November 18, 2013

Dear ABC Affiliate,

Disney/ABC is pleased to offer touching public service announcements (PSAs) to support Toys for Tots. The mission of Toys for Tots is to collect new, unwrapped toys during the month and distribute those toys as Christmas gifts to help less fortunate children throughout the United States experience the joy of Christmas. The duration of the campaign is for the month of December.

The PSAs will be fed on the daily promo feed Tuesday, 11/19/13 – Friday, 11/22/13.

We appreciate your support!

If you have questions, please contact David.Ambroz@email.disney.com

Best Regards,

David Ambroz

LITTON'S WEEKEND ADVENTURE TEAMS WITH THE PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL ON FITNESS, SPORTS & NUTRITION FOR HEALTHY HOLIDAYS CAMPAIGN

The President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition and Litton's Weekend Adventure introduces the "Healthy Holidays" campaign, a unique partnership to encourage families to be physically active and maintain a healthy lifestyle throughout the holiday season.

The campaign, which runs through January 17, aims to make it easier than ever for Americans to make small, but significant improvements to their health and well being. The Healthy Challenge Card, a holiday-themed checklist of nutrition and fitness goals, will encourage individuals of all abilities and backgrounds to integrate healthy habits into their everyday routine. The 10 "Be Active" and "Eat Well" challenges featured on the card highlight incremental lifestyle changes to enhance physical activity and healthy eating habits.

In addition to promoting the Healthy Challenge Card, the President's Council and Litton Entertainment will engage with followers through Twitter and other social media outlets to share healthy holiday tips, recipes, photos and more. Twitter users can submit their own advice or questions using the #HealthyHoliday hashtag.

"Litton is honored to partner with the President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition to promote healthy lifestyles for our viewers and their families. Our missions are perfectly aligned as Litton's Weekend Adventure is dedicated to educating and inspiring our viewers about culture, conservation and healthy lifestyles," commented Dave Morgan, CEO and Founder of Litton Entertainment.

The partnership is a continuation of the "Adventure Inside, Venture Outside" theme showcased during Litton's Weekend Adventure and invites young people and their families to watch Weekend Adventure's six, all HD original programs that promote conservation, wildlife protection and global exploration, then venture outside to participate in a healthy, active lifestyle while enjoying time together as a family.

"The President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition is thrilled to continue its partnership with Litton's Weekend Adventure to encourage families across the nation to live healthy, active lifestyles. It's important for all families to get active and create healthy environments within our own communities," said Shellie Pfohl, Executive Director of the President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition.

Important FCC On-Line Filing Information

The FCC recently released an order in which it rescinded a $20K fine to a station which it initially alleged had failed to timely file it's Children's Television FCC Form 398. It's important to note that television station's original forms and filings are deleted, after being filed on-line from the FCC website. Please be sure to save your electronic documentation records in the future to avoid any penalties.

Thank you and please don't hesitate to contact us with any questions.

Litton's Weekend Adventure E/I Programs and Commercials

The programs in Litton's Weekend Adventure, as well as the commercials contained within, have been pre-screened by the ABC Television Network Broadcast Standards and Practices Department for adherence to basic company standards as well as any applicable laws. The programs and commercials are fed to you after being cleared by these experts.

The programming is fed to you with Closed Captioning, Parental Ratings Icons, and the E/I Icon, which remains on-screen for the entirety of the program content.

All programs in Litton's Weekend Adventure are weekly half-hour E/I programs and are primarily intended for children 13-16.

Litton's Weekend Adventure Line-Up Beginning October 5th, 2013

- Jack Hanna's Wild Countdown
- Ocean Mysteries with Jeff Corwin
- Born to Explore
- Sea Rescue with Sam Champion
- The Wildlife Docs
- Expedition Wild

Jack Hanna's Wild Countdown

Wildlife expert and animal ambassador, Jack Hanna, brings the viewer face-to face with the best of the beasts. In this weekly half-hour series that will engage viewers 13-16, as well as the whole family, Jack highlights his favorite animals and adventures from around the world. Presented in countdown style, Jack offers up a different 'top ten' each week in a variety of categories.

