

WYOS 1360 AM
BINGHAMTON, NEW YORK

ISSUE RESPONSIVE PROGRAM LISTING
October, November, December, 2017

Submitted January 2, 2018

Introduction

As per the revised Federal Communications Commission Public Inspection File Rule (section 73.3526 (A)), This document is submitted in the licensee's good faith judgment.

The issue responsive news stories listed are those which represent the station's more significant treatment of the issues which we believed to be of the greatest concern during the preceding three months.

In order to allow for extended listener responsiveness, community ascertainment are conducted on an on-going basis. Areas not covered within our programming and news segments are addressed in public service announcements.

The following issues were of greatest community concerns to the listeners in the WNBF broadcast area for the quarter:

- Economy/ Jobs
- Crime/Drugs
- Family/Education/ Culture
- Health/ Safety
- Hunger/ Homeless Issues

ECONOMY/ JOBS

MORNING UPDATE :20	10/5/17	7:20am	This feature addressed employment concerns by informing residents that a lithium-ion battery manufacturing facility is looking to locate in the former IBM location on the Heron Campus in Endicott.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	10/19/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature addressed concerns about attracting new business to blighted buildings by informing listeners that SaveAround coupon book company plans to move into the former Emerson Network Power site north of Clinton Street.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	10/27/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature addressed interest in supporting young professionals in the region by publicizing a summit for young business people.
MORNING UPDATE :20	10/31/17	7:20am	In response to interest in assisting local people who are unemployed find jobs, WYOS aired this feature publicizing a manufacturing basics training program at SUNY Broome Community College.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	11/1/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature responded to interest in expansion of businesses locally by informing residents that Aldi grocery chain plans to build another food market in the Town of Owego.

ECONOMY/JOBS

MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	11/7/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature pointed up growth in jobs and business in the region as the owner of Tioga Downs announced part of the new resort hotel is now open.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	11/13/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature addressed concerns about the changing economic climate in Johnson City by publicizing an open house to talk about private and public investments for commercial and residential opportunities in the Village.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	11/30/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature responded to concerns of local business officials over changing regulations by publicizing a meeting hosted by the Greater Binghamton Chamber of Commerce to discuss regulatory issues affecting business growth in the area.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	12/8/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature dealt with concerns about jobs and the local economy by informing residents that Sanmina is closing its Owego manufacturing plant, laying off 320 people.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	12/13/17	7:20am, 9:20am	This feature addressed concerns that at-risk young people get a chance at employment and getting the skills needed to get future jobs by informing residents that the VINES Program is getting $100,000 to expand the Grow Binghamton Youth Sumer

Employment Program and its downtown Urban Farm.

MORNING UPDATE 12/14/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

This feature responded to concerns about the area securing funds for economic development projects by informing listeners that the Southern Tier is getting $67.3 million in New York State regional development awards.

ECONOMY/ JOBS

MORNING UPDATE 12/22/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

This feature responded to popular belief that there aren't any jobs in the area by publicizing word from "The Agency" that hundreds of jobs are open waiting to be filled by qualified workers.

MORNING UPDATE 12/26/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

This feature addressed employment concerns by publicizing that the Greater Binghamton Chamber is hosting its annual Project Homecoming job and career fair Thursday.

SOUTHERN TIER 12/30/17
15:00

6am

CLOSE UP

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed a number of issues including job training for at-risk youth as host, Kathy Whyte talked with VINES director Amelia LoDoche about the community urban garden project that is expanding as well as funds to expand the summer youth employment program.

CRIME/ DRUGS

MORNING UPDATE :20	10/2/17	7:20am	This feature addressed criminal justice issues by publicizing this weekend's open house at the New York State Police Troop C Headquarters in Sidney.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	10/3/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This news feature dealt with the issue of drugs in the community by informing residents that the Broome County District Attorney's office reported 55 overdose deaths so far this year.
SOUTHERN TIER 15:00 CLOSE UP	10/7/17	6am	This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed issues concerning the crime of domestic violence as host, Kathy Whyte talked to the Executive Director of the Crime Victims Assistance Center, Raini Baudendistle about Domestic Violence Awareness Month, the various kinds of abuse, what victims can do and a new effort to educate offenders to break the cycle.
MORNING UPDATE	10/13/17	6:20am, 8:20am :20 each time	In response to concerns about the crime of domestic violence in the area, WYOS aired this feature informing residents that New York State is providing $55,000 to fund domestic violence services in the Southern Tier.

CRIME/ DRUGS

MORNING UPDATE	10/16/17	6:20am, 8:20am :20 each time This feature dealt with the rampant drug addiction problem in the region and informed listeners that there is not unanimous support for starting a drug treatment facility at the former Broome Developmental Center.
MORNING UPDATE	10/17/17	6:20am, 8:20am :20 each time This feature addressed scam concerns by publicizing another increase in the so-called "Grandparents Scam" that targets older victims to get them to send money or gift cards to help a grandchild who the caller is posing as and claims to be in trouble.
MORNING UPDATE	10/23/17	6:20am, 8:20am :20 each time This feature addressed efforts to curb the use of illegal drugs by informing listeners that area agencies are sharing $385,000 in New York State funding for education, prevention and counseling.
MORNING UPDATE	10/24/17	6:20am, 8:20am :20 each time This feature also dealt with concerns about curbing illegal drugs by informing residents that a $100,000 New York State is going to prevention, treatment and recovery services at nine regional organizations.

