

Programs and Issues
for WJJZ Irasburg, VT
October 2022 to December 2022

Issue – Promoting Downtown Newport

Wednesday November 30th, 2022

5:55am

5 minutes

Interview with Rick Ufford Chase director of Newports Downtown Development Committee about upcoming events for this winter season. There will be live bands at the Newport Gateway Center on Saturday nights through February 25, 2023. Including local food, cash bar and kids movies right upstairs. Tickets are $10 for adults and kids are free. Also, if you shop any 3 downtown Newport business, you can enter to win $100 in Downtown Dollars, which spend just like dollars. There will be 5 winners chosen.

Issue – Feeding are seniors in need.

Tuesday December 6th

5:55am

5 Minutes

Interview with Herb Will of the Northeast Kingdom Council On Aging. Talked about the need for Meals On Wheels Drivers in the area with a special need for drivers in the Troy and Lowell areas. Drivers volunteer to bring meals to the elderly in need. Drivers are also reimbursed for mileage. Drivers not only bring meals to seniors but are also doing wellness checks for those who may live alone. More information can be had by calling Pam Moon at 802-751-0438.