What are the top ten 'fastest animals in Africa,' 'tallest insects,' 'biggest eaters,' 'smartest birds'...Jack will answer all of these questions and more. As Jack reveals the categories, he gives further insights and interesting facts about the animals allowing viewers of all ages the opportunity to be entertained as well as learn more about the fascinating animal kingdom in Jack Hanna's Wild Countdown.

Ocean Mysteries with Jeff Corwin

The half-hour weekly series, Ocean Mysteries, offers a fresh approach to the quest for aquatic understanding by blending stories of fascinating sea creatures, comparisons to popular land animals, and analogies to human experience.

Hosted by Jeff Corwin, Ocean Mysteries is produced for ages 13-16 - and beyond -by showing how animals share the same behaviors, challenges and triumphs that humans do. From exciting rescues of abandoned animals to unexpected conflicts in the 'family dynamics' of the mingling species, viewers will get to know – and care- about these heroes, and all of the fascinating life teeming in our oceans.

Born to Explore

Developed and produced for 13- 16 year olds, the world's cultures and its geographical wonders come alive as the youngest president in Explorers Club history, Richard Wiese, takes viewers on a globetrotting adventure. While developed for 13-16 year olds, Born to Explore is engaging for the whole family. In this weekly half-hour series, Richard uncovers amazing facts of nature and manmade treasures.

In Born to Explore, Richard Wiese takes the role of the ultimate Social Studies teacher to a new level, brining the viewing audience to the places and people of our world who form our cultures. Whether he climbs Mount Kilimanjaro, explores why people live at the base of an active volcano, or travels down the Nile River, viewers will travel the world without leaving their homes.

Sea Rescue with Sam Champion

The half-hour weekly series, Sea Rescue, features the rescue, rehabilitation and – in many instances - release back into the wild of ocean wildlife. Produced for ages 13-16, Sea Rescue offers educational and entertaining television by demonstrating the welfare and medical benefits that rescue and rehabilitation programs provide animals. Viewers will also learn that there’s a reciprocal benefit: rescued animals provide valuable insight into their biology and ecology. This information adds to the pool of knowledge necessary to conserve threatened and endangered species.

Each week, Sea Rescue will leave its audience inspired by the real-life stories of the featured animals and rescuers and with a fuller understanding of the rich array of sea life with which we share our planet.

The Wildlife Docs

The half-hour weekly series, The Wildlife Docs, produced for ages 13-16 follows the surprising, exotic, and challenging lives of a veterinary staff that cares for over 2,000 animals. From nutrition to treatments, x-rays to surgery, preventative care to emergencies, this educational and information program will allow viewers to witness a kaleidoscope of wild experiences through the eyes of our Veterinary Team. Unpredictable events unfold giving viewers a glimpse of the enormity, variety, and quality of treatment that sets the standard for animal care.

Expedition Wild

Produced for ages 13-16, this educational and informational program is hosted by wildlife expert Casey Anderson and showcases his charismatic animal companions on an innovative and action-packed odyssey through North America’s wild places — revealing a rare glimpse into the beauty and complexity of the natural world. Viewers will follow Casey on a series of breathtakingly wild adventures: he’ll paddle the Grand Canyon, ski with Wolverines in British Columbia, observe Mountain Lions in Montana, stake out the scavengers of Yellowstone, investigate a raven's nest, observe Polar Bears on Alaska's northern slope, and climb to rugged extremes in pursuit of Northern Maine's Black Bears – bringing audiences a rare and personal experience with endangered species, some deadly, others dashing, in the stunning natural ecosystems that they call home.