MORNING UPDATE 10/25/17

6:20am, 8:20am,
:20 each time

This feature also addressed concerns about treatment and recovery facilities for addicts by informing residents the opening of The Voices Recovery and Community Outreach Center operated by Fairview Recovery Services.

CRIME/ DRUGS

SOUTHERN TIER 11/4/17 and

6am

15:00

CLOSE UP 11/11/17

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed addiction issues as host, Kathy Whyte talked to the founder of the InsideOut Network, Luann Mattishak about the faith-based program that assists people struggling with addiction.

MORNING UPDATE 11/28/17

7:20am, 9:20am

:20 each time

This feature addressed concerns about the abilities of local law enforcement agencies to deal with crime by publicizing the graduation of eight members of the Delaware County Sheriff's Office Mounted Police School.

MORNING UPDATE 12/1/17

7:20am, 9:20am

:20 each time

This feature warned residents of a scam in the City of Binghamton where two children have been reportedly going door-to-door selling stolen candy bars.

FAMILY/ CULTURE/EDUCATION

MORNING UPDATE	10/6/17	7:20am :20	This feature addressed concern of continuing the learning process after regular school hours by informing residents that the Binghamton City School District is getting a $2.9 million grant over the next five years to fund after school programs.
MORNING UPDATE	10/10/17	7:20am :20	This feature addressed concerns that Johnson City residents, elected officials and businesses be kept up to date on the development of Binghamton University's pharmacy school and the relocation of the Decker School of Nursing to the Village by publicizing a town hall meeting being held today in the Village.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	10/12/17	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature responded to concerns that non-profits providing services for older family members have adequate funding by publicizing tonight's Dining for Dollars fundraiser for the Faith in Action Volunteers.
SOUTHERN TIER 15:00 CLOSE UP	10/14/17	6am	This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed concerns of affordable and educational activities for families in the area as host, Kathy Whyte talked to the director of the Waterman Conservation and Education Center, Scott MacDonald about the mission of the center and upcoming events.

FAMILY/CULTURE/EDUCATION

MORNING UPDATE	10/18/17	6:20am, 8:20am :20 each time This feature responded to how many people regard pets as part of the family and publicized this weekend's Empty the Shelters free pet adoption day.
SOUTHERN TIER 15:00 CLOSE UP	10/28/17	6am This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed family issues as host, Kathy Whyte talked to Binghamton High School advisor Larry Kassin and senior, Avia Hailey about the upcoming annual Community Thanksgiving Dinner that joins the community together for the holiday as an extended family.
MORNING UPDATE	11/7/17	7:20am, 9:20am :20 each time This feature responded to interest in expanded courses at Binghamton University by informing listeners that a new Master of Public Health Program will be offered in the fall.
MORNING UPDATE	11/14/17	6:20am, 8:20am :20 each time This feature addressed education as well as the agriculture industry by informing listeners that more schools are being funded for a program that brings agricultural education into local classrooms.
SOUTHERN TIER 15:00	12/2/17	6am

CLOSE UP

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed family activities, education and even holiday shopping as host, Kathy Whyte talked to Binghamton's Ross Park Zoo marketing and community relations coordinator Rachel Davenport about what happens at the zoo in the off season, unique gifts and the Species Survival Program that now has two new male Red Wolves in Binghamton to be paired with the collections females.

FAMILY/ CULTURE/ EDUCATION

MORNING UPDATE

11/20/17

7:20am, 9:20am
:20 each time

As many families struggle this time of the year to meet the holiday expectations of their children, this feature addressed those concerns by publicizing the start of the local Toys for Tots program operated by area Police Benevolent Associations.

SOUTHERN TIER 11/25/17
15:00

6am

CLOSE UP

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed culture, family and education interests as host, Kathy Whyte talked with the new director of the Roberson Museum and Science Center, Michael Grasso about how the Endicott native ended up as the head of the museum and what people can expect at this year's Home for the Holidays exhibits.

MORNING UPDATE 11/29/17

6:20am, 8:20am
:20 each time

This feature addressed higher education concerns by publicizing that a partnership between SUNY Broome Community College and Binghamton University will guarantee eight qualified BCC students admission to the new BU Pharmacy School.

SOUTHERN TIER 12/10/17

6am

15:00

CLOSE UP

This edition of the weekly public affairs program addressed issues facing people who are taking care of a family member as host, Kathy Whyte talked to Broome County Office for Aging Caregiver Services manager, Judy Bobinsky about stress and guilt many caregivers experience as well as services that are available to offer advice and support.

SOUTHERN TIER 12/16/17

6am

15:00\

CLOSE UP

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed the issue facing families that want to add a pet to their ranks as host, Kathy Whyte talked to Stray Haven SPCA Board President, Kristi Snyder about the pros and cons of pet ownership, how the shelter in Tioga County was started and how people can help the animals even if they don't adopt.

