FORUM FOR NONPROFITS: A 30-minute interview forum. Dynamic and cutting-edge, every week, The Forum for Non-Profits features one or more organizations worthy of philanthropic support--and encourages listeners to jump on their bandwagon. In addition, leading consultants give advice to help nonprofits succeed, and donors and other sources of funding explain how best to approach them for contributions. Airt every Sunday at 6:30am on WSBR and every Sunday at 7:30am on WWNN. Hosted by various hosts.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS - These are 30 and 60 second live or pre-recorded announcements that are community service oriented. The issues addressed include both local and national concerns. Each announcement addresses various issues from non