JACK HANNA'S ANIMAL ADVENTURES

Monday-Friday

November 29, 2013 – December 31, 2013

(Page 1 of 2)

Week of 11/29/13-11/29/13

Safari To The Edge (2113)

A safari into the African jungle can be unpredictable, especially when Jack invites five young explorers to go on this special adventure with him. The setting is the EDGE OF AFRICA at Busch Gardens, where Jack's safari team comes within inches of the African spotted hyenas, spies a hippo and her calf underwater, drives along the veldt to hand feed giraffes and visits an abandoned Masai village where they discover life on the run!

Week of 12/02/13-12/06/13

Texas Livestock (2115)

Jack gets a taste of the old west when he visits the nation's longest running indoor rodeo and livestock show in Fort Worth, Texas. From a calf scramble to milking a prized cow, Jack experiences the flavor and tradition of the pioneer spirit and learns what it really takes to be a cowboy.

Fossil Rim (2116)

Jack discovers a world of animals at Fossil Rim, an animal safari adventure right in the heart of Texas. Along with encountering an impressive array of African animals within reach from his safari truck, Jack discovers how researchers here are involved in groundbreaking studies about rhino reproduction and breeding.

Black Beauty Ranch (2117)

Jack takes us to Black Beauty Ranch for an intimate profile of this unique ranch and the man who inspired its being, author Cleveland Amory. In this sanctuary for injured, unwanted and homeless animals, Jack learns the touching story of how this ranch came to be and how it is thriving. Jack meets some beautiful animals whose stories of survival are remarkable.

Zoo Texas (2118)

Have you ever seen an okapi? Chances are you haven't. This rare animal from Zaire, Africa is one of the last major animals discovered at the turn of the century. It is the cousin of the giraffe and is one of the unique animals Jack encounters during his visit at the Dallas-Ft. Worth Zoo.

Crossbar Ranch (2119)

In Florida, a parcel of land that had once been stripped of its natural bounty is remarkably on the rebound. Jack takes us to Crossbar Ranch, a place that has been reborn and restored in rich abundance. Here Jack discovers wild turkeys, burrowing owls, indigo snakes, deer and many other animals in a setting that is natural and beautiful.

Week of 12/09/13-12/13/13

To The Rescue (2121)

In this adventure, Jack Hanna sets out for southern California where a record number of sea lions pups have beached themselves along the rugged coastline. Could it be El Nino at work?

Jack joins a group of animal care experts from Sea World on a rescue mission along the San Diego shoreline where malnourished pups are saved from certain death. The pups are brought to Sea World for recovery, rehabilitation and ultimately released. Jack helps in the return of eight sea lions back to their wild habitat in the Pacific Ocean.

Air Buddy (2122)

Buddy was a dog like no other, an athlete, a movie star and man's best friend. After his untimely death, the legacy of Buddy still lives on. Jack reminisces about Buddy's accomplishments and travels to southern California to meet the next generation in the Buddy lineage of superstars.

J.J.'s Release (2123)

When a baby gray whale beached herself on the California coastline, her rescue made headlines. When she was released a year later, her return to the wild created a national whale watch. Jack takes us behind the scenes of J.J., the whale's early days of rehabilitation at Sea World to her final seconds before her dramatic release in the Pacific waters.

Hoof'n It (2124)

Because the landscape is so vast and largely inaccessible, spotting Alaskan wildlife is easier said than done. However, while hoof'n it in South Central Alaska, Jack gets a close up view of moose and elk at Big Game Alaska, and later encounters a shaggy legacy from the Ice Age at the world's only Musk Ox farm.

Amazing Animals (2125)

What's so amazing about the two hundred animals in Sid Yost's care? They are part of a special secondary school where students learn what it takes to be an animal trainer. Jack visits with Sid and his students and some of their amazing animals near Orlando, Florida.

Week of 12/16/13-12/20/13

Kenai Connection (2132)

Wings 'N Wolves (2133)

In St. Louis, Jack visits three unique homes for animals. At the Wild Canid Survival Center, researchers are studying endangered wolves. Then at the World Bird Sanctuary, Jack discovers how raptors are winging an educational program to new heights. While at the St. Louis Zoo, children have a zoo of their very own.

