind of man. That's humanism. This includes secular humanism, Islam and even sexual humanism. All these and many more are part of a humanistic worldview. Sexual humanism is a subset of the secular forms of humanism where things are defined by sex. It's just a form of humanism that is dominating much of the West where people have rejected God and elevated man. As this program moved along, Jim had Bodie answer numerous questions. Here are several from the first hour: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is the church being affected by sexual humanism? • Where does the concept of marriage come from? • How can marriage be defined as between one man and one woman when Jacob, David and others had multiple wives? • How can we discern what the correct morality is? • What is meant by cross-generational sex? Learn how to biblically discern what's taking place amidst the gender and marriage war when you review the episode on Crosstalk.

6/8	Transhumanism	Jim Schneider / Alex Newman	One of the components of the Great Reset agenda involves the merging of machines/technology with humans in transhumanism. Although we've alluded to this in past programs, this entire program looks at this issue in depth because transhumanism seeks to take surveillance, which up until now has been outside the body, and connect it to the skin. Returning to Crosstalk to discuss this issue was Alex Newman. Alex is an award-winning international author, researcher, educator and consultant. He is senior editor for The New American and contributes to the Liberty Sentinel. He is author of Crimes of the Educators and Deep State: The Invisible Government Behind the Scenes. Liberty Sentinel. Transhumanism may sound like bad science fiction but it's not. Many of the most powerful people on the planet are proponents of this movement. That includes Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum, Microsoft CEO Satya Nadella, Ray Kurzweil who is the director of engineering at Google. Why does Alex believe this issue is so significant? It's because what's at stake is the future existence of our species. Homosexual activist Yuval Noah Harari, who's deeply connected to the World Economic Forum and author of Sapiens and 21 Lessons for the 21st Century, and Klaus Schwab. Harari's material isn't well known among the general public, but at the level of the elites, people like Bill Clinton and Angela Merkel read his books. Harari believes that in the next 100 or so years, humans may not exist at all as we'll become deities ourselves and masters of evolution. The new transhuman-human will be so different from current humans that they will be a new species. Some individuals have been dreaming about this for decades but we lacked the technology for anyone to do it seriously. Alex believes we're quickly entering the "marketing phase" where we'll start hearing more about it in our culture. It'll probably be marketed within the contexts of convenience and security, perhaps even fun. There's a range of technologies involved in this, one of them being technological upgrades to human beings that allow allowing the human brain to interact with computer systems. Another involves biological engineering and genetic editing. Combine this with the surveillance digital identity systems and digital currencies and for Alex, that's a concerning picture for our future. 5G is connected to this as well because you need to be able to have numerous devices communicating with each other at speeds. This is why you may have heard the phrase, "The Internet of things" which can include "smart" refrigerators, home alarm systems and more. However, the next step is the "Internet of bodies" and that means implants implanted in the body. This might include taking a pill that monitors your health or microchips implanted in your body needed to keep all these parts communicating with each other. There's much more to take in from this broadcast including audio clips from Yuval Noah Harari and more.
6/9	Gloval Covid Summit – Declaration IV	Dalton Windsor	During a May 11th press conference of the Global COVID Summit, Dr. Robert Malone led a symposium on the importance of an international alliance of 17,000 medical scientists and physicians that stand for truth and integrity in science. In their fourth declaration, this one consisting of 10 principles affirming that, "the [COVID] state of medicine is broken, scientific integrity restored, and crimes against humanity addressed." More specifically, their declaration goes on to address what it describes as, "the disastrous COVID-19 pandemic which are the result of "a corrupt medical alliance of pharmaceutical, insurance, and healthcare institutions and financial trusts which control them." The alliance is said to have been "protected and supported by a powerful network of media, academics and government agencies who profited from this orchestrated catastrophe." If you're concerned that the medical community has denied people the right to have true, informed consent to experimental, COVID-19 injections or that you and others have been blocked from obtaining information about the benefits and alternatives due to censorship and propaganda, then you'll want to review this broadcast. In addition to comments from Dr. Malone, you'll hear from Dr. Richard Urso, Dr. Harvey Risch, Dr. Bruce Lipton, Dr. McCullough, Dr. Kirk Milhoan, Dr. David Wiseman and more.

