

ANN ARBOR RADIO
4th q 2015 ISSUES & PROGRAMS REPORT
1290 AM – WLBY

“Lucy Ann Lance Show” On-Air Guests and Events:

10/1:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce- Joe Schultz, past president - Boxwood Cottage and Gifts,

Keep Politics out of taxes- Nolan Finley, The Detroit News

10/2: LIVE from CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

Concordia University Ann Arbor Strengthens Programs - Curt Gielow, Campus Chief

Executive, CUAA - The Concordia University Ann Arbor (CUAA) community comes together this weekend to celebrate the dedication of its new Cardinal Football Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 3 at 12:45 p.m., just before the 1:00 p.m. kickoff of their Homecoming game. Cardinal Stadium is a new, 1,300-seat grandstand with locker rooms, and additional amenities that surround the new turf field and complete construction of the athletic complex. It's a shining example of the major efforts and funds that are being infused in the Ann Arbor campus.

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Ann Arbor's Blooming Downtown -

Maura Thomson, MSAA Executive Director; Brian Swiney, Owner, Heritage Lawn Care – One of the hallmarks of Ann Arbor's downtown is the beautiful landscaping, managed by the Main Street Area Association and designed by Heritage Lawn Care which takes care of the 46 planter beds on Main St. and does the sidewalk snow removal for the Business Improvement Zone.

Go, Cardinals! - Lonnie Pries, Athletic Director / Head Football Coach – CUAA's football team is off to a great start with a 3-1 record this season. Football team, current season stats and Homecoming game against St. Francis (IL)

Around the Home: The Value of Updating Your Home - Maureen Sloan, CEO, BRAG Ann

Arbor; James Krupa, Owner, Acclaim Construction - A kitchen, dining room and living room remodel on this weekend's Remodelers Home Tour showcases how remodeling can increase your home's value

CUAA Merger with Concordia University Wisconsin – Rev. Dr. Patrick Ferry, President – The new bond between the Ann Arbor, Michigan and Mequon, Wisconsin Concordia University campuses is creating an educational powerhouse in Ann Arbor. CUAA has now added new facilities and new programs and degrees leading to some of the hottest job prospects for students. President Rev. Dr. Ferry talks about the merger, the mission and vision of the university, and what the future holds.

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

50+ with Dean Erskine

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: Chautauqua at the Riverside – Val Kabat, Organizer –

This unique all-day event provides a series of educational and entertaining presentations and performances to stimulate interest in the history and heritage of our Ypsilanti, Michigan, and the U.S.A. Visit Chautauqua-ypsilanti.org

The Student Experience at CUA - Blake Wright, Worship Arts (Jr., St. Paul); Matt Korte, Sport & Entertainment Management (Fr, Saginaw); Hannah Geluso, Student, Family Life Program (Sr, Grand Rapids) – Student life at CUA is as diverse as the students who attend, as the university offers a myriad of career paths, as well as social and athletic opportunities.

School Spirit & Culture at CUA - Rev. Ryan Peterson, Campus Pastor – School spirit is ramped up on this homecoming weekend at CUA. But it's the spirit of giving back to the community that prevails throughout and CUA staff do throughout the year, strengthening our community.

The Renovations of the Kreft Center for the Arts - Dr. Robert McCormick, Dean of Arts and Science – The newly renovated Kreft Center for the Arts at CUA offers a variety of fine arts and culture. The first exhibition in the new space features an eclectic collection of paintings, drawing and sculptures from the personal collection of benefactors Karl and Shirley Kreft, supporters of CUA.

10/5:

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: The Bar Code- Adrian Maddeus

Business Ethos: Why Are Health Costs Rising?– Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce - Community Service Awards – Diane London, Chair

10/6

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Smoke & Ale Fall Festival - Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Kelly Goodell, Chairperson, and Gary Munce, Entertainment

Chairperson – Twenty contestants will compete for a $2,000 prize in this first-ever BBQ cook-off in Chelsea.

Made in Detroit: Shinola – Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications; Jen Guarino, VP, Shinola – From watches and leather goods in Detroit to paper goods in Ann Arbor, Shinola bills itself as “Where American Is Made.”

West Washtenaw Business Association: Newcomers Welcome Service - Paul Larned, WWBA Board of Directors; Annette Fraser, Newcomers Welcome Service – Since 1960 Newcomers Welcome Service has been greeting new arrivals to welcome them into our community. It’s a unique opportunity for businesses and homeowners.

Travel Michigan: Traveling Traverse City – David Lorenz, VP, Travel Michigan; Brad Van Dommelin, President, – One of the top travel destinations in Michigan is Traverse City and TC’s Fab Fall package being offered makes fall a great time to visit. Visit www.Michigan.org. (Interview first aired 10/3/15.)

Town Hall Celebrity Lecture Series – Connie Kinnear, President, & Ingrid Sheldon, Past President, Margaret Waterman Alumnae Group - Eight worthy students each receive a $4,000 scholarship each year, thanks to this organization which began more than sixty years ago.

10/7:

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: A Classical Education – Art Trapp, Chamber Executive Director; Eric Van Derhoof, Head of School, Washtenaw Christian Academy – Beginning in the fall of last year, Washtenaw Christian Academy transitioned into a Classical Christian Education. It now offers a robust program of Latin instruction starting in elementary school.

Concordia University: Soccer – Coach Stephen Shelton, Head Women’s Soccer Coach – The combination of a competitive schedule and successful record has raised the national profile of the Cardinals helping them receive votes in the NAIA Women’s Soccer poll Visit www.concordiacardinals.com or call 734-995-7300.