Australia Zoo (2134)

In the Land Down Under, Jack visits the home of Steve Irwin, television's "Crocodile Hunter." Formerly known as the Queensland Reptile and Fauna Park, the Zoo is home to scores of mean and nasty crocodiles and some of the world's most poisonous snakes, including the Brown, Fierce and Tiapan. Jack also feeds "Harriet", a 167 year old Galapagos tortoise collected for scientific research in 1835 by Sir Charles Darwin.

JACK HANNA'S ANIMAL ADVENTURES

Monday-Friday

November 29, 2013 – December 31, 2013

Under Down Under (2135)

In the Australian island state of Tasmania, Jack comes face to face with a family of Tasmanian Devils. When it comes to devils, Jack learns the facts and fiction surrounding a very misunderstood animal. At the Trowunna Wildlife Park, Jack also encounters wombats and the unusual Eastern Quoll. In the small town of Mole Creek, Jack learns of a grass roots effort to locate the elusive, if not extinct, Tasmanian Tiger.

What A View Mate (2136)

On a lofty island bordering the South Pacific, Jack joins researchers from Sydney's Taronga Zoo who are studying a colony of Little Penguins, the world's smallest. Later at Taronga, the zoo with a view overlooking beautiful Sydney Harbor, Jack encounters a platypus and other Australian animals. Perhaps Jack's most unique view is a bicycle tour of the free-ranging Western Plains Zoo in Dubbo, highlighted by baby wombats, echidnas and kangaroos.

Week of 12/23/13-12/27/13

Australia's Great Barrier Reef (2138)

Jack ventures into the Coral Sea to scuba dive on Taylor Reef, one of the 2900 reefs that make up Australia's Great Barrier Reef. On his underwater adventure, Jack marvels at corals of all kinds, giant clams and a sea full of tropical fish. Jack journeys to the Great Barrier Reef Aquarium in Townsville to learn more about Australia's underwater wonder from one of the world's leading experts on coral.

Koalas Of The Pilliga (2139)

Jack travels deep into the Pilliga Forest in New South Wales, Australia to take part in a koala tracking project. The project is designed to monitor the health of the koalas in this forested region. Jack helps gather information on the koala's nesting trees and he also assists while some of the koalas are given a medical work-up and then eventually, and carefully released.

Jack talks to the people involved in this undertaking and discovers the tenuous future of these Australian native animals.

Making Waves (2140)

From the Bahamas, Jack takes a look at some of his favorite marine adventures, including face-to-face encounters with sharks, dolphins, sea lions and a variety of whales. Jack also reflects on some special children and their special gifts from the sea.

On The Move (2141)

In pursuit of his animal adventures around the world, Jack has relied on just about every mode of transportation imagined. Submarines, helicopters, dog sleds, covered wagons, camels, elephants, horses, jeeps, planes, boats, airboats, and trains are among Jack's choice of travel. Jack has also logged many a mile the old fashioned way; on foot.

Currumbin Sanctuary (2142)

Along Australia's Gold Coast, Jack explores a zoological park that began as one man's love for native wildlife, especially colorful lorikeet birds. Jack also interacts with sugar gliders, fruit bats, kangaroos, koalas and the Australian possum. A pond full of giant eels chow down on red meat.

Week of 12/30/13-12/31/13

Fraser Island (2144)

In Australia, Jack travels to Fraser Island, the world's largest sand island. Among its unique flora and fauna, the island is home to Australia's purest breed of dingoes. Dingoes are wild dogs that crossed the Asian land bridge into Australia thousands of years ago. Jack's visit to Fraser Island also features a whale watch in the offshore waters of the Pacific Ocean.

Atlantis: Lost and Found (2145)

In the Atlantic Ocean off Nassau in the Bahamas, Jack scuba dives to encounter a sunken Coast Guard cutter teeming with Caribbean Reef Sharks. Then, on nearby Paradise Island, Jack makes an underwater exploration of the Atlantis Resort's rendition of the mythical Lost City. While at Atlantis, the world's largest man-made marine habitat, Jack swims with piranhas.