6/14	LGBTQ+ Takes a Nation	Jim Schneider	2 weeks ago on May 31st, Crosstalk aired a program communicating that we would be seeing an unlesbian program on LGBTQ+ during June which is considered pride month. Is that what's happening? Read the story headlined "LGBTQ+ Takes a Nation" for yourself. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Fox News stunned its audience on Friday when it aired a program about a biological girl who had transitioned from the age of 5 to become a boy. Shortly after the report aired, Ben Shapiro slammed Fox for airing the pro-transgender program, a complete betrayal. -A California state senator suggested making a drag queen story time a public school requirement. -A Texas lawmaker introduces legislation seeking to put an end to drag queen performances in the public schools of the state. -A transgender inmate (Cristina Iglesias) has not spent a day outside a federal prison as an adult. 6/15	Abortion Decisions Looms at SCOTUS	Jim Schneider	The Bible is clear concerning how God views life from conception. Jeremiah 1:5 says: “Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee a prophet unto the nations.” Psalm 139 says: “If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness shall not be hid from thee: the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. For thou hast possessed my reins: thou covered me in my mother’s womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works, that my soul knoweth right well.” Unfortunately the world seemingly ignores these words from the Lord and the result is that the number of abortions escalate daily. As of 45 minutes before this broadcast started, since the 1973 Roe decision, according to numberofabortions.com, there have been 63,864,622 children that have lost their lives through abortion. This number is likely higher due to the fact that many abortions are not reported. That number alone is nearly 20% of the current U.S. population. Now consider this: Notice how much attention was given to COVID-19 deaths having reached the 1 million mark. How much media attention is given to the children who’ve died via abortion, a number that is 63 times greater than the number of COVID-19 deaths. This edition of Crosstalk took a look at numerous stories related to the abortion debate as we await word from the Supreme Court, not only concerning the Mississippi case but also on the future of Roe v. Wade. Keep in mind that the Supreme Court has been applied on multiple justices since the draft from the Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization. One such example of intimidation came from one of our nation’s senators. On March 4th of 2020, Senator Ted Cruz made threatening comments against Justices Neil Gorsuch and Brett Kavanaugh. Jim presented audio of the comments that story with many more that simply aren’t being covered by the mainstream media. Why aren’t threatening comments from a standing U.S. senator worthy of investigation? What about the comments from the unborn? These and other concerns may come to mind when you review this important edition of Crosstalk.
6/16	Father’s Day Tribute 2022	Jim Schneider	This edition of Crosstalk sought to honor fathers and fatherhood, both of which are under attack in our country. Fathers are often ridiculed during prime-time TV sitcoms, but in reality, they have a very important role in the lives of their children. Universities are finding out. For example, Jim received an email article from Penn State University noting how adolescence can be a challenging time. However, new research from that university found that close, supportive relationships with parents during adolescence, can stave off certain adjustments/problems. Jim also noted this from the National Fatherhood Initiative: According to the U.S. Census Bureau, 18.4 million (1 in 4) children live without a biological, step or adoptive father at home. Research shows that a father’s absence affects children in numerous unfortunate ways while a father’s presence makes a difference in the lives of both children and their mothers. Children with involved fathers have a strong foundation for child well-being. They are at lower risk for negative outcomes like infant mortality, low birth weight, emotional/behavioral problems, neglect and abuse, injury, poor school performance, teenage pregnancy, incarceration, alcohol and substance abuse, criminal activity and suicide. Review this edition of Crosstalk as it set aside the heavy news items of the day and sought to celebrate fathers and the glory of God!