What Would Boulder Do? – Partisan v. Non-Partisan Elections – Should the City of Ann Arbor abandon party labels and convert to non-partisan elections? Ann Arbor likes to look to Boulder, Colorado for its answers.

The Pastor’s Perspective: Gay Marriage – Father James Conlon, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church - The controversy over a county clerk refusing to issue marriage licenses to gay couples sets-up a soulful struggle between conscience, faith, and the law.

10/8:

Agreement between UAW and Fiat/Chrysler- Vincent Vernuccio, Mackinac Center for Public Policy-

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce- Joe Schultz, past president - Fall events in Dexter

Deals Of the Year nominations announced- Paula Gardner, Matt Durr, The Ann Arbor News

Yankee Air Force Museum, trying again to break Rosie The Riveter record- Dennis Norton Yankee Air Force Museum, Allison Beatty

10/9:

Main Street Area Association– Expansion of AAATA - Deb Freer.

Around The Home, Camp Liberty- Pete Nowakowski BRAG Ann Arbor, Allan Lutes, Alpha Design Build

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti- Dave Heikkenen, President DAY, Walter Kraft, Eastern Michigan University.

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

50+ with Dean Erskine - No Cost of Living Increase for Social Security in 2016

10/12:

A2Y Regional Chamber of Commerce- Darrell Johnston Coaching.

University of Michigan Football- Nick Baumgardner, MLive.

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce- Heidi Steinhemmel, IHA.

10/13 :

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce– Bob Pierce, Executive Director of the chamber and Dr. Andre King, Urologist St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Chelsea.

Renew Michigan - Larry Eiler from Eiler Communications and Maureen Brosnan, Michigan Venture Capital Association

West Washtenaw Business Association- Paul Larned, President of the WWBA and Joe Green, Senior Account Manager University Office Technologies

Travel Michigan- Dave Lorenz, Travel Michigan - Pure Michigan photo contest

10/14:

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce – Larry Oesterling, past Executive Director of the chamber - fund raising raffle supporting the Chamber

Wellness Wednesday: Cancer Care Day at Van Buren Salon

Flu Season- Jim Syzkowski, Kroger Pharmacy

Concordia University: Graduate School of Education – Julie Eadler

University of Michigan Young American For Freedom - Campus screening of The Honor Diaries– Grant Strobl, Young Americans for Freedom; Rahil Raza, President of Muslims Facing Tomorrow.

The Pastor's Perspective: Jubilee Year of Mercy– Father James Conlon, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

10/15:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce- Fall Festival at Dexter United Methodist Church- Paula Palmer Burns, Joe Schultz, past Presidents of the Dexter Chamber; Paster Matt Hook, Dexter United Methodist Church.

10/16:

Main Street Area Association– Maura Thomson, Executive Director.

Michigan vs Michigan State preview– Mark Snyder, Detroit Free Press.

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti* - Tim Colbeck, Ypsilanti Downtown Development Authority - Innovate Ypsi Office Tour

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

50+ with Dean Erskine - top ten cities for boomers looking for a new job

10/19:

Ann Arbor Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: – Mary Steffek Blaske, Executive Director, Ann Arbor Symphony Orchestra – From the concert stage to farmers markets, libraries, and senior homes, Ann Arbor’s professional orchestra is making music and building audiences.

An Epic Fail, A Michigan Loss - Nick Baumgarden, Sports Reporter, MLive.com/Ann Arbor News – In the final seconds of the Michigan versus Michigan State football game the unthinkable happened. A fumbled snap, an ill-fated attempt to kick it anyway, and a gift to the Spartans unwrapped with perfect execution.

Business Ethos: Another Deal and More Controversy– Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University – Fast Track has passed and now the Obama Administration has reached an agreement for a Trans-Pacific Partnership. So, what’s next?

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

Healthy Living: Love Your Bones - Tina Miller, RD/MS, Meijer - Osteoporosis affects 1 in 3 women and 1 in 5 men over the age of 50. It’s never too late to nourish those bones and reduce your risk of osteoporosis.

Think Local First: Winter Cardinals Are Here – Chris Good, New TLF Executive Director; Motawi Tileworks’ Christa Quinn, Marketing Director, and Nawal Motawi, Owner – It’s here! Motawi Tileworks’ Holiday 2015 Tile, Winter Cardinals, a lovely scene of cheery red cardinals perched on a pine on a crisp winter day.

10/20:

Dyson Buys Ann Arbor Company - Nathan Bomey, Reporter, USA Today – Dyson’s cordless vacuums are getting a boost from an Ann Arbor start-up. Dyson has acquired Sakti3, a battery technology firm that produces solid-state lithium ion batteries.

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: The Little Free Library – Gary Munce, Chamber Volunteer - Take a book, leave a book, or simply borrow one to pass the time. The concept of The Little Free Library is popping up in a myriad of ways around the county. In Chelsea, it’s a project of the Chelsea District Library and the Friends of the Library.

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer – Elissa Spangler, Business Development & Marketing Director, Suburban Chevrolet Cadillac; Monica Brancheau, Breast Cancer Survivor – Diagnosed with breast cancer in 2012 at the age of 35, Monica Brancheau is on a mission to share her story with others.

Re:NEW Michigan: Domestic Violence Awareness Month - Barbara Neiss-May, Executive Director, SafeHouse - Every 60 seconds 20 people are subject to inter-partner violence. The 1st Annual Purple Run is a collaboration between the University of Michigan Police Department and the Washtenaw County Prosecutor's Office to highlight domestic violence. Visit www.PurpleRunAnnArbor.org.