Episode #601A-R (11/29/13)

Animal Control Patrol Featuring Connie Navarrette Animal Control Officer. This Pets.TV episode features SEACA Animal Control Officer Connie Navarrette. Her job is to protect and save animals in the community who are lost, injured, abused, abandoned and/or homeless. During the show, the viewers ride along with Officer Navarrette as she responds to calls from residents who need assistance with animals they have trapped or caught. A barbershop owner who has caught an opossum shares how impressed he is with SEACA and the education they provide about animals. Adult Opossums that are caught are relocated back into the wild but the four baby opossums rescued during the show will be placed in foster homes until they are old enough to be released. Officer Navarrette shares strategies how to catch a scared Chihuahua so it can be transferred safely back to the shelter. Most domestic animals are brought back to South East Area Animal Control Authority (SEACA) to be scanned for identification, checked out and treated if they are injured. The animals are vaccinated, logged, documented and photographed so owner can go online to find their lost pets or are put up for adoption. A message at the end of the show tells viewers to call their local animal service office if they find a domestic or wild animal roaming in their community. Observation and Conclusion Episode #601A young viewers are exposed to specific knowledge and background information about a unique career in protecting animals. This will inspire and encourage them to follow their passion. This episode of Pets.TV delivers an educational and informational message that supports current social, intellectual and emotional aspects of children ages 13 and up. Attributes and advice emphasized by guests instill a grounded balance of priorities, commitment, and perseverance children can apply to their lives.

Episode #602A-R (12/06/13)

About Dogs! Small Breeds. This edition of Pets.TV focuses on four popular breeds of small dogs. Pet owners and experts of each breed share history, informative facts and health and care considerations about each dog. Viewers see the dogs in action as they learn about personality traits and the ideal home environment. The first small dog breed the audience meets is the Scottish Terrier. They came from Scotland in the late 1800's as a breed to run down foxes. They are well behaved, make a good watchdog and are loyal which makes them a good breed for anyone. Three US presidents have been pet owners of 'Scotties'. The Pug was bred to be a lap dog and status symbol. These mellow and loving dogs are a constant companion and are good with kids and other dogs. The cuddly and lovable Maltese are the oldest dog breed dating back 8,000 years. These small dogs weigh up to 4 pounds and are considered hypoallergenic which make them a good pet for people with allergies. The last small dog breed introduced in the show is the French Bulldog or also known as 'Frenchie'. They are descendants from England but got their name from their popularity in France. They are described as lovable clowns who like to play around. Small breed dog facts between each segment provide young viewers with historical and specific information. Observation and Conclusion Episode #602A is an engaging show that will interest young viewers as they learn about four small dog breeds from passionate pet owners and professionals. This episode of Pets.TV delivers an educational and informational message that supports current social, intellectual and emotional aspects of children ages 13 and up. Episode #603A-R (12/13/13)

Animal Control Patrol Featuring: Esmeralda Barajas – Animal Control Officer Danny Pena – Animal Control Officer. This Pets.TV episode features SEACA Animal Control Officers Esmeralda Barajas and Danny Pena. Their jobs are to protect and rescue domestic and wild animals in the community who are lost, injured, abused, abandoned and/or homeless. The viewers ride along with the Animal Control Officers as they respond to calls to pick up a friendly cat and her kittens, stray dogs, a feral cat and a baby possum. Officer Pena shows the audience the procedure of how to transfer a feral cat from one cage to a relocation cage to be transported. Most animals are brought back to South East Area Animal Control Authority (SEACA) to be scanned to see if they have a microchip so they can be returned to their owners. Unfortunately none of the animals have identification. Officer Barajas highly recommends all pets need personal tags or a microchip so they can be returned to their owners. The animals are logged, documented and photographed so the owner(s) can go online to find their lost pets or are put up for adoption. A message at the end of the show tells viewers to call their local animal service office if they find a domestic or wild animal roaming in their community. Episode #605A-R (12/27/13)

