

For the WSPS Public File

July 5, 2017 (Updated February 28, 2018, see notation below)

Quarterly Issues/Programs List, WSPS 90.5 Concord
For the 2nd Quarter, April 1 – June 30, 2017

WSPS FM is licensed to St. Paul's School, a four-year high school. Issues of concern to the Concord community addressed in WSPS programming during the reporting period included the following:

- Civil Affairs/politics
- Civil Rights
- Income Inequality
- Racism
- Homelessness
- Health
- Diversity
- The Environment
- Women's Issues

WSPS seeks to provide an alternative voice to mainstream media (e.g., commercial stations, other non-commercial stations, newspapers, etc.) and address issues of concern to segments of the Concord community that are or may not otherwise be served.

In the fourth quarter the following programs were broadcast in the public interest of SPS and the community of Concord, NH.

1) Making Contact (syndicated program): Making Contact is a weekly public affairs program that presents perspectives rarely heard in the mainstream media.

During the quarter, the following shows were broadcast (all at 10PM unless noted otherwise) [and ran for 30 minutes]:

4/7/2017	Not Throw Away Women: Black and Indigenous Women Disrupt Violence-ENCORE [Issues addressed: women's rights]
4/14/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice [Issues addressed: women's health rights]
4/21/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice [Issues addressed: women's health rights]
4/28/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice [Issues addressed: women's health rights]
5/5/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice [Issues addressed: women's health rights]
5/12/2017	The Poetic Address to the Nation [Issues addressed: Creativity and the arts and impact to social activism]
5/19/2017	Liberation Theology: A March to Freedom [Issues addressed: liberative justice]
5/26/2017	Liberation Theology: A March to Freedom [Issues addressed: liberative justice]
6/2/2017	The Fraught Process Towards Peace: Colombia and the Philippines [Issues addressed: impact of long-term war]
6/9/2017	Sacrifice Zones – Part One [Issues addressed: environmental stewardship]
6/16/2017	Sacrifice Zones – Part Two [Issues addressed: environmental stewardship]
6/23/2017	Dr. Ibram X. Kendi – Stamped from the Beginning: The Definitive History of Racist Ideas in America [Issues addressed: racism in]

	America]
6/30/2017	The Draft, Duty, and Dissent: G.I. Resistance to War [Issues addressed: Impact of the draft]

2) Live student broadcasts: during the 2nd quarter 2017, live student broadcasts are scheduled Sunday to Friday evenings generally one hour increments. Students were on spring holiday from March 4 to March 27th and the school year concluded in late May. A sampling of live shows included:

04/04/17 8:00-9:00pm Locker Room Talk (Tristan, Eric and Temp).

04/05, 4/12, 4/19 7:00-7:30pm Radio Ellis Music and Talk

04/26, 5/17

04/05, 4/12, 05/03 8:00-9:00pm Will & Will

05/17

04/10, 04/24 7:30-8:30pm Mabry's Place

05/01, 05/8

04/21/17 8:00-9:00pm Inside SPS with Landon-Music and talk

04/27/17 7:00-7:45pm SPSN Sports Talk with Reese

05/15/17 7:30-8:45pm 2 People on a Bicycle- Chance and Regan

3) Public Service Announcements: during live broadcasts (Sunday— Friday evenings during the school year) SPS airs one 30 second or one minute PSA per hour. PSAs are kept in a wallet from which broadcasters pick. Broadcasters log the PSA along with the other items in the show log. A sampling of PSA topics included:

Skip the Drama (Issue addressed: education)

Nature (environment)

National Endowment for Financial Education (education)

I am Powerful (women's rights)

Foreclosure and Discrimination Prevention (education)

Golf (sports)

Signed,

Deborah J. Brann
General Manager
WSPS 90.5 Concord

Notation: Information noted above in bold italics and bracketed "[]" was added as additional information by the General Manager on February 28, 2018.

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL

For the WSPS Public File

July 5, 2017

Quarterly Issues/Programs List, WSPS 90.5 Concord
For the 2nd Quarter, April 1 – June 30, 2017

WSPS FM is licensed to St. Paul's School, a four-year high school. Issues of concern to the Concord community addressed in WSPS programming during the reporting period included the following:

- Civil Affairs/politics
- Civil Rights
- Income Inequality
- Racism
- Homelessness
- Health
- Diversity
- The Environment
- Women's Issues

WSPS seeks to provide an alternative voice to mainstream media (e.g., commercial stations, other non-commercial stations, newspapers, etc.) and address issues of concern to segments of the Concord community that are or may not otherwise be served.

In the fourth quarter the following programs were broadcast in the public interest of SPS and the community of Concord, NH.

1) Making Contact (syndicated program): Making Contact is a weekly public affairs program that presents perspectives rarely heard in the mainstream media.

During the quarter, the following shows were broadcast (all at 10PM unless noted otherwise):

4/7/2017	Not Throw Away Women: Black and Indigenous Women Disrupt Violence-ENCORE
4/14/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice
4/21/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice
4/28/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice
5/5/2017	Beyond Choice: Organizing for Reproductive Justice
5/12/2017	The Poetic Address to the Nation
5/19/2017	Liberation Theology: A March to Freedom
5/26/2017	Liberation Theology: A March to Freedom
6/2/2017	The Fraught Process Towards Peace: Colombia and the Philippines
6/9/2017	Sacrifice Zones – Part One
6/16/2017	Sacrifice Zones – Part Two
6/23/2017	Dr. Ibram X. Kendi – Stamped from the Beginning: The Definitive History of Racist Ideas in America
6/30/2017	The Draft, Duty, and Dissent: G.I. Resistance to War

2) Live student broadcasts: during the 2nd quarter 2017, live student broadcasts are scheduled Sunday to Friday evenings generally one hour increments. Students were on spring holiday from March 4 to March 27th and the school year concluded in late May. A sampling of live shows included:

04/04/17 8:00-9:00pm Locker Room Talk (Tristan, Eric and Temp).

04/05, 4/12, 4/19 7:00-7:30pm Radio Ellis Music and Talk

04/26, 5/17

04/05, 4/12, 05/03 8:00-9:00pm Will & Will

05/17

04/10, 04/24 7:30-8:30pm Mabry's Place

05/01, 05/8

04/21/17 8:00-9:00pm Inside SPS with Landon-Music and talk

04/27/17 7:00-7:45pm SPSN Sports Talk with Reese

05/15/17 7:30-8:45pm 2 People on a Bicycle- Chance and Regan

3) Public Service Announcements: during live broadcasts (Sunday— Friday evenings during the school year) SPS airs one 30 second or one minute PSA per hour. PSAs are kept in a wallet from which broadcasters pick. Broadcasters log the PSA along with the other items in the show log. A sampling of PSA topics included:

Skip the Drama (Issue addressed: education)

Nature (environment)

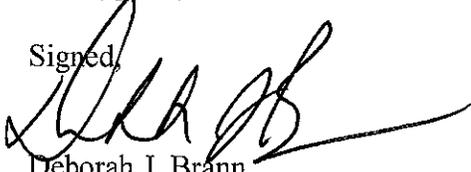

National Endowment for Financial Education (education)

I am Powerful (women's rights)

Foreclosure and Discrimination Prevention (education)

Golf (sports)

Signed,

Deborah J. Brann

General Manager

WSPS 90.5 Concord