West Washtenaw Business Association: What To Do With That Garage Floor..and More -

Paul Larned, WWBA Board of Directors; Steven Hannum, Owner, Arbor Gloss – When you take pride in your home, don't forget about that garage – especially if it's a regular entry point for guests. Arbor Gloss specializes in the installation of premium custom polymer floors to beautify and protect your shop, garage and basement floors, whether they are old and tired or newly poured.

Travel Michigan: Apples - David Lorenz, VP, Travel Michigan – Michigan is the second most agriculturally-diverse state in the country. Right now apples are taking center stage with a billion pounds of apples produced last year alone.

10/21:

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: Bond issue for Saline Schools- Scot Graden, Superintendent of Saline Schools

Concordia University: Student Emily Bairman

The Pastor's Perspective 2016 Election– Father James Conlon, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

10/22:

The Cost of Auto Worker Labor - Dr. Sean Macilenden, Center for Automotive Research
Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: Cornman Farms– Liz DeCamp

Goodwill Industries, Saline- Dan Burr, Executive Director; Daniel Loyin, Store Manager

10/23:

Michigan vote on ban on late term abortions- Genevieve Marnon, Right To Life of Michigan

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Ann Arbor District Library
Halloween Party- Laura Rayman, Nicole Williamson, AADL

50+ with Dean Erskine – Aging in Place Week, Medicaid coverage for in home care

Around the Home: The Festive Affair– Maureen Sloan, President & CEO BRAG Ann Arbor; Ken Staples, Staples Building; Mark Bishar, Big Georges

Lower cost alternative to paramedic care- Dale Barry, Huron Valley Ambulance

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: Puffer Reds– Dave Heikkinen, President, DAY; Eric Williams, owner

10/26:

Business Ethos: Educational Favoritism?– Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University – Michigan Governor Rick Snyder has crafted a plan to bail out the debt-ridden Detroit Public Schools. But what about the state’s other public schools?

A Safety Net for The Network – John Manfredi, Executive Director, Performance Network Theatre – The Performance Network is an award-winning professional theatre located in the heart of downtown Ann Arbor. After undergoing financial hardships, the organization revamped its operations. Now it is once again making an appeal to the community to keep the stage lights on and has launched a fundraising campaign. Visit: <http://www.pntheatre.org/donate/>

Milan Chamber of Commerce: Milan’s Mayoral Race – Dutch Nie – Milan’s November 3 Election is shaping up to be a very interesting campaign with Mayor Michael Armitage facing challenger Dutch Nie. This week we talk with Dutch about his vision of the future of Milan. Next week: Mayor Armitage outlines his plans for a second term.

Women of Pokot: Loice Maru & Rebecca Bungei – The Pokot tribe, located in northwest Kenya, is estimated at over 1 million people. This semi-nomadic tribe lives in a remote, rural, deeply impoverished area of Africa. The women, who are not valued and often are forced to undergo the most horrific mutilations, bear the greatest burden. Ypsilanti resident Loice Maru and her Kenyan sister Rebecca Bungei know all too what the women of their homeland face and are helping to give them a voice.

10/27:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Thrivent Financial- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Eric & Amy Van Hevel, Thrivent Financial-

Re:NEW Michigan: – Larry Eiler , Eiler Communications –

West Washtenaw Business Association: Family Heritage Life- Paul Larned, WWBA Board of Directors; Connie Kelly, Family Heritage Life- Unless the gas for your lawn mower is treated with this you will have carburetor and starting issues. This common additive harms an engine if left in a machine for more than 30-40 days. So, what is it?

Travel Michigan: Michigan Castles - David Lorenz, VP, Travel Michigan –

10/28:

Leading the Way for United Way - Pam Smith, United Way of Washtenaw County – With the annual United Way campaign just underway there are several businesses already leading the pack, including the Bank of Ann Arbor, NSF, and the University of Michigan. Visit www.UWGive.org

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: A Bond Proposal for School Safety - Scot Graden, Superintendent, Saline Area Schools - There is an important bond proposal for Saline Area Schools on the ballot Tuesday, November 3. The proposal would generate $67.5 million in needed funds for safety & security improvements.

Concordia University: The Difference Between A Career And A Calling - Kevin and Kay Marie Brennfleck, Directors, Center for Career and Life Calling - Concordia University's Center for Career and Life Calling approaches career development differently from most universities.

Detroit Resurrected: To Bankruptcy and Back – Nathan Bomey, Author / Reporter, USA Today - A gripping account of the largest municipal bankruptcy in American history—and a look toward Detroit's future.

The Pastor's Perspective: Are There Really Ghosts? - Father James Conlon, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church – There will be plenty of little ghosts and goblins roaming our neighborhoods this weekend, but how present is the spirit world in our earthly endeavors?

10/29:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce— chamber past President Joe Schultz

Mike Rogers, Small Business Association of Michigan- Lack of workers affecting hiring in Michigan

Jeanette Ghedotte, Accurate Body Language - what is the body language of the Minnesota dentist who shot Cecil the Lion showing?

10/30:

Main Street Area Association- Maura Thomson, MSAA Executive Director and Diana Neering, Shelter Association of Washtenaw County; Adam Lowenstein, Big Ten Burrito.

50+ w/ Dean Erskine- Halloween traditions with Baby Boomers

Around The Home- Pete Nowakowski, Communications Director of BRAG and Don Warren & Heidi Gillespie, Ferguson Enterprises.

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti- Dave Heikkenen from DAY with Michigan All Stars 4x100 Track Team

11/2:

Ann Arbor Ward 2 Endorsement - Paula Gardner, Editor, The Ann Arbor News – At one time Jane Lumm and Sally Hart Petersen both represented Ward 2 on Ann Arbor City Council. Now Sally is challenging Jane for her seat in the November 3 Election. And The Ann Arbor News editorial board is endorsing...

