Hi Kim,

In December 2022, I served as Guest Speaker for the Urban Leagues of Detroit & Southeastern Michigan Guild Gala.

In April 2023, I was a Guest Speaker for Commencement night at Gesu Catholic High School, Detroit
I hope this helps! Thank you Kim

- Contact person's phone number and email address

Please note – talking points/scripts (with information on how to pronounce names) are required THREE DAYS IN ADVANCE OF THE EVENT.

Notes about talent appearances:

Publicity materials supplied by FOX 2 are only to be used in conjunction with this specific confirmed event. All other use of logos, photos etc. is prohibited.

This appearance is a non-broadcast appearance and does not guarantee news coverage.

All talent appearances are done as a public service. There is no charge.

On the rare occasion that a major breaking news event occurs, it could take priority over any talent appearances.

Perfect, they have a new coordinator of the event, so I will reach out to her and let her know you're locked in and just need any details, speaking points etc, a few days before the event.

They did send some event info that you may find helpful:
This year it will be at Emagine Theatre Royal Oak (200 North Main Street, Royal Oak, MI 48067) on Wednesday, May 10, 2023 doors open and strolling dinner begins at 5:30 pm the award presentations will begin promptly at 7:00 pm and are expected to run until 8:30.

I have it as Wednesday May 10th - It's the scholarship competition for kids that Huel used to always do - where they produce a commercial about the dangers of underage drinking etc.

We will shoot a PSA congratulating the winners after the event. I think Greg had mentioned you were the emcee but I wanted to make sure you knew that lol. Sometimes things don't get communicated as they should in our communications business!

Fox Television Stations, LLC

To: All Employees
From: Jack Abernethy
Date: July 1, 2022
Subject: Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

Our continuing support of the principles and objectives of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action are the key elements within our business philosophy. We are committed to complying with both letter and spirit of the law in implementing equal opportunity for all individuals.

In keeping with this policy, our stations will continue to recruit, hire, train and promote the most qualified individuals without regard to race, color, age, sex (including gender identity and expression), religion, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status, national origin, genetic information, or disability. Similarly, all other personnel matters, including compensation, benefits, transfers, promotions, company-sponsored training, tuition assistance and social and recreational programs will continue to be administered to ensure that we fulfill our commitments to equal opportunity.

The progress our company makes in providing equal opportunity and advancement opportunities for women and minorities will be measured on a continuous basis. To ensure that we achieve our commitments in this vital area, all employees must share in the responsibility of improving our equal opportunity posture. Members of our management team are expected to identify problems within their areas related to minority and female employment and provide innovative leadership which will contribute to the achievement of our objective. Managers have an additional responsibility to recognize individual talent and identify those employees who have the potential to advance to positions of increased responsibility.

I have designated Jean C. Fuentes, Senior VP of Human Resources, as having overall responsibility for coordinating this important program. She can be contacted at (212) 301-5530. Your support of the stations' objectives in this area is essential for creating a workplace that recognizes the dignity and merit of each individual and fosters the principles of equal opportunity.

MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITY

Jack Abernethy, chief executive officer of Fox Television Stations, LLC (“FTS”), has the overall responsibility for the implementation of the Company’s equal opportunity policy. He has assigned coordination responsibilities and day-to-day management of this important function to Jean C. Fuentes, Senior Vice President of Human Resources for FTS, who has the full support of executive management.

A. Duties of the Senior Vice President of Human Resources

The duties of Senior Vice President of Human Resources in coordination with the station general manager and station human resources director include:

1. Developing policy statements and internal and external techniques for communication of WJBK Equal Employment Opportunity (“EEO”) policy.
2. Identifying and correcting EEO problem areas.
3. Assisting management and supervisors in arriving at solutions to problems related to EEO and employee conflict resolution issues.
4. Designing and implementing auditing and reporting systems that:
 - a. Measure the effectiveness of the EEO programs;
 - b. Indicate any need for remedial action; and
 - c. Determine the degree to which the Company’s goals and objectives are being carried out.
5. Assist WJBK with enforcement agencies when required.
6. Partner with the station and minority organizations, women’s organizations, and community groups regarding employment opportunities for women, minorities, people who are disabled and veterans. For example, FTS is a corporate sponsor of the Emma L. Bowen Foundation and one of the Company’s executives is on the Foundation’s Board. The non-profit’s mission is to create career opportunities for minority youth through a program that focuses on scholastic achievement, direct work experience and professional development. The Stations participate in multi-year targeted work study scholarship program for high school through college year students, many of which go on to begin full time employment at the companies where they interned.

