

	The following is a list of the most significant programs broadcast by this station during the past quarter in response to community issues.
	KTOO Quarterly Issues/Programs List - 2019 Q2
	Issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Description
1	Cruise ship pollution	All Things Considered	4/11/2019	4:48 PM	5m 15s	News story about what state cruise ship pollution observers have documented and how the industry, politicians and enforcers have responded.
2	State budget deficit	Morning Edition	4/16/2019	6:45 AM	4m 21s	News story exploring specific candidate-Dunleavy campaign promises that are inconsistent with Gov. Dunleavy's proposed budget cuts.
3	Alcohol abuse	All Things Considered	4/17/2019	4:48 PM	4m 25s	News story on local officials considering changes to sleep-off options for intoxicated people emergency responders pick up.
4	Marine safety	All Things Considered	4/18/2019	4:48 PM	5m 10s	News story on threats and risks of navigating a growing number of mega-cruise ships visiting Southeast Alaska.
5	Public transportation infrastructure	All Things Considered	4/19/2019	4:48 PM	3m 15s	News story on state transportation officials' plan to build a new ferry terminal in Juneau, increasing driving time but shortening ferry trips.
6	Tourism pollution	Morning Edition	4/22/2019	6:45 AM	3m 6s	News story on how city officials and the tourism industry are responding to public complaints about air quality.
7	Outdated court operations	Morning Edition	5/6/2019	5:45am	5m 30s	News story on a years' long technology upgrade to the state court system's document filing system.
8	Climate change, subsistence food insecurity	All Things Considered	5/23/2019	4:48 PM	5m 11s	News story on a prominent regional tribe's scientific work connecting subsistence shellfish with climate change.
9	Legislative gridlock, capital move	Special Coverage	6/14/2019	11:00 AM	33m	Live, long-form special coverage of Gov. Mike Dunleavy calling the Legislature into special session in Wasilla to resolve permanent fund dividends.
10	State budget deficit	Special Coverage	6/28/2019	11:00 AM	29m	Live, long-form special coverage of Gov. Mike Dunleavy's announcement of $390 million in additional state operating budget reductions through the line-item veto.