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: Travel Tailored for You - Vinal Desai Burbeck, Founder, Bespoke Travel & Experiences – This travel and event planning company can create a customized experience anywhere in the world.

Business Ethos: A Good Deal? – Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University – Congress passed a budget deal last week. Dr. Mielke says while there are some positive aspects in this agreement, there are a lot of questionable components along with a lack of transparency and a shortage of specifics.

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

The Little Brown Jug Returns to Ann Arbor - Nick Baumgardner, Sports Reporter, MLive / The Ann Arbor News - Outplayed by Minnesota, the Michigan Wolverines somehow managed to come home the Victors once again.

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce: Mayoral Election: Mayor Michael Armitage - After serving one term as Mayor of Milan, Mayor Michael Armitage is facing challenger Dutch Nie in the upcoming election. He points to the Main Street program, enhanced 911 services, and several development projects underway to show how the community is thriving under his leadership.

A Road Deal Or No Deal? - Nolan Finley, Opinion Editor, Detroit Free Press – A deal has finally been crafted to fix Michigan roads, but some lawmakers are vowing to block the way. Finley calls on Governor Snyder to play hardball and get the job done.

11/3:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Wine, Women & Shopping- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Jennifer Fairfield, organizer-

Re:NEW Michigan: – Larry Eiler , Eiler Communications ; Mary Jo Cartwright, Court Innovations

West Washtenaw Business Association: Mower Maintenance - Paul Larned, WWBA Board of Directors; Laura Rhodes, Author, Baking Pure & Simple-

Travel Michigan: Michigan Museums- David Lorenz, VP, Travel Michigan

11/4:

Passage of Bond Proposal for Saline Schools - Scot Graden, Superintendent of SAaline Schools

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: Saline Craft Show- Art Trapp, Chamber Executive Director; CEO/President Brian Puffer and Cheryl Hoeft

Concordia University: Veterans Day at Concordia- Dr. Robert McCormick, Directors, Dean of Arts and Sciences-

Veterans Tribute Concert at Saline HS – Retired Judge Donald Shelton, Saline New Horizons Band Director Robert Albritton, Veteran Horace Frazier.

The Pastor's Perspective: The rights of the unborn- Father James Conlon, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

11/5:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: New leadership at Dexter Chamber- James Lippen Chamber President; Quaila Pant, Secretary ; Margaret Wyzlic, Vice President –

The Pastor's Perspective: The rights of the unborn- Father James Conlon, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church (replayed)

Damian on Design– Damian Farrell, Damian Farrell Design Group

11/6:

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Maura Thomson, Executive Director MSAA; Janet Sigler, Blank Slate Creamery

Concordia University - New Nursing School - Dean Cindy Penske

Around the Home: Meadowlark Builders, Melissa Kennedy

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti- Storytelling - Dave Heikkenen from DAY; Dr. Diana Wong; Dr. Rebecca Hoffman

11/9:

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: A Report on Pittsfield Township's Budget - Mandy Grewal, Supervisor, Pittsfield Township – In 2009, Pittsfield Township weathered double-digit declines in revenue. To balance the budget the township implemented department-wide budget cuts and eliminated many projects and initiatives. Today in 2015 the township's financial picture has improved markedly.

Business Ethos: A Road Fix? – Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University – Watch for higher fuel taxes, an increase in vehicle registration fees, and shifting monies from the general fund, all to pay for the new deal to fix Michigan roads. But is it the 'Right Thing to do'?

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

Michigan Is A Contender for Big Ten Title Game - Nick Baumgardner, Sports Reporter, MLive / The Ann Arbor News - After this weekend's play – and a heartbreaker loss for Michigan State – the Michigan Wolverines and MSU are one game behind Ohio State. That opens the way for UM to get into the Big Ten title game, but a few scenarios have to play out first.

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce: Paying Tribute to Our Veterans – Tom Publiski, Moving Milan Forward – A historical look at Milan's contributions to our country and its support of our local veterans.

11/10:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Multi Use non motorized pathways connecting Dexter and Chelsea- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Jeff Hardcastle, Chair Huron Waterloo Pathways Initiative -

Re:NEW Michigan: The State of the Media- Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications; Jerome Levin, Detroit Journalist–

Service Above Self: Vets Take The Hill – Randy Ritter, Former Asst. Director of the Ann Arbor VA; Art Holst, WWII Veteran; and Brad Chick, Rotary Club of Ann Arbor – This Veteran's Day, veterans of WWII,

Korea, Vietnam, Iraq, and Afghanistan will tell their stories on the stage of the University of Michigan's Hill Auditorium. It's a kick-off of a yearlong effort to raise money for veterans who come home to Michigan.

11/11:

RECORDED: Service Above Self: Vets Take The Hill – Randy Ritter, Former Asst. Director of the Ann Arbor VA; Art Holst, WWII Veteran; and Brad Chick, Rotary Club of Ann Arbor – This Veteran's Day, veterans of WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Iraq, and Afghanistan will tell their stories on the stage of the University of Michigan's Hill Auditorium. It's a kick-off of a yearlong effort to raise money for veterans who come home to Michigan. First aired 11/10/15.

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: Kenpo Karate - Art Trapp, Chamber Executive Director; Mark Hensel, Owner, Hensel Kenpo Karate at The Downtown Dojo - Kenpo, or American Kenpo Karate, is a self-defense art form known for its rapid, multiple strikes and low kicks. Using these techniques, the Kenpoist seeks to break down the aggressor from head to toe, not allowing them to mount an effective attack.

Concordia University: Transfer Students - Kristen Thornton, Transfer Admissions Counselor, Concordia University Ann Arbor – Why should a transfer student consider CUAA?