6/20	Abortion: Yes, the Science Has Changed	Jim Schneider / Dr. Tara Sander Lee	Dr. Tara Sander Lee is the Senior Fellow and Director of Life Sciences at the Charlotte Lozier Institute, dedicated to policies and practices to protect the sanctity of human life. She is a scientist with 20 years of academic and clinical medicine with an emphasis on the cause of pediatric disease. She obtained a Ph.D. from the Medical College of WI and fellowship training at Harvard Medical School and Boston Children's Hospital. She is published in various medical journals and textbooks, including her recent co-authored manuscript in Journal of Perinatal Medicine, The Perinatal Revolution. She is a contributor to the book, Choose Life: Answering Key Questions with Compassion. Her chapter is "Knit Together in a Mother's Womb: The Biology of Prenatal Development." She also served as molecular pathology inspector for the College of American Pathologists and scientific consultant, including the Milwaukee County Medical Examiner, Children's Hospital of Wisconsin, and The University of Wisconsin. The U.S. Supreme Court will soon be releasing their decision on Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization. According to a leaked draft, will also reverse the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision. There have been massive intimidation tactics employed to somehow persuade a justice to switch their vote. There has been vandalism, and violence have been unleashed by pro-abortion extremists against pro-life organizations across the country. Some feel the nation is at a boiling point. House Speaker Nancy Pelosi has said, pertaining to abortion, that the country has changed since the Roe v. Wade decision, but politics have changed. Today's guest, with her scientific background, is against this statement.
6/21	Foreshadows	Jim Schneider / Steve Miller	Steve Miller is a longtime editor of Bible prophecy resources and author of several books. He's a podcaster and a blogger. This broadcast discusses his most current release, a very fascinating book, Foreshadows: 12 Months Before the Return is Nearer Than Ever. Steve explained that he used the term Foreshadows in the title because the book looks at trends indicating the end-times. So while he believes we're not currently in the end-times (that's kicked off when Israel signed a 7 year peace treaty), the events that will take place during that time are casting their shadow into the present. He uses the analogy of a wedding. For example, he noted that a wedding doesn't just happen spontaneously. A lot of preparation goes into making it happen. So each activity that takes place prior to the wedding is of the wedding that's yet to come. In a similar sense, there are a lot of things that the Bible says will take place before the return of Christ. What's different about today? After all, people for many generations have anticipated the Lord's return. We're seeing a great convergence. As we look at what Scripture says will happen in the end-times, we're seeing signs here or there, instead we're seeing the horizon fill up with signs converging together, telling us we're like a one-world government, one-world economy, etc. As the broadcast continued, Steve elaborated on the following points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The rise of globalism. • The spread of invasive technology. • Trends toward globalism/one-world government. • The progression toward a one-world economy. • The descent into moral and spiritual corruption. • The proliferation of deception. • The assault on truth. • The increase of Christian persecution. • The explosion of hostilities toward Israel and the Jewish people. • The preparations for a new temple in Jerusalem. • The forming of a coalition to destroy Israel.
6/22	Day of the Christian Martyr: John Chau	Jim Schneider / Todd Nettleton	Todd Nettleton is the Chief of Media Relations and Message Integration for the Voice of the Martyrs-USA. He serves as a voice for persecuted Christians, inspiring Christians and Christ's followers in over 70 nations where they face persecution for being a follower of Jesus Christ. He is the author of Forbidden: 40 Days on the Frontlines with Persecuted Christians. What is the significance of June 29th? Todd indicated that according to church history it's the day that John the Baptist was beheaded outside Rome. For those at the Voice of the Martyrs it's a day to think about those who've sacrificed for the cause of Christ and to get us to think what it's worth to see the advance of the Gospel. What would you do to see that happen? This year, Voice of the Martyrs is retelling the story of John Chau. John was a young man who was called to go to North Sentinel Island which he eventually did in 2018. This is an island outside of India known as North Sentinel Island. John went there to get acquainted with the Sentinelese people who had been completely unreachable for decades. John was "all in" concerning this effort. For example, through college he took cold showers because he didn't have hot water on the island. He got lasik surgery on his eyes because he knew he wouldn't be able to properly see without lenses. He received linguistics training as well as becoming certified as an EMT to hopefully serve the islanders. The examples show that for John, every decision was part of his focus toward being obedient to God's call to go to that island. John had a "Plan A" and a "Plan B". What were those plans and what did this attempt cost him? Review the story and then consider what the Lord may be calling you to do to help spread the Gospel of Christ. This Crosstalk also included discussion concerning Christian persecution in Nigeria, Eritrea and Vietnam. It also touched on the conversion of an Imam in Bangladesh.