Participants: Katiana Bozzi – co-founder of STAR ECO Station Orion Comstock – Director of Herpetology at ECO Station. In this episode young viewers visit STAR ECO Station , an environmental science museum and wildlife rescue center. Katiana Bozzi, co-founder of STAR ECO Station shares their mission is to teach wildlife preservation through education. She states, "Animals are ambassadors to teach about their country, what are good pets and what should stay in the wild". Orion Comstock, director of herpetology at the station, introduces various exotic and dangerous animals that are common pets but have been rescued from dire situations and provides educational facts about the special physical and emotional care each animal needs. He emphasizes that you must learn the responsibility of keeping a pet from a baby to adult and find out how big and how long it will live before deciding to have it as a pet. ECO Station's mobile museum goes into the community by visiting schools with an educational outreach program. Animal exhibits allow students to interact with exotic and dangerous animals and educates students on animal conservation. Each year over 25,000 people attend ECO Station Earth Day celebration and learn ways to save our planet through environmental education. Observation and Conclusion Episode #605A teaches young viewers that some animals are not meant to be pets. You need to know the responsibility of taking care of exotic or dangerous animals if you are considering them for a pet. THINK BIG

Episode B-113R: Bells and Whistles (Saturday, 11/30/13)

Our host introduces us to Daniel; he's invented a new sound for a smoke alarm. Could it be better than a regular alarm? He'll show his invention at the local fire station and test it with a tough crowd - at a sleepover party. Will he prove his invention works or will the test be a snore? We also meet Scott, and his all-in-one card. While our host gives us do-it-at-home tips on how to make our very own piggybank.

Episode B-114R: Melissa vs. Matthew (Saturday, 12/07/13)

Melissa from Sarnia, Ontario presents her invention a "CPR Training Simulator" designed to help kids learn the proper CPR technique. Matthew from Barrie, Ontario presents "The Algaenator", a device he's invented that uses plant algae to clean car exhaust. Melissa leads Team DaVinci against Matthew and his Team Newton in the Invent-Off Challenge to see who can design the best Safety Bike! But before the big challenge, both teams compete in a mini challenge for a reward. In the Wind n' Wheels mini-challenge, the teams build and race breath powered sports cars. Which team will cross the finish line first? And which Inventor will lead their team to victory in the Safety Bike Invent-off challenge and win the Genius Cup?

Episode B-115R: Jordan vs. Devon (Saturday, 12/14/13)

Jordan from Barrie, Ontario presents his invention "Greener Concrete", a light, energy efficient concrete that he hopes will revolutionize the construction industry. Devon from Winnipeg, Manitoba presents his "Modular Robot". His invention can travel the toughest terrain -- going places humans and cars cannot. Jordan leads Team Edison against Devon and Team Einstein to see who can build the most Radical Recycler. But before the big Invent-Off challenge, both teams must compete in a mini-challenge for a reward. In the Water Balloon Launcher mini challenge, the teams build launchers and launch water balloons at targets. Which team will accumulate the most points? And which Inventor will come out on top in the Radical Recycler Invent-off and lead his team to win the Genius Cup?

Episode B-116R: Tyler vs. Brian (Saturday, 12/21/13)

Brian from Hanna, Alberta presents the "Safe-D-Pet Monitor" a device that monitors pets in parked vehicles. Tyler, from Sudbury, Ontario presents the "E-Z Glide Sliding Rail Anchor" a safety device that keeps rail workers safe while they repair train tracks on bridges. Excitement mounts as Tyler and Team Einstein square off against Brian and Team Edison to design and build a motorized Robo Artist in the big Invent-off Challenge. But first, the teams compete to build a Mighty Bridge in the mini challenge. The winner gains an advantage over the other team in the Invent Off. Whose bridge will go the distance? And which Inventor will build the best Robo Artist in the Invent-Off and win the Genius Cup?