Travel Michigan: Michigan's Maritime Museum & More - David Lorenz, Vice President, Travel Michigan – This week marks the 40th anniversary of the sinking of the Edmund Fitzgerald. Today we visit the Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum on Whitefish Point.

The Pastor's Perspective: The End Times – Fr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church - When is the end of time? It could come at any time, but are we ready?

.

11/12:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: Newcomers Service- Annette Frasier

High Winds moving into area- Scott Simon, Media Relations, DTE Energy-

11/13:

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Ruth's Chris Steakhouse– Paul "Buzz" Goebel, General Manager–

50+ w/Dean Erskine - Speed Dating for Seniors

Around the Home: Batteries & Bulbs– Maureen Sloan, BRAG Ann Arbor; Brian Morsky, Batteries & Bulbs

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: - Mural painted by students promoting Washtenaw Interfaith Council for Immigration Rights Dave Heikkenen from DAY; Manny Lagunes; Roland Sizemore

11/16:

Better Business Tips for Shopping – President/CEO Melanie Duquesnel - This holiday shopping season will be better than the last for retailers, which means consumers, whether out in the stores or in their pajamas in front of a computer, will spend more this year. The Better Business Bureau Serving Eastern Michigan is offering tips to help consumers shop smart in step with predicted 2015 holiday trends.

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: Learner Centered Secondary School Options in Washtenaw County - David Dugger, Executive Director, Washtenaw Educational Options Consortium (WEOC) – Early college credit and personalized programs are just two of the benefits Washtenaw County high school students have by attending one of the alternative learning options through WEOC. These students are also managing to outscore those in traditional learning classrooms.

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

Michigan Football Survives Scare Against Indiana - Nick Baumgardner, Sports Reporter, MLive / The Ann Arbor News - It took double-overtime to beat the Hoosiers in Indiana this past weekend. And what a game it was!

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce: The Role of Church in a Community - Thom Publiski, Immaculate Conception Roman Catholic Church of Milan – Hailing from Vietnam, Father Vincent Van Doan knows firsthand what poverty, hunger, war, and even torture can do to a person. What he has experienced helps him shepherd his flock in Milan. Parishioner Thom Publiski shares his story and talks about how Catholicism came to the New World.

11/17:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Attracting Major Artists to Chelsea - Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Alison Mackie, Owner/Artist, Underground Gallery - The upcoming inaugural exhibition at this new art gallery in downtown Chelsea features artist Judith Peck, whose work graces galleries around the world.

Re:NEW Michigan: Building America's Tomorrow - Dr. David Cole, Founder/Chairman of the Board, AutoHarvest.org; Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications – The auto and other manufacturing industries are on an upswing but where are the workers? It's time to reintroduce manufacturing as an honorable career pursuit, engage women and other demographic groups who traditionally have not seen manufacturing as a viable career pursuit, and enhance the K-12 "pipeline" to develop the future manufacturing workforce.

West Washtenaw Business Association: Quick Books - Paul Larned, WWBA Board of Directors; Martha King, Owner, Accounting Advantage and Business Advantage – If you utilize Quick Books to aid you with your business accounting, you know how frustrating it can be to handle your own bookkeeping. Accounting Advantage helps small to medium-sized businesses work with all Quick Books issues, even offering training and troubleshooting.

Travel Michigan: Michigan's Tongue-Twisting Towns – David Lorenz, VP, Travel Michigan - The name Michigan is based on the Chippewa Indian word "meicigama" meaning great water (think Great Lake.) But what about all of those other hard to pronounce names of places around the mitten state - - what are their origins?

11/18:

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: Quilting for A Cause - Karen Carrigan, Carrigan Café; Audrey Schwimmer, Quilter – Volunteer quilters from the Quilting Season in Saline have sewn more than 85 Christmas stockings for sale for charitable causes, spreading holiday cheer and goodwill.

Concordia University: Tennis Teams – Coach Kirk Boettcher – The Cardinals continue to expand their athletic offerings on the Ann Arbor campus, including men's and women's tennis.

The Pastor's Perspective: Terrorism, Refugees & the Enemy Within – Fr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church - Are there enemies within the refugees seeking safe haven? Should the terrorism tragedy in Paris be a wake-up call for the U.S.A.? President Obama insists that 'slamming the door' on Syrian refugees fleeing ISIS is a betrayal of American values. But shouldn't we protect our own country first?

11/19:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: Christmas at Gordon Hall- Beverly Hill, President of Dexter Historical Society; Ina Germain, Board Member of Dexter Historical Society

Thanksgiving Leftovers- Tina Miller, Registered Dietician Meijer Stores–

11/20:

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Conor O'Neils

50+ w/Dean Erskine - Where are child stars from the past today

Around the Home: Energy Efficiency in Building– Pete Nowakowski, Marketing Director BRAG Ann Arbor; Betsey DeParry, Ann Arbor Builders

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: Ypsilanti Heritage Festival– Dave Heikkinen, President, DAY; Beth Ernat, Economic Development Director for Ypsilanti–

11/23:

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: Dan Huntsbarger, Moveable Feast Catering–

Business Ethos: The Economics of Going Solar– Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce: Winter Wonderland Christmas Parade– Tracy Cole, Parade Committee Chair Person

Michigan Football - Nick Baumgardner, Sports Reporter, MLive / The Ann Arbor News -

11/24:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Ballet Chelsea- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Jane Thompson, Ballet Chelsea–

Re:NEW Michigan: Building America’s Tomorrow- part 2 - Dr. David Cole, Founder/Chairman of the Board, AutoHarvest.org; Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications – The auto and other manufacturing industries are on an upswing but where are the workers? It’s time to reintroduce manufacturing as an honorable career pursuit, engage women and other demographic groups who traditionally have not seen manufacturing as a viable career pursuit, and enhance the K-12 “pipeline” to develop the future manufacturing workforce.

