- 05/09/10      “Homegrown Terror” - a report on the incidence of American citizens who have traveled abroad for terrorist training by al Qaeda and their surrogates in order to attack America or its allies. Among those cited and profiled are Faisal Shahzad, who attempted to detonate a car bomb in Times Square; Najibullah Zazi; Omar Hammami; Adam Gadahn. Includes interviews with: Raymond Kelly, New York City police commissioner; Art Folsom, lawyer for accused terrorist Najibullah Zazi; Philip Mudd, former senior intelligence advisor to the FBI; Abdirizak Bihi, community activist with Muslims in Minneapolis; Sheikh Abdirahman Sheikh Omar Ahmed, imam of the Abubakar As-Saddique Islamic Center, Minneapolis; Stevan Weine, professor, University of Illinois. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court, Ira Rosen)
- “The Secretary of State” - an interview with Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton, conducted over the past six months at various world locales as she engaged in diplomatic conversations and performed the duties of her office. Among the topics discussed are the global threat of terrorism, U.S. relations with Pakistan, and women’s rights as a personal foreign policy priority. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster)
- “Walking Away” - a report on the growing phenomenon of ‘strategic default’ -- the situation that occurs when a homeowner, who actually can afford to continue his mortgage payments, decides to simply walk away from the house, because it is now worth as little as half of what he originally paid for it. Includes interviews with Arizona homeowners Chris and Dana Deaner; Jane Ellen Schoolick and Danny Kuene; and Thomas Hansen. Also includes interviews with David Stevens, commissioner, Federal Housing Administration; Chad Ruyle, co-founder, youwalkaway.com; Brent White, law professor, University of Arizona. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin Curran, Katy Textor)
- Andy Rooney Topic: “Who Is Lady Gaga?” - Andy thinks of himself as a normal American, but wonders why he’s never heard of most of the current popular musical performers.
- 05/16/10      “The Blowout” - an investigation into the causes of the explosion of the Deepwater Horizon oil drilling rig in the Gulf of Mexico on April 20th, resulting in an ongoing oil leak into the waters off of Louisiana. Discussed are the roles and responsibilities of the companies involved: Transocean, owner of the rig; BP, owner of the well; and Halliburton, a subcontractor. Featured is an interview with Mike Williams, the chief electronics technician on the rig. Also interviewed are: Dr. Robert Bea, professor of engineering, University of California, Berkeley; and Ken Abbott, a former BP employee. Also includes comments from Wesley Borg and Albert Andry who, with their friends Dustin King and Ryan Chaisson, were in a fishing boat directly under the Deepwater Horizon. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick, Solly Granatstein) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
- “Gustavo Dudamel” - an interview and profile of Gustavo Dudamel, the twenty-nine year old conductor from Venezuela who is the new music director of the Los Angeles Philharmonic. He discusses his implementation in the U.S. of “The System” (El Sistema), a free social program for children that uses classical music to impart discipline and teamwork, as well as orchestral musical skills. Also includes comments by Gretchen Nielsen, the L.A. Philharmonic’s education director, who runs YOLA (the Youth Orchestra of Los Angeles); Marin Alsop, conductor, Baltimore Symphony Orchestra; Dan Trahey, director of the Orchestra Kids (OrchKids) program of the Baltimore Symphony; DeShane Parker, single mother with three children in the Baltimore program. (C: Bob Simon - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

05/01/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “A Killer Defense” - a report on the 2007 murder of Jennifer Turner, married but separated from North Carolina dentist, Dr. Kirk Turner, due to his infidelities with the family banker, Tondja Colvin. Kirk and Jennifer still maintained a lucrative horse farm, but Jennifer had filed for divorce and also brought an alienation of affection suit against Tondja. Their separation also divided the family: daughter Wendy sided with her mother and son Richie chose to live with his father. Jennifer refused Kirk’s requests to drop the lawsuit against Tondja and the separation soon became acrimonious. Jennifer feared for her life. On the night of September 12th, Greg Smithson, a family friend who had also done work at the horse farm, asked Jennifer if he could pick up some equipment and bring Kirk along to help. Jennifer agreed. All three of them went to a shed on the property to load equipment. When the conversation between Jennifer and Kirk became personal, Greg excused himself. Soon after, Greg heard screams from the shed. He found Kirk stabbed in the leg by a seven-foot-long decorative spear and Jennifer motionless on the floor. 