7. Keeping management informed of the latest developments in the EEO area.
8. Regular meetings with Stations' Human Resources Directors to ensure that the Company's EEO policies are being followed.
9. Informing all managers that they have a shared responsibility in ensuring compliance with both the letter and spirit of the law in implementing equal opportunity.

B. Duties of Line Management

The duties of Line Management include:

1. Assisting the Senior Vice Presidents of Human Resources in the identification of problem areas and in the establishment of applicable organizational unit goals and objectives.
2. Assisting in the establishment of only job-related criteria for selection for hire, promotion, transfer, training, and all other employment opportunities.
3. Reviewing the qualifications of all employees to ensure that minorities, women, people who are disabled, and veterans are given equal opportunities for transfers and promotions.
4. Providing career counseling for all employees upon request.
5. Performing periodic internal self-evaluation audits to ensure that:
 - a. EEO posters and Company policy statements are properly displayed and up-to-date;
 - b. All facilities which WJBK maintains for the use and benefit of its employees are, in fact, desegregated, both in policy and in use, and that facilities such as restrooms are comparable for both genders; and
 - c. All employees including minorities, females, people who are disabled, and veterans are encouraged to participate in all Company-sponsored educational, training, recreational, and social activities.
6. Preventing harassment of employees on the basis of race, color, age, religion, gender, or national origin, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status or disability.
7. Understanding that they have a shared responsibility in ensuring compliance with both the letter and spirit of the law in implementing equal opportunity.

ANALYZING EFFECTIVENESS OF EEO PRACTICES

Review of Policies and Practices: As part of the employment unit's ongoing, self-evaluation and corporate auditing, a thorough analysis of the following human resource matters was conducted.

- Composition of applicant flow data by minority group status and sex. We maintain data on all applicants. Applicants of known race, ethnicity and gender are those that either a) complete a voluntary self-identification form or b) are visually identified during the interview. Records are kept for each selection decision, if any, for which the applicant was considered. This allows us to complete required analyses, by job title, of the selection rates of minorities, by minority sub-group, and by gender. These data and analyses are not utilized as part of a formal affirmative action program, but they are collected and performed at least annually to assist Human Resources personnel in evaluating the efficacy of the employment unit's EEO program.

Further, WJBK's Human Resources Director and corporate Human Resources Department regularly reviews the demographic make-up of the employment unit's employees, and compares the results with the racial, ethnic and gender composition of the Detroit DMA workforce. This exercise provides an ongoing, objective measure as to whether the employment unit's recruitment efforts are effective in attracting a diverse pool of candidates. To date, the employment unit's demographic make-up consistently has compared favorably with the racial, ethnic and gender composition of the Detroit DMA workforce, indicating that the employment unit's recruitment efforts have been successful.

- The overall selection process, including position descriptions, position titles, position specifications, application forms, job posting procedures, referral procedures, final selection process, and similar factors.
 - Whenever WJBK recruits for a job vacancy, the position specifications are thoroughly reviewed to ensure that they are accurate, job-related, and non-discriminatory. Similarly, WJBK does not "grade" or "classify" jobs in accordance with any "point" system or similar method/process. The station's compensation ranges are pegged to the market, with education, experience, service and – primarily – job performance as additional, non-biased factors in establishing individual compensation.
 - There are no titles that could be perceived as evidencing a preference for one gender or another.
 - WJBK's employment application form and its employment advertisements contain appropriate EEO language in compliance with Federal regulations.

- Transfer and promotion practices. Employees may apply for opportunities which are posted in accordance with the Company's posting policy. These opportunities may involve lateral transfer, promotion with or without change in work location, or even demotion if this is the desire of the internal applicant. All employees, including women and minorities, are encouraged to take advantage of the opportunity to apply. Selections are solely made on the basis of knowledge, skills, abilities, and experience.
- Facilities, company-sponsored recreation and social events. There are no segregated facilities at WJBK. Company-sponsored recreation and social events are open to all employees.
- Company Training and Apprenticeship programs. All selections for training are based first on company need and then on the basis of the employee's needs, readiness, experience, seniority, etc. Selections are made without regard to race, color, age, religion, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status or disability.
- WJBK has not discovered any evidence that seniority practices contribute to any disparities based on race or gender.
- Attitude of workforce managers and supervisors. There is, has been, and will continue to be an ongoing effort on the part of WJBK to develop and communicate a positive attitude toward its EEO policies.