West Washtenaw Business Association: Ann Arbor Arms- Paul Larned, WWBA President; Bill & Holli Pinion. Ann Arbor Arms

Travel Michigan: Winter Sports– David Lorenz, VP, Travel Michigan -

11/25:

The Wizard of Oz, Encore Musical Theater-

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: Christmas parade in Saline- John Olson, pending executive director of Saline Chamber

Wellness Wednesday - Muncher Junior- Kathleen Craig, HT Mobile aps-

Spotlight on Concordia- Annherst Kreitz

The Pastor's Perspective: What happened to "One Nation Under God"?- Fr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

11/26:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: The Beer Grotto- Lisa Jansen, Cans for a Cause

Thanksgiving Leftovers- Tina Miller, Registered Dietician Meijer-

11/27:

Thanksgiving at the Delonis Center- Ellen Schulmeister, Executive Director, Shelter Association of Washtenaw County

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Ann Arbor Potters Guild - Sally Goldberg, Board Secretary

Around the Home: Remodelers Home Tour- Ann Arbor Student Building Program-

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: Mentor to Youth- Dave Heikkinen, President, DAY;

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

50+ w/Dean Erskine - Black Friday Shopping tips for boomers

11/30:

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: RBD Creative- Dorothy Twinney

Business Ethos-Free Speech at Higher Education- Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University –

RECORDED: BCBS with Andy Hetzel

Michigan Football - Nick Baumgardner, Sports Reporter, MLive / The Ann Arbor News -

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce: Dick's Body Shop- Tim Smith

Think Local First - Motawi Tileworks – Christa Quinn, Marketing Director

12/1:

Giving Tuesday: North Star Reach – Deb Kern, Annual Giving Coordinator, and Marji Wisniewski, Marketing & Communications – North Star Reach offers life-changing camp experiences for children with serious health challenges free of charge. On this Day of Giving, your donation will help purchase bunk beds for the camp.

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Hometown Holiday - Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; George Till, Preservation Chelsea – Chelsea is getting ready to roll out its 29th Annual Hometown Holiday this weekend. Events include the Historic Home Tour led by docents who will regale you with each home's unique history.

Re:NEW Michigan: Preserving Your Past for the Future - Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications; Jesse Bernstein, President, Legacy Preservation Services - Are old photos, slides, film, video images, and historical documents just collecting dust in your home or business? Legacy Preservation Services is expert at the process of culling, cataloguing, storing, and sharing these items, making your past come alive for the future.

West Washtenaw Business Association: 2016 Minimum Wage Hike - Paul Larned, WWBA President; James Lippens, Owner, Payroll Vault – The minimum wage rises to $8.50/hour on January 1, 2016. Here's how your business needs to stay compliant with the law.

Travel Michigan: Beer City USA – David Lorenz, Vice President, Travel Michigan – People who know craft beer are looking to Grand Rapids, Michigan, which has been leading the way in the craft beer movement.

12/2:

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: Saline Holiday Parade- Art Trapp, Executive Director
Saline Area Chamber of Commerce

Wellness Wednesday - St. Joes Holiday Ball– Lynn Stella, Event Chair

Spotlight on Concordia– Curt Gielo, Campus Chief Executive

The Pastor's Perspective: Dealing with holiday stressFr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

12/3:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: Dexter Museum Holiday Bazaar – Carol Ann Emerick, Dexter Heritage Guild

Tech Thursday: Digital Nomads– Maria Maderelli

12/4:

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Midnight Madness- Maura Thomson, Executive Director MSAA; Sarah Goldy, Cafe Felix

50+ w/ Dean Erskine – Gift Ideas for Seniors

Around the Home: Fireside Home Construction– Pete Nowakowski, Marketing & Communications Director, BRAG Ann Arbor; Bob Burnside, Fireside Home Construction

Donate for Jobs- Jeff Ukrainus, Goodwill Industries

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: The Closing of The Wolverine Grill– Dave Heikkinen, President, DAY; Kevin Hill, The Wolverine Grill

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Ann Arbor City Club Arts & Crafts Festival- Greg Fleming, Manager, Penny O'Malley Festival Chair, Barbara Cramer

12/7:

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce: Karen Driggs, Sleepy Cricket Vending

Business Ethos-Gun Control or Mental Health?– Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University –

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

The Magic of Christmas- Debbie Williams-Hoak

Milan Area Chamber of Commerce: Splash Universe– Rick Shappee, Director of Sales

12/8:

State Representative Jeff Irwin- How much should power companies pay consumers with solar panels.

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Chelsea Hearth & Fireplaces- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Chris Livengood, Chelsea Hearth & Fireplaces

Re:NEW Michigan: Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications; David & Margaret Baker, Baker Strategies Group

West Washtenaw Business Association: - Paul Larned, WWBA President; Andrea & Katherine Jewelry

Travel Michigan - Changes in Ski Resorts - Dave Lorenz, Travel Michigan

12/9:

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: - Lindsay Stewart, Saline Rec Center

Spotlight on Concordia- Cincy Bensky, School of Nursing

The Pastor's Perspective: Do Animals Go To Heaven? - Fr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

12/10:

Volkswagon update on investigation regarding emissions standards- Nathan Bomey, USA Today

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: Cornman Farms- Alex & Kelly Young

Tech Thursday, getting a drone for Christmas- Tim Underhill, Ball State University Telecommunications Department

Around the Home: Faux Creative- Jil Gordon, Faux Creative

12/11:

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Krazy Jims- Maura Thomson, Executive Director MSAA; Rich Magner, Krazy Jims

50+ w/Dean Erskine – Are Boomers causing the shortage in the housing market?

