NEWS

February 19, 2010

Greetings:

TWO new openings (one in the number two market!) top this week's newsletter. And, as far as I know, NO new ND's have been named in the last week.

That brings the total number of ND openings to 16. Three of those are at Spanish language stations.

Also this week, we have one new news management opening, and LOTS of Names in the News, including a three time ND with a new job as an Assistant ND in Texas and details about someone completing his SECOND hat trick in a market (three stations, and he's worked at each of 'em TWICE!).

And we'll tell you about a veteran Ohio News Director recovering from surgery to remove a malignant brain tumor.

All that and more after this week's changes:

NEW NEWS DIRECTOR OPENINGS:

Creste

KVEA/KWHY-TV, Los Angeles, CA...ESTEBAN CRESTE has left this Telemundo-owned duopoly after less than two years as ND. He's previously been an ND for Telemundo's WSNS-TV in Chicago and Managing Editor for Telemundo's WNJU-TV in the New York market.

ockstroh

IC-TV, Hartford, CT...BOB ROCKSTROH has left this Tribune owned FOX affiliate after more three years as ND. He'd been at the station for six years, and previously worked as a news director in Ft. Wayne. He's also worked

NAMES in the NEWS:

Andrea

Longtime news director ANDREA PARQUET TAYLOR has been named Assistant News Director for Belo's KHOU-TV in Houston. Andrea most recently was the ND for WXYZ-TV in Detroit, a job she left last September. She's also been an ND in Baltimore and Raleigh.

Another Belo station makes a management hire as KING-TV in Seattle adds a new Morning Executive Producer. DAN RASMUSSEN will join the staff next month after leaving his job as Senior Producer for KTLA-TV in Los Angeles. He does have history in the Pacific Northwest, having worked in both Portland, OR, and Spokane earlier in his career.

Mason

Congratulations to JOHN MASON who has been promoted to Assistant News Director for Hubbard's KSTP-TV in Minneapolis. He has been the Managing Editor since last June, and had anchored for that ABC affiliate before that. John's also anchored in Chicago, Albuquerque, and Omaha.

ERIC OLSEN heads north to become Morning EP for WBZ-TV in Boston. For the last seven years, Eric's been the Evening EP for WGHP-TV in Greenboro/High Point, NC. You'll note above the station is looking for his replacement.

Lots of people have worked at three (or more!) stations in a market. Know anyone who's done it twice? Meet STEW HIRSCH, who is returning to Columbus, OH, as assignment manager for WBNS-TV. That completes his second Columbus hat trick. And he's even had time to work as an ND in Huntsville, an interim ND in Ft. Myers, and on the desk in Raleigh and Cincinnati, his current job.

Finally, please join me in sending best wishes to WKEF/WRGT-TV (Dayton, OH) News Director PATRICK CASEY. Pat tells me he had a malignant brain tumor removed earlier this month, and he'll begin radiation treatment next week. Pat (who's been an ND in Cincinnati and, I believe, has worked in Los Angeles) tells me that newly hired Assistant ND TIM LIVINGSTON will hold down the fort at the Sinclair-owned duopoly until his doctors give him the green light to return to work. Until he's back on the job, I'm sure he'd appreciate your note of good cheer: mmcasey1957@aol.com

February 26, 2010

Greetings:

We have TWO new ND openings in this week's newsletter...one the result of a promotion for a veteran newsman. And the other opening is because a station which has been without an ND for almost three years is resuming its search. And there is ONE new ND to tell you about.

My figures show 17 stations with an open ND position.

Sadly we've have some information about the death of a Miami EP. He's a former ND in Atlanta and Spokane. That's below.

Also below are a few new news management openings and one name in the news.

NEW NEWS DIRECTOR OPENINGS:

Ackermann

WXIX-TV, Cincinnati, OH...congratulations to STEVE ACKERMANN who will assume full-time responsibilities as a Raycom Regional News Director (one of three for the company). Steve's been the ND for this FOX-affiliate for the last five years and will continue to be based in Cincinnati. He previously was the ND for Belo's Texas Cable News in Dallas and spent many years working for CBS News, as a regional news service producer in Kansas City and also in New York. He's also worked in his native Louisiana.

KMPH-TV, Fresno, CA...this Fox affiliate is apparently taking steps to fill this long vacant opening (since 2007!). The job is being advertised on the station's website. KMPH is owned by New World TV Group which acquired many of the former Pappas TV stations. The last ND here was GEOFF ROTH who left in July, 2007, to go across the street to KSEE-TV in Fresno. (Geoff's now teaching at Hofstra University.)

NEW NEWS DIRECTORS NAMED:

Carl

KMTV, Omaha, NE...AL CARL returns to his native Nebraska as ND for this Journal Broadcasting owned CBS affiliate. He's been the Morning EP for KSHB-TV in Kansas City since last September, but had spent several years working for WDAF-TV in Kansas City before his job was eliminated at that Fox affiliate. Al's a former ND for WAAY-TV in Huntsville, AL, and has also worked in Albany, NY, Savannah, and Saginaw, MI. At KMTV, he replaces SCOTT PICKEN who left the station last month after 14 months as ND.

OBITUARY:

Gilks

CHRIS GILKS, an Executive Producer at Miami's WPLG-TV, died last Wednesday after a long illness following a liver transplant. He's a former ND in Atlanta (WGCL-TV) and Spokane, WA (KXLY-TV). He also worked in San Diego, San Francisco, and Detroit. I believe he was an Ohio University grad and a native of Canada. The station aired this tribute to him. Unfortunately I have no information about his age, survivors, funeral arrangements, or memorial information. I'll add that information to the website if/when I get it.