HEALTH/ SAFETY

MORNING UPDATE 10/4/17
:20

7:20am

This feature responded to concerns about breast cancer during Breast Cancer Awareness Month by publicizing a fundraising effort for Traci's Hope where bottles and cans are being collected in pink garbage cans supplied by Taylor Garbage.

MORNING UPDATE 10/6/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

In response to concerns about residents being aware of what to do in case of a fire, WYOS aired this feature publicizing the annual Vestal Fire Department Fire Expo.

SOUTHERN TIER 10/21/17
15:00

6am

CLOSE UP

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed breast cancer issues as host, Kathy Whyte talked with Carrie Horton of the Broome County Health Department and Gordie Shiner from Traci's Hope about programs to screen for breast cancer and Traci's Hope programs to help cancer patients pay their bills.

MORNING UPDATE 11/3/17

6:20am, 8:20am

:20 each time

This feature addressed safety concerns by publicizing that the Firefighters Association of the State of New York is reminding people to change the batteries and test their smoke detectors when they change their clocks for the return to Standard Time.

HEALTH/ SAFETY

MORNING UPDATE 11/21/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

In response to concerns about people with addictions finding a lack of treatment and rehabilitation services in this area, WYOS aired this feature concerning a proposal for the county to accept state funding to open a facility at the Broome Developmental Center.

MORNING UPDATE 11/22/17
:20 each time

7:20am, 9:20am

This feature addressed health issues by publicizing that electronic cigarette use is now banned in areas covered by the Clean Air Act in New York State.

MORNING UPDATE 12/1/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

This feature dealt with health issues as there are several events to mark World AIDS Day in the region including free, confidential rapid HIV testing and counseling at Family Planning of South Central New York locations.

MORNING UPDATE 12/7/17
:20 each time

7:20am, 9:20am

In response to concerns that Broome County continues to rank near the bottom of the rankings in New York counties for health, WYOS aired this feature informing residents that 13 organizations and worksites are being recognized for adopting healthy food policies.

MORNING UPDATE 12/19/17
:20 each time

7:20am, 9:20am

This feature addressed increased fire safety concerns during this time of the year by informing residents that the Firefighters Association of the State of New York is offering holiday safety tips.

SOUTHERN TIER 12/23/17
15:00
CLOSE UP

6am

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed health issues, especially with many people traveling for the holidays as host, Kathy Whyte talked with family nurse practitioner with Lourdes Ascension, Nahid Borogherdi about the flu, colds and the latest information about the flu shot.

MORNING UPDATE 12/27/17

6:20am, 8:20am
:20 each time

This feature responded to emergency health and safety concerns by informing residents of a wind chill advisory and the dangers of hypothermia and frost bite.

MORNING UPDATE 12/28/17

6:20am, 8:20am
:20 each time

This feature responded to intense interest and concern over the drug addiction problem in the area by publicizing that the Broome County Legislature has approved accepting New York State funding for opening a detoxification center at the former Broome Developmental Center.

HUNGER/ HOMELESSNESS

MORNING UPDATE 11/7/17
:20 each time

7:20am, 9:20am

This feature addressed food insecurity issues by publicizing that the annual food drive for the Community Hunger Outreach Warehouse (CHOW) known as the Food-a-Bago raised a record 6.6 tons of food.

MORNING UPDATE 11/10/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

This feature addressed hunger and homeless issues by informing listeners that the United Way of Broome County is taking proposals for the Binghamton-Broome Anti-Poverty Initiative grant.

MORNING UPDATE 11/17/17
:20 each time

6:20am, 8:20am

This feature regarding a late fine forgiveness program at the Broome County Library addressed hunger issues as residents are required to bring a food donation for the Community Hunger Outreach Warehouse to receive a dollar taken off their fines for each food item donated.

SOUTHERN TIER 11/18/17
15:00
CLOSE UP

6am

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed food insecurity issues in the community as host, Kathy Whyte talked to the new director of the Community Hunger Outreach Warehouse (CHOW), Jack Seman about challenges providing food for the hungry in the area even with a record 6.6 tons of food donated through the Food-a-Bago drive.

MORNING UPDATE 12/5/17

7:20am, 9:20am

:20 each time

There are concerns that families who face food insecurity struggle more during times when school is out like during the holidays when breakfast and lunch programs aren't available. In response, WYOS aired this feature dealing with volunteers filling backpacks with food for children as coordinated through the Food Bank of the Southern Tier.

MORNING UPDATE 12/22/17

7:20am, 9:20am

:20 each time

This feature addressed continued food insecurity concerns in the region by informing residents that Community Hunger Outreach Warehouse (CHOW) has gotten a $10,000 New York State grant that it can stretch into 66,000 meals.

MORNING UPDATE

12/29/17

6:20am, 7:20am

:20 each time

This feature addressed homeless issues by informing residents that the “No Freeze” directive is in place where law enforcement looks for homeless people and places them in warm shelter even when the normal homeless shelters are full.