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: Ypsilanti Community Choir- Dave Heikkinen, President, DAY

12/12:

7th Annual Lucy Ann Lance Hometown Christmas Show
- Saturday, December 12, 2015 at Briarwood Mall –

Concordia University Ann Arbor Chorus – From Masters in the Hall to the traditional We Wish You A Merry Christmas, these 25 singers show us the true meaning of Christmas.

John E. Lawrence – This nationally-renowned guitarist was the music director at Washtenaw Community College for nearly four decades before retiring this past year.

St. Paul Lutheran School Ann Arbor's 3rd & 4th Grade Choir – With their new principal Bob Burgess proudly listening in the audience, these sweet voices sing the songs of the season.

HSHV Pet of the Week – Meet Elsa and learn about adoptions at the Humane Society of Huron Valley with our Dean Erskine and HSHV's Wendy Welch.

Ypsilanti Community Choir – No need to audition for this outstanding choir, which takes anyone who has a love of music performance.

Healthy Living with Meijer's Tina Miller – Easy and delicious holiday entertaining.

Saline Varsity Blues – This performing show choir, full of enthusiasm and acting talent, brings to life A Christmas Story.

St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School Elementary & Middle School Choirs – The St. Francis Middle School Choir will be traveling to Rome, Italy to sing in a Christmas Concert with 7,000 other youth from around the world with Pope Francis in attendance.

Travel Michigan with David Lorenz – The Michigan connection to Polar Express.

Huron Valley Harmonizers with Santa Claus! – Who knew that Santa sings barbershop?! Hear what happens when he surprises this men's acappella chorus by joining them on stage at Briarwood Mall.

Ann Arbor Mayor Christopher Taylor and Wife Eva Rosenwald – His wife is a accomplished actress and he is an attorney and Ann Arbor's mayor. Both have a musical background and together their incredible talents truly shine.

Katie Geddes and All About Eve (Katie, Deb Wood, David Vaughn) with David Stearns on Upright Bass – The founder of the Green Wood Coffee House Series, Katie has been known to “moonlight” singing harmony for folk-rock legend Melanie and local favorite

The Dodworth Duo, Soprano Elizabeth Mitchell & Tenor Ted Badgerow – This duo, part of the larger Dodworth Saxhorn Band, brings to life the songs of the 19th century - principally those of the Dodworth era (1835-1895), an important, eventful and ever-changing period in America's past.

Major Kris Wood, Salvation Army of Washtenaw County – The Red Kettle Campaign is underway with a goal of $500,000 to help provide food and shelter to families, veterans and those in need.

Rosewood - Leader Clarence Collins III (Trumpet), Jamal Ventour (Bass), Emily Tschirhart (Vocals), Mei Semones (Guitar), Samuel Uribe (Tenor Sax), Mason Cox (Drums) – These Ann Arbor teens (the youngest is a freshman and the rest are sophomores) have the soul of much more seasoned musicians. Rosewood's leader credits Neutral Zone, Ann Arbor's teen center, for providing the creative space to bring teens like these together.

Aria Falcone – This sophomore from Ann Arbor Huron H.S. transports you to heaven with her Ave Maria! Aria sings with the Michigan Youth Chamber Singers and has been a cantor at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church for two years.

Dexter Community Band Brass Choir – The rich sound of these brass instrument performers lends a perfect sound to Christmas festivities. The Dexter Community Band was founded in 1982.

Voices in Harmony – Affiliated with Sweet Adelines, Voices in Harmony is an award-winning, 60-member women's a cappella chorus from Ypsilanti. They are currently 4th place medalists in Great Lakes Harmony Region 17 and compete annually.

12/14:

A2Y Regional Chamber of Commerce- Back To Roots Bistro

Hospice of Michigan- Dr. Terri Mack

Business Ethos w/ Dr. David Mielke– No Child Left Behind is left behind

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

12/15:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Advanced Dental- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Don Deaton, Advanced Dental.

Re:NEW Michigan: - Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications –

West Washtenaw Business Association: Cyber Security- Paul Larned, WWBA Board of Directors; Maximus Blackburn, Blackbourn Worldwide

12/16:

Saline Area Chamber of Commerce: - John Olson, Executive Director, Saline Chamber

Wellness Wednesday: Smallest Pacemaker – Dr. Timothy Shinn, St. Joes Mercy Health System

Spotlight on Concordia- Concordia Mens Basketball, Ricky Yahn Coach

The Pastor's Perspective: Differences in religion and the afterlife Fr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

12/17:

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: Hackney Hardware– Shelley Adkins

Around the Home: Clean Sweeps– Pete Nowakowski, Marketing & Communications Director, BRAG Ann Arbor; Cliff Slagle, Clean Sweeps

Republican Debate- Jennifer Burke, Politistick

12/18:

Downtown Friday with the Main Street Area Association: Imagine Three Beauty Studio
Hannah Butler, Whitney Keeler, Julie Hill.

50+ w/Dean Erskine – Home Depot changes focuses to catering to contractors rather than Baby Boomers

EVENTS THIS WEEKEND! - Katie Whitney, Ann Arbor Observer

Downtown Association of Ypsilanti: Cultivate– Dave Heikkinen, President, DAY;
Cultivate Coffee & Tap House

Holiday Movies- Perry Siebert

12/21:

Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber of Commerce Report: The Kite Network – Amy Milanovich, Executive Director – After Julie and Doug Stotlar lost their six year-old daughter in a bus accident, they founded The Kite Network to help other adults suffering from the loss of a loved one

Business Ethos: We Have Saved the Planet? – Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University – A look at the multi-nation plan to limit climate change and whether the agreement will make an impact.