911 instructed Greg to perform CPR on Jennifer, but she died, having been nearly decapitated. Prosecutors believed that Kirk intended to kill Jennifer and staged the spear attack. Kirk claimed that Jennifer became enraged when he presented an affidavit from her ex-husband, claiming that her first marriage nearly twenty-five years earlier had failed because of her obsessive love of horses and alleging that she had been unfaithful -- and used his pocket knife to defend himself only after she attacked. He was put on trial for first degree murder, with Smithson’s testimony playing a key role for both sides. Prosecutors rebuked his testimony and doubted that he had performed CPR on Jennifer. After testimony from a forensic scientist and Kirk himself, the jury found Kirk Turner not guilty by reason of self defense. Wendy still maintains her father’s guilt. Onscreen text graphic: Jennifer’s sister filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Kirk Turner, which was settled out of court. Wendy and Richie are the beneficiaries. Kirk Turner and Tondja Colvin are still together. Interviewed: Wendy and Richie Turner, children of Jennifer and Kirk; Susan Doran, Linda Ernst, Anne Gould, and Tara Whittaker, Jennifer’s friends; Greg Smithson, friend of Jennifer and Kirk; Joe Cheshire and Brad Bannon, Kirk’s attorneys; Greg Brown, prosecutor; Rob Taylor, prosecutor; Johnny Marks, lead investigator for the prosecution; and unidentified members of the jury. 05/08/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY – “Shelley’s Last Breath” - an investigation into the 1999 scuba diving death of Shelley Tyre while on vacation on the Caribbean isle of Tortola. Police questioned her husband and dive partner David Swain about every detail of the dive; autopsy results were inconclusive. Shelley, a school principal who, in the early 1990s, had met and married David Swain, a divorced father of two, who ran a dive shop, was an adventurous woman who couldn’t care less about money. Her parents insisted on a pre-nuptial agreement and David Swain agreed he would receive no money if they divorced. With her death, he collected more than $600,000 from her estate. What her parents could not understand was Swain’s lack of emotion regarding Shelley’s death. He explained that he didn’t know had happened to Shelley during the dive. Although divers are supposed to swim in pairs, she was diving alone – he had gone elsewhere in the water. One year after her death, her parents hired an attorney and sent him and his team of experts to Tortola to investigate. After several months, they uncovered evidence which they believed proved David Swain was lying. 48 HOURS hired an underwater forensic expert to examine the evidence; he also concluded that it was much more than a diving accident. Her parents believed that Shelley’s decision to change jobs and take a substantial pay cut may have been the motive for murder. In 2006, they sued David Swain in civil court for wrongful death and won. Armed with this, the Tyres persuaded the authorities in Tortola to re-open the case: island prosecutors charged Swain with the murder of his wife. Ten years after Shelley’s death and after two years in a Tortola prison, the trial began. Certain information about David Swain became public during the trial – his father had been convicted of sexual abuse and sent to prison. His mother was bludgeoned to death by his brother, Richard. This information, along with testimony from his children and ex-wife was used to explain his behavior. In the end, David Swain was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen graphics: David Swain plans to appeal on the grounds that defense experts were not allowed to testify. He is eligible for parole in 2032, when he will be 76 years old. Interviewed: David Swain; Jen Bloom and Jeremy Swain, David’s children; Richard and Lisa Tyre, Shelley’s parents; Don Badger, Shelley’s co-worker; John Langella, David’s friend and fellow scuba instructor; Sandy Wheeler, David’s ex-wife; Jeff Morgan, San Bernardino, California Sheriff’s Department; Keith Royle, dive boat captain; Bill Oliver, scuba gear designer; Neil Tassel and Tim Bradl, David’s defense attorneys; Jim Erickson, former Minneapolis assistant district attorney; Hayden St. Clair Douglas, local counsel working with David’s defense team. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 05/15/10      48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Betting Her Life” - a followup to ‘Right or Wrong’ (OAD: 04/24/04, updated 01/01/08) - the story of Susan Wright, a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas who stabbed her husband, Jeff, 193 times. She claims she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on January 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Six years have passed and now, attorney Brian Wice has taken on her case, believing Susan Wright deserves a new sentencing hearing, because, he argues, prosecutor Kelly Siegler chose to inflame rather than inform the jury, and that Wright’s original lawyers should have called more witnesses, including experts on battered women. He also has a new witness - Misty McMichael, ex-wife of former NFL star Steve McMichael, and who herself, was once engaged to Jeff Wright. Though she and Susan have never met, her story is very similar: both were topless dancers, she says she was abused by Jeff Wright, but she filed a police report and left him. Misty McMichael testifies and is a difficult witness on the stand but Judge Wallace orders a new sentencing hearing. This is not to determine Susan’s guilt, but to see if she might be given a sentence other than the 25 years she is now serving. The hearing is expected to be held in the fall of 2010. Onscreen graphic: Susan Wright’s children, Bradley and Kaily, are now 11 and 8. They were adopted by Jeff’s brother. Her new sentencing hearing is expected in the fall. Interviewed: Susan Wright; Cindy Stewart, Susan’s sister; Ron Wright, Jeff’s father; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; medical examiner Dwayne Wolf; Attorney Brian Wice; Judge Jim Wallace; Dr. Jerome Brown, an expert on battered women; Misty McMichael. - 05/22/10      48 HOURS MYSTERY - “Deep Secret” (9:00-10:00p) - On June 21, 1977, eighteen-year-old Jeffrey Klee of Coral Springs, Florida, went out drinking with his best friend, David Cusanelli -- and never returned home. When police questioned Cusanelli, he told them that Jeff had dropped him off and then had headed home himself that night. Eventually investigators assumed that Jeff had run away. Thirty years passed. Then, in 2008, Klee’s van was discovered in a Coral Springs canal which was being dredged for stolen vehicles. It contained Klee’s skeletal remains and some personal possessions. Just two weeks prior to this discovery, Danna Holmes, a Coral Springs resident, told police that, in the year 2000, an inebriated man in a Coral Springs bar told her that he had accidentally killed his best friend. When she was shown a photo lineup to identify that man, she picked out David Cusanelli. Police interrogation of Cusanelli and his brother Carl eventually elicited the admission that David Cusanelli had gotten into a fight with Klee over Ginny Healy Spence, and that Klee had sustained an accidental injury to his head and died -- after which the Cusanellis pushed the van, containing Klee’s body, into the canal. Because there is no evidence to suggest homicide, no charges were made against the Cusanellis. Also, according to 1977 Florida law, there was then a three year statute of limitations for manslaughter charges. The Klees cannot even sue in civil court for wrongful death -- the statute of limitations has also run out on that. The Florida legislature recently defeated a proposal to eliminate the statute of limitations in wrongful death cases. Onscreen graphic update: Last week Florida enacted the Jeffrey Klee Memorial Act, a law eliminating the statute of limitations for wrongful death claims. The Klee family cannot sue anyone for wrongful death because the new law is not retroactive. Includes interviews with: Ginny Healy Spence, Jeff Klee’s girlfriend; Bob Vernon, retired Coral Springs police detective; Flossie Klee, mother of Jeff Klee; Jeff’s sisters Laurel Klee (Steele), Cyndy Klee, and DeeDee Klee; Danna Holmes, Coral Springs resident; Dave Weissman, Coral Springs detective; Mitch Polay, lawyer for the Cusanelli brothers; Shari Tate Jenkins, Florida State Assistant Attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 05/22/10      48 HOURS MYSTERY: “One of Their Own” (10:00-11:00p) - a report about how and why decorated female Los Angeles Police Detective Stephanie Lazarus was charged with the 1986 murder of Sherri Mae Rasmussen. The victim, newly married to John Ruetten, Lazarus' ex-boyfriend, was attacked, beaten and shot to death in her Los Angeles home. Police pursued a robbery motive, even though the only things missing were her car and her marriage certificate. For more than two decades, her father, Nels Rasmussen, has been on a frustrating quest to find out the truth about his daughter's murder. Believing that Sherri's husband, John Ruetten, was not involved, he says he has tried many times to get the police to