Episode B-117R: Isabella and Riley vs. Connor and Spencer (Saturday, 12/28/13)

Isabella and Riley from Canmore, Alberta present their "Compawst Bin" a rugged compost bin designed to keep bears out. Connor and Spencer from Sudbury, Ontario present their new "Biodegradable Plastic". They hope their invention will help reduce the number of plastic grocery bags in landfill sites. Riley and Isabella lead Team Edison against Spencer, Connor and Team Einstein in the Invent-Off Challenge to see who can create the best Pet Habitat. But first, each team must compete to build a UFO in the mini challenge. The team that builds the UFO that stays in the air the longest wins an advantage for the big Invent Off. The Genius Cup is at stake! Which pair of inventors will lead their team to victory in the Pet Habitat Invent-Off and take the prize?

CAREER DAY

Saturday

November 30, 2013 – December 28, 2013

Episode #401R (11/30/13)

Careers: NASA Videographer Lori Losey, MARS Rover Engineer Issa Nesnas, JPL Visualization Producer Doug Ellison, & NASA Astrophysicist Dr. Eric Becklin. In this episode of Top NASA Careers, four experts discuss their professions at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. NASA videographer Lori Losey job is physically demanding as she videotapes aircraft activity and flight test programs while flying in the backseat of a jet. She recently had the privilege of video taping Endeavor's last flight around the U.S. before it's last landing in LA. She has a background of video production, photography and imaginary. She shares the best part of her job is working with aviation icons and recording aviation milestones for NASA. As a MARS Rover Engineer at JPL (Jet Propulsion Laboratory), Issa Nesnas is part of the team that built the twin rovers Spirit and Opportunity that transmit information and images from MARS. He shares that it takes years of work and millions of dollars to send robots into space. With several college degrees, he states, 'learning hands on skills helps understand how things get done and how they work'. JPL Visualization Producer Doug Ellison uses advance animation and graphics to explain engineering and scientific information so people can understand what is happening in space. His advice to the viewers, 'find the place at what you are good at and what you like meet – it makes getting up and going to work a thrill'. NASA Astrophysicist Dr. Eric Becklin is a famous astronomer who shares that his job is to look out into the universe to understand how things are and how they were formed. He currently is working on a project that utilizes astronomy and aviation by placing the largest airborne telescope on an aircraft for closer observations of the universe. Dr. Becklin tells the viewers he uses astronomy, physics and math in his career as he makes fundamental discoveries. Observation and Conclusion In episode #401, young adults who are interested in astronomy, aviation, and exploring air and space will be inspired by these talented experts who work for NASA as they share their passion, work, education/training, and experiences that prepared them for their career. Each segment of Career Day delivers an educational and informational message that supports current social, intellectual and emotional aspects of children ages 13 and up. Attributes and advice emphasized by guests instill a grounded balance of priorities, dedication, and perseverance children can apply to their lives.

Episode #402R (12/07/13)

Careers: Chocolatier Jonathan Graham, Culinary Artist Maite Gomez-Rejon, Executive Chef/Instructor Martin Gilligan, Caterer Abi Chilton, Catering Owner & Cake Decorator Elin Katz. In this episode of Career Day, viewers meet creative and passionate professionals who love what they do for an 'edible career'. Jonathan Graham is a chocolatier who owns the oldest chocolate factory that still makes everything by hand. The factory makes over 200 varieties of candy reflecting his favorite things and making them an edible expression of art. Culinary Artist Maite Gomez - Rejon is an artist, chef and teacher who combines art and food history with hands on cooking. At her Mommy and Me classes, children listen to a book, cook food that is inspired by the story, do an art activity and then have lunch. Her mission is to educate and satisfy people's senses and entertain. Sur le Table executive Chef/instructor Martin Gilligan bases his career on creativity, innovation, discipline, determination and direction. He has cooked for presidents, heads of state, sports and movie stars. He shares that this delicious career requires good math and language skills.