BCBS with Andy Hetzel

Community Offers Help to Homeless EMU Student – State Rep. Adam Zemke and Ramone Williams – More than $25,000 has been raised to help Ramone Williams, who has been living in his car and the campus library while maintaining a 3.4 GPA at EMU. This impressive young man shares his story of perseverance and hope.

Milan Chamber of Commerce: 2015 Highlights from the City of Milan - Milan Mayor Michael Armitage – A major downtown construction project that is expected to draw new business and residents to Milan was just one of the town’s highlights from this past year.

The Pepper Family of Saline – Donna Pepper (Mom); Sloane Pepper (Saline H.S. Freshman /Model) and Taybor Pepper (MSU Long Snapper) - It has been a banner year for the Peppers. Donna and Cam Pepper’s children are showcasing their talents in everything from fashion to football.

12/22:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Srsly- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Chelsea youth substance abuse prevention group

A Charlie Brown Religion- Dr. Stephen Lind, Author– The Coach Jim Harbaugh era has ushered in a whole new culture at the University of Michigan and there’s a lot to be learned from his leadership style.

West Washtenaw Business Association: Fynnull- Paul Larned, WWBA Board of Directors; Chad Marchant, Fynnull–

12/23:

Spotlight on Concordia- Cincy Bensky, School of Nursing

Body Language of contestants and Steve Harvey at Miss Universe- Jeanette Ghedotte, Accurate Body Language LLC-

The Pastor’s Perspective: Christmas - Fr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church

12/24:

Christmas Eve Music special-

12/25:

Christmas Day Special-

12/28:

Ann Arbor / Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce – Living At Home Village – John Nordlinger, Village Educator; Jeff Collison, Executive Director/Founder – This membership-based virtual retirement village allows you to stay in your own home and receive the best of what you would experience in a high-end retirement community at a fraction of the cost.

Business Ethos: Compromise: You Win Some & You Lose Some – Dr. David Mielke, Retired Dean of the College of Business at Eastern Michigan University – Congress recently passed and President Obama signed a $1.1 trillion omnibus spending bill and a $622 billion tax package. Dr. Mielke takes a look at the winners and the losers.

9:08 RECORDED: BCBS with Andy Hetzel

Milan Chamber of Commerce: Youth of the Year Winner – Parents Kerri & Craig Moccio, and Abbie Moccio – This Milan High School senior has made a personal commitment over the years to serve her community through a variety of volunteer opportunities. She is also an excellent student and was named Milan High School Homecoming Queen 2015

12/29:

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce: Srsly- Bob Pierce, Chamber Executive Director; Chelsea youth substance abuse prevention group (repeat of 12/22 segment)

Re:NEW Michigan: Larry Eiler, CEO, Eiler Communications; David & Margaret Baker, Baker Strategies Group (repeat of 12/8 segment)

West Washtenaw Business Association: Maynix Branding- Dave Murray

Travel Michigan: Take A Snow Day – David Lorenz, VP, Travel Michigan –

12/30:

Fighting Civic Apathy - Mary Morgan, Founder, CivCity Initiative – Neighborhood potlucks, candidate forums in unusual settings, an even a party at the polls, are all being planned to engage Ann Arborites in the voting process. Mary tells us 2016 isn't only going to be a big election year on the national front, but locally as well.

The Growth of Concordia University - Curt Gielow, CEO, Concordia University Ann Arbor - Concordia University is expanding its educational offerings and footprint in the Ann Arbor community.

The Pastor's Perspective: The End Times – Fr. James Conlon, Pastor, St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church - When is the end of time? It could come at any time, but are we ready? (First aired November 11, 2015.)

12/31:

80 Year-Old Murder Remains An Ypsilanti Mystery - James Mann, Ypsilanti Historical Society – What happened to 7 year-old Richard Streicher, found brutally stabbed to death all those years ago?

Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce: Null Tap House – Dan Vanduinen, General Manager, Null Tap House – Located in a Dexter industrial park in a 68,000 square foot building, Null (Northern United Liquid Libations) Tap House is the epicenter where beer is crafted for several local restaurants and distributed throughout the world.

Ann Arbor in Rome - Father James Conlon, Pastor at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church – As they get ready to perform for Pope Francis, the Middle School Choir from St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School is touring Rome and enjoying an incredible educational experience. Fr. James talks with us, as he travels on a bus with the school children and their families.

The Citrus Bowl: Michigan v. Florida - Nick Baumgardner, Sports Reporter, MLive.com / The Ann Arbor News- With a weak Florida offense and a tough Michigan defense, the Wolverines are poised to beat the Gators New Year's Day. Nick previews the game and tells us his prediction.

Around the Home: Leaky Windows & Doors – Maureen Sloan, CEO, BRAG Ann Arbor; Tim Goss, Sales Rep, George Meyer Company – Don't just shiver in the extreme cold weather. Learn how to improve those areas where winter is invading your home. (First recorded January 9, 2015.)

Ann Arbor Year-In-Review - Paula Gardner, Editor, The Ann Arbor News – Can you guess what the story received the most page clicks in The Ann Arbor News this past year? Hint: It has to do with an animal.

Regular Segments:

Wendy Welch, Humane Society of Huron Valley “WLBY Pet of the Week” Saturdays

Tina Miller, Registered Dietician “Healthy Living Segment” Saturdays

David Lorenz, Michigan Travel “Traveling the Great State of Michigan” Saturdays