

VIEWPOINT OVERVIEW APRIL MAY JUNE 2019

4/7 and 4/14/19 Tracy Martino, executive director of the Family Service Association of Howard County.

Talked about some of the programs offered thru FSA and upcoming fundraising events for the organization, including the Angel Walk April 16 at IU Kokomo and the Little Black Dress May 3 at the Bel Air.

4/21/19 Sgt. Tony Slocum, PIO Indiana State Police Peru post.

Talked about highway work zone safety. The move over law to protect emergency personnel on roadsides. Telecommunications operators week, Motorcycle safety and Indiana State Police camps and how to participate.

4/28/19 and 5/5/19 Eric Berman Statehouse reporter for Network Indiana

Talked about the 2019 General assembly and some of the major bills that passed including increased funding for schools, a change in Indiana casino laws, and other legislation.

5/12/19 Brianne Boles, Brittnee Smith from Bona Vista Kyle and Lisa Rayl from Soupleys

Talked about the 25th anniversary edition of the Greatest Spectacle in Tasting. The annual fundraiser helps Bona Vista provide funding for many of the programs they offer in the community.

5/19/19 and 5/26/19 Rev. Ruth Lawson, executive director of CAM, Inc.

Talked about the upcoming WIOU-CAM golf outing. The interview solicited golfers and sponsors for the 22nd annual outing that provides funding for homeless projects within CAM (Coordinated Assistance Ministries.)

6/2/19, 6/9/19 and 6/23/19 Kristina Sommers Howard County Health Department

Talked about flood preparations. With the amount of rain in north central Indiana this past spring, the health department wanted people to be prepared in case of major flooding.

6/17/19 Rev. Ruth Lawson, executive director of CAM, Inc.

Talked about the results of the 2019 WIOU-CAM golf tournament. $13,000 was raised in the tournament which will go towards helping provide care to homeless people in the area.

6/30/19 Paul Wyman. Haynes Apperson festival

Talked about the upcoming Haynes Apperson festival and the events that will take place in the celebration of our nation's birthday, and the anniversary of the first motorized vehicle in America on Pumpkinvine Pike.