Tuesday, April 6th is election day for the Alton School Board and having been a parent in the school district for the last 21 years, Cary Kinder feels like this is an opportunity to remain involved and a chance to make a positive impact on the district. Some of her goals include making sure every student is on a path to graduate and be educationally equipped to lead a successful life. To pursue financial policies which will provide an outstanding return on the community's investment in our school. To develop a sense of happiness and moral value in students and faculty as a result of their interaction with the school district and to provide highly competitive pay for classroom teachers. Please remain involved and cast your vote on April 6th.