REPORTING AND INTERNAL AUDIT SYSTEMS

FTS's Senior Vice President of Human Resources, in coordination with the local employment unit General Manager and Human Resources Department are responsible for the design and implementation of the internal self-evaluation auditing and reporting system. They monitor personnel transactions on at least a quarterly basis. The reporting and monitoring system provides for:

- Maintaining accurate records on the race/national origin and gender of applicants, hires, internal selections (promotion, demotion, or transfer), and terminations.
- Reviewing all selection, promotion, and training procedures to ensure that they are non-discriminatory.

WJBK
Exhibit D
Self Evaluation

- Monitoring selection and providing feedback to selecting officials on numbers of opportunities and numbers/percentage of selections of minorities and women.
- Informing top management, on a regular basis, about the effectiveness of the EEO policy and recommendations for improvements, if any.

ANALYSIS OF EMPLOYMENT ACTIONS

WJBK's Human Resources Director is involved throughout the recruitment, interview, and hiring processes to ensure that Fox Television Stations, LLC's ("FTS") EEO policies are continuously carried out. The Human Resources Director is involved in every disciplinary action, from verbal warnings up to and including terminations, and all involuntary terminations must be approved by the SVP of Human Resources to ensure that all personnel matters are administered to fulfill the Company's commitment to equal employment opportunities. Corporate Human Resources personnel are available at all times as well, for consultation should any questions arise.

TIME OFF & OTHER BENEFITS

Benefits, including holidays, floating holidays, sick leave and leave for other reasons, education reimbursement, as well as standards of conduct and work rules, are applied to all FTS employees on a standardized basis in accordance with written policies or the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

WAGE/SALARY COMPENSATION

All employees who do not have personal services contracts (which set salary levels and increases) or are covered by collective bargaining agreements are subject to annual written performance appraisals by their supervisors. These performance appraisals are initiated and evaluated by the Human Resources Department, which ensures uniformity in standards of evaluation. Periodic (generally annual) salary increases are based upon performance appraisal ratings and budgetary considerations. All proposed salary increases are approved in advance, not only by the relevant Department head, but also by the corporate Human Resources Department and corporate Finance Management. This policy is designed to ensure uniformity in salary administration. In accordance with Company guidelines and directives, WJBK operates under a system where all applicable employees are evaluated, and merit increases reviewed, at the beginning of each fiscal year. Synchronizing the annual evaluation/salary review process allows for additional analysis and review.

FOX FACTS EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

All staff employees are provided with, and must acknowledge receipt of, the Fox Facts Employee Handbook. The employee handbook, which is issued upon employment commencement, provides general information about some of the Company's rules and policies and communicates broad internal guidelines. Specific policies are disseminated when revisions are required.

PROBLEMS/COMPLAINTS

WJBK's Human Resources Department has an open door policy, so that any employee has a place to bring any work-related grievance at any time. Employees also are advised that, if they feel uncomfortable going to the station's Human Resources Department for any reason, they may bring their concerns directly to corporate Human Resources personnel (and this has occurred several times in the past). Not only are corporate Human Resources managers available to assist, the expertise of the FTS in-house Legal Department in personnel matters can be and in fact is drawn on whenever necessary.

ALERTLINE

Fox has a Company-wide Alertline and Alertline Website, which are available to assist all employees as well as vendors, suppliers, customers and others, when reporting any perceived violation of Company policy and foreign, federal, state and local laws or regulations. The Alertline and Alertline Website are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Employees were notified of the existence of the Alertline and Alertline Website through the distribution of the Standards of Business Conduct. The Standards of Business Conduct are updated and distributed Company-wide periodically. In addition, all newly-hired employees receive a copy of the Standards of Business Conduct.

WORKDAY LEARNING

Fox Corporation, FTS's parent company, has a company-wide global on-line learning initiative to instill and uphold corporate policies and practices across all Fox Corporation's businesses around the globe. The introduction of Workday Learning, to include Fox's standard of business helps ensure that employees are educated and equipped with a solid understanding of the complexities inherent in modern business ethics. The on-line training takes employees through different scenarios that they might encounter and helps better illustrate how to evaluate unforeseen issues and confidently choose the appropriate actions for different situations. All current and new employees are required to complete the training.
