

VIEWPOINT OVERVIEW

7/1/18 Jay Freeman, secretary Greentown Lions Club Ho.Co. 4-H Fair.

Talked about the history of the Lions club doing the fair. Activities scheduled for the annual event.

7/8/18 Josh Winrotte, Howard County Extension Agent

Talked about preparations for 4-Hers as they get ready for fair week. Josh's added responsibilities as extension agent. Projects that the youth will be exhibiting at the fair.

7/15 and 22/18 State Senator Jim Buck

Talked about some of the new laws in effect, including the allowance of airbnbs in the state. Other topics include the new 10 cent gas tax, and possible tolling of roads. Other funding of projects in the state.

7/29/18 Northwestern 12U All Star baseball

Talked with the coach and team members of the Northwestern 12 and under all star team getting ready to play the Cal Ripken World Series. The coach covered the tournament trail and three players of the team shared some of their thoughts.

8/5/18 Janis Thornton

Author of a book about the mysterious death of a high school girl in 1965 Tipton. Talked about the times and some of her methods of investigating material to write the book.

8/12 and 19 Debbie Calder INDOT

Discussed the proposed widening of state road 26 between Russiaville and Rossville.

8/26 Reba Harris and Tom DiNardo

Reba Harris is a new member of the Howard county Hall of Legends and director of Gilead House, who helps women with addictions.

Tom DiNardo is a former Kokomo Police Chief, who now helps with a group of young men in a program called Trail Life starting its second season.

9/2/18 Sgt. Tony Slocum Public Information Officer, Indiana State Police Peru Post

Sgt. Slocum discussed the continued increase in patrols during the Labor Day holiday. Different vehicles police use, especially in road construction zones, to help their enforcement.

9/9/18 Travis Tafflinger, founder Bridges Outreach

Bridges Outreach is a mentoring program for school children to provide leadership for those children and helping them to find a good track for their lives. Travis talked about the history of Bridges as well as some fundraisers that will be held to help even more youth in Howard County.

9/16/18 Brianne Boles new CEO of Bona Vista

Discussed the 60th anniversary of Bona Vista and the growth of the organization through the years in Kokomo. Also discussed future plans and goals of Bona Vista

9/23/18 Bailey Franklin of United Way of Howard County and loaned associates Jennifer Thompson and Christy Douglas

Discussed the 2018 United Way fundraising campaign and the 75 in 5 initiative to have 75 per cent of youngsters totally prepared for Kindergarten in 5 years.

9/30/18 Dr. Jeff Hauswald, Superintendent of Kokomo School Corporation

Dr. Hauswald talked about the new requirements that will be needed to graduate from high school, starting with the current 8th grade class.