Statement of Supplemental EEO Outreach Activities:

a) Initiative : Participation in a Job Fair

On May 17, 2012, Blueberry Broadcasting LLC participated in the 15th annual Career & Resource Fair at the Spectacular Event Center in Bangor. Our participation was to help educate attendees on job opportunities in broadcasting and with Blueberry Broadcasting's two employment units. The fair was attended by a Blueberry Broadcasting Program Manager and the Director of Programming & Operations.

On October 11, 2012 Blueberry Broadcasting LLC participated in the 15th Annual Fall Job Fair at the Maine Army National Guard Flight Facility. Our participation was to help educate attendees on job opportunities in broadcasting and with Blueberry Broadcasting's two employment units. The fair was attended by a Blueberry Broadcasting Program Manager, a female morning show announcer and the Director of Programming & Operations.

b) Initiative: Participation in a Program Sponsored by Educational Institutions:

On February 10, 2012, a Blueberry Broadcasting LLC Production Manager spoke to a group of students at the New England School of Communications about production procedures, the on-air aspects of radio production, the creative process and on-air duties.

On May 30, 2012, a Blueberry Broadcasting Program Director spent the morning at United Technologies Center. He gave radio presentations to five different groups of 8th graders. It was part of their 18th Annual Career Fair.

On July 31, 2012 a Blueberry Broadcasting LLC Operations Manager hosted a tour of nine high school students who attended the New England School of Communications Media Camp. All students were interested in a possible future in broadcasting. They discussed the Blueberry properties, and formats. There was a discussion about talk radio and sports broadcasting as well as the music formats. The students received a tour of the production studio and a tutorial from a Production Director. She showed them how she produces everything from a simple single track commercial to a complex multi voice commercial requiring many elements.

On October 26, 2012 a Blueberry Broadcasting LLC Production Director visited with a Production related class at the New England School of Communications and gave the students tips and tricks as it relates to Production. She also offered helpful ways to give clients what they want and discussed how she got into her career. She explained multi-tasking and organizational skills and how they play a large part of Production. She discussed the student's plans after graduation and offered advice on how to attain their dreams. She also suggested that the students keep a steady stream of their original material available as a resource for others that may be looking to use their talents.

On November 8, 2012, Blueberry Broadcasting LLC Vice President & Chief Operating Officer spoke to a broadcast class at the New England School of Communications. The topics of discussion included radio in general and specifically radio sales.

On November 12, 2012 a Blueberry Broadcasting LLC Operations Manager/Program Director spoke to a broadcast class at the New England School of Communications. The topics of discussion included the production of news and sports shows and events. They discussed the similarities as well as differences. They also discussed common mistakes made by a board operator or producer and how to overcome them.

- c) Initiative: Internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcasting employment.

From May 20, 2012 to August 16, 2012 a student from Norwich University participated in the Blueberry Broadcasting internship program under the guidance of the local Operations Manager. The intern program gives students an inside look at all aspects of the operation. The student had an interest in gathering a better understanding of our production procedures and services. The school requirement for interns is 120 hours which he exceeded

- d) Initiative: Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunities and preventing discrimination.

On October 25, 2012, Blueberry Broadcasting conducted a training session to management level personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions. This session also included disseminating information regarding all vacancies, recruitment sources, internal record keeping, applications, interviewees and referral sources. This training session was attended by the VP/COO, Director of Sales & the Director of Programming & Operations.

- e) Initiative: Establishment of training programs and mentoring programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

Blueberry Broadcasting LLC established training and mentoring programs for the staff. Both programs enable an employee to acquire skills that could qualify them for a higher level position within the organization. The program is individualized and the training and mentoring is designed to fit the needs and desires of the employee and is on-going.

f) Participation in other activities (Menu option # 16)

Blueberry Broadcasting LLC airs fifteen second public service announcements for community organizations to further the goal of disseminating information as to employment opportunities. These announcements air a minimum of once per day on all Blueberry Broadcasting stations.