focus on John's ex-girlfriend Stephanie Lazarus. Sherri had told her family that Stephanie was still obsessed with John and believed that Sherri had stolen John away from her. Recently, the LAPD cold case squad quietly re-opened the case. A piece of evidence -- a saliva sample taken from a bite mark on Sherri's arm -- was sent to a DNA lab. The results indicated that it belonged to a woman, and led police to suspect one of their own: Stephanie Lazarus. Finally Nels Rasmussen felt that police were listening to him. Detectives trailed Stephanie Lazarus to obtain a DNA sample and the results were stunning: the DNA from Sherri's bite mark and that of Stephanie Lazarus matched. In a covert operation, a team planned her arrest and in June 2009, Lazarus was charged with first-degree murder. Her trial is expected to begin shortly. Onscreen text graphic: If convicted, Stephanie Lazarus could face life in prison. A judge ruled out the death penalty. Interviewed: Andrew Blankstein and Joel Rubin; Sherri's sister Teresa; Nels and Loretta Rasmussen, Sherri's parents; Jayne Goldberg, Peggy Crabtree, Sherri's friends; Mark Overland, Lazarus' attorney; John Taylor, the Rasmussen's attorney; Alan Tarsky, Sherri's neighbor; Burt Luper, a retired LAPD detective who is now on Lazarus' defense team; Steven Lazarus, Stephanie's brother. - 05/29/10      48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Blood and Money On Horseshoe Bay” (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the November 2005 murder of Charlie White, a larger-than-life Texas millionaire who lived a lavish lifestyle in Horseshoe Bay, Texas. When police were called to White's lakeside mansion, they found his body, which had been brutally beaten, with an extension cord wrapped around his neck several times. By first impression, White was a very likeable person, but as police investigated his murder, a darker image of White emerged -- one of a cruel man with a dangerous mean streak sharpened by arrogance, alcohol, and women. With an unbridled passion for the fairer sex, White bedded and rated the sexual prowess of over a thousand women, including strippers, prostitutes, and even the girlfriends of his own son Darin, who Charlie used to pick up women to fulfill his needs. As the murder investigation unfolded, police focused on the troubled relationship between father and son and soon settled on Darin as the main suspect. When Darin voluntarily came in for questioning, he admitted to being with Charlie the night he died. Darin claimed that after a trip to Wal-Mart, they returned home, where he and his father got into an argument that turned dangerously violent -- Darin believed that his father was going to kill him. After Darin beat and choked his father, he went upstairs to bed and the next morning, drove to his mother's house in New Mexico. But the Texas Rangers didn't buy Darin's story and found no evidence to show that 73-year-old Charlie put up a fight at all. Arrested for his father's murder, prosecutors maintained that it was a case of premeditated murder. But Darin's attorney, Eddie Shell, maintained that it was a misdemeanor murder and a crime of sudden passion, which carries a much lighter sentence. Shell believed that Darin exploded and killed his father in a fit of rage -- one that was brought on by years of torment and physical abuse. In the end, the jury sentenced Darin White to twenty years confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Institutional Division for the murder of his father, Charlie White. Darin will be eligible for parole in ten years. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Jay Young, Jenna Jackson) (OAD: 11/01/08)

05/29/10      48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Black Wave" (10:00-11:00p) - In June 2005, John and Jean Silverwood of San Diego, California, along with their four children, were sailing around the world in their 55-foot catamaran when they struck a hidden reef. A massive wave then forced the 2,500 pound mast to fall on John Silverwood, pinning him to the deck and cutting right through his leg. Through the resourcefulness of his son, Ben, and his wife, Jean, John's blood loss was stopped, and the family was moved to a coral ledge about a hundred feet away from the boat. The signal from their emergency beacon, held by son Jack, enabled the Coast Guard Station in Alameda, California, to pinpoint their location - approximately 350 nautical miles west of Tahiti Papeete. They were finally rescued and John was transported to the hospital in Tahiti. Although his leg had to be amputated, John's life was saved. Includes individual narrations by Jean and John Silverwood and their children: Ben, Amelia, Camille and Jack; Ernie Delli Gatti of Coast Guard Search and Rescue.