6/23	SCOTUS, Uvalde & Other Gun Issues	Jim Schneider / Michael Letts	Michael Letts is the founder, president & CEO of In-Vest USA, a national grassroots non-profit organization that provides hundreds of communities with thousands of bulletproof vests for their police forces through education, training, sponsorship and fundraising programs. A 6-3 decision came down today from the Supreme Court in the case of New York State Rifle & Pistol Association v. Bruen. The court said that the state's law for carrying firearms violates the 14th amendment. Michael expressed his appreciation for the court's interpretation that makes sure American's have the right to own a firearm which is exactly what our founding fathers intended. He also pointed to the fact that President Biden's administration, among others, argue that you shouldn't have certain types of weapons. Michael believes this goes against the purpose of the Second Amendment which is to ensure citizens have the ability to fulfill their duty to oppose tyranny and oppressive government. This makes America unique. For example, Jim noted recent comments from Justin Trudeau, the Prime Minister of Canada, indicated that guns are only for hunting and they may not be used for self-defense.

			So what impact will this ruling have beyond New York? Michael believes this shows citizens are beginning to realize that they have the ability to determine America's future and that we will, by God's grace, prevail. Michael also commented on the "red flag" aspect of gun legislation coming up for a vote in Congress, the at Uvalde, George Soros, the defund-the-police movement and more. Caller questions and input rounded out the hour.
6/24	Roe v Wade Overturned!	Jim Schneider / Mat Staver	Mat Staver is the founder & chairman of Liberty Counsel. Mat is a constitutional attorney with three law firms and is a frequent guest on the U.S. Supreme Court. This morning a landmark decision was handed down from the Supreme Court. With Justice Alito writing the majority opinion and joined by Thomas, Gorsuch, Kavanaugh and Barrett, the court overturned Roe v. Wade as well as the precedent set by the 1973 case of Roe v. Wade and the 1992 case of Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Robert P. Casey decision. In less than 60 minutes following the court's decision, Missouri, which had a "trigger law" on the books, immediately went into effect as Attorney General Eric Schmidt, signed such a statement. Others states have laws on the books that were never repealed when Roe went into effect. So while they were put on "temporary" hiatus by Roe, since they were never removed from the books, those are coming back into effect today's repealing of Roe. Mat explained that there are those who want to pass federal legislation that would impose abortion on the states. He believes we'll see crazy things from the Biden administration to try and force states to include abortion in Medicaid or Medicare. Then there's also the battle at the state level. This single news story has many aspects to pay attention to. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What did Chief Justice Roberts have to say concerning the ruling? • Will this have a ripple effect on cases such as Lawrence v. Texas (same sex sodomy), Grain Processing v. Esch (contraception) or Obergefell (same-sex marriage)? • You'll hear statements from Maxine Waters, former President Obama, Planned Parenthood, Nancy Pelosi. You'll also hear audio from Alexis McGill Johnson (President/CEO of Planned Parenthood), Congressman Glenn Grothman from Wisconsin's 6th congressional district. • What other responses can we expect from pro-abortion advocates? The hour concluded with questions and comments from listeners.
6/27	Brace Yourselves: American Decline & World Control	Jim Schneider / Gary Kah	Gary Kah is founder and director of Hope For the World. He's editor of Hope for the World Update, the Middle East Trade Specialist for the Indiana State Government and is also author of the books, Enroute to the New World Religion, Occupation and The New World Religion. This broadcast began with discussion concerning information Gary received from a former military intelligence individual who believes that it will be a difficult summer in the U.S. Both this individual and Gary believe that the court will use even the latest Roe decision to try and cause more calamity, chaos and division. Gary also believes there are those who are deliberately trying to take America down. He wasn't trying to say that he feels sorry for the president and that he isn't "all there". This can be seen by his script and the fact that he has handlers around him telling him what to do. Gary believes many of these advisors are of a radical worldview. Therefore, in order to bring America down through a great reset, the U.S., as we know it, has to be destroyed. Gary let listeners know that as long as people can function in relatively comfortable fashion, he believes the U.S. wouldn't be keen to the idea of stepping into a one-world system that might limit freedoms. However, if there are energy shortages and continued supply chain disruptions and perhaps on top of that another pandemic, he feels people might completely rebel. That could pit the far left and the far right in a war against each other. Gary believes that's when our foreign enemies would probably step up to attack us. The other possibility is that we will be so frustrated that they finally capitulate and give in to the new world order. This Crosstalk has much more to offer as Gary reveals details related to this issue including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • More on possible shortages, specifically food and Diesel Exhaust Fluid (DEF). • Is global health governance far off? • Wars and rumors of wars. • The CEO of Nokia declares that 6G will be here by 2030 and will make smart phones obsolete. What will the next interface be?

Also LifeNews.com is reporting that at least 40 abortion facilities have halted abortions, and many are scheduling appointments. On today's program, we'll have discussion on the aftermath of last Friday's decision, and we'll take a look at the Supreme Court decisions this month. We are also going to look at the Biden Administration's attempt to force states to fund girls sports when it was originally crafted to save girls sports.
6/29	Adult Death Surge, Shots for Babies: What's Happening?	Jim Schneider / Dr. Elizabeth Lee Vliet	Dr. Elizabeth Lee Vliet is the president and CEO of Truth for Health Foundation, a non-profit public health organization. In 2020, she's been part of the team of frontline physicians treating COVID early at home. With Dr. Peter Dinkov, she is co-author/editor of the Guide to COVID Early Treatment: Options to Stay Out of Hospital and Save Your Life. She is a 2014 Ellis Island Medal of Honor recipient for her national and international educational efforts in health care. She is an endocrine aging in men and women. She is a past director of the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons. She received her M.D. degree and internship in Internal Medicine at Eastern Virginia Medical School and completed her residency at Johns Hopkins. She appeared on Crosstalk as an independent physician, not as a spokesperson for any pharmaceutical company, insurance plans or political party. She is a patient advocate. After giving her views on the recent repealing of Roe v. Wade, Dr. Vliet exposed listeners to some interesting statistics concerning COVID shots. She described a drop of 8-11% in the range of live births in the first quarter of 2022 in Germany, Norway and several U.S. states. This means the COVID shots are resulting in the prevention of live births and infertility. Then there's the death rate for millennials (those ages 18-44). There were 61,000 deaths in 9 months of 2022. That's compared to 58,000 deaths in the 10 years of the Vietnam War in the same age group. Jim also noted some interesting statistics from Dr. Joseph Mercola. In looking at data from the International Olympic Committee, he showed that there were 1,101 sudden deaths in athletes under the age of 35 between 1960 and 2020, an average annual rate of 29 deaths across all sports. However, from March of 2021 to March of 2022, at least 1,000 athletes suffered cardiac arrest, collapsed or just died on the field worldwide.

			What is causing this phenomenon that some are calling, “Sudden Adult Death Syndrome”? Dr. Vliet ta description and she explains why. Much more was covered on the program such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What about those who’ve received a COVID shot and have been boosted or perhaps a double-boosted? Why are they still getting COVID-19? Is it true that the shots mean will have a less serious case of COVID? • What about Emergency Use Authorization that approves the use of COVID shots for to 5 years? Are such children more at risk of death from the shot than from COVID i • Is the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) obfuscating statistics we s
6/30	Listeners Stand on Their Soapbox	Jim Schneider	In the early 1900’s, many things were delivered in wooden crates, including soap. At various times it w someone to stand on one of these crates on a busy street and make an impromptu speech to those willing. This Crosstalk was one of those periodic broadcasts where we give listeners a “soapbox” platform to ad they feel others should take note of. However, before letting listeners sound off, Jim shared some headlines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This morning the Supreme Court ruled 6-3 that the Clean Air Act doesn’t give the U.S. Protection Agency widespread power to regulate carbon dioxide emissions that a pop contributes to global warming. • The Supreme Court gave President Biden the “green light” to end the “Remain in Me that originated under the Trump administration. That vote was 5-4. • Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer has officially retired. Sworn in today was Just Jackson, the first black woman on the court. • President Biden called for the removal of the Senate filibuster in order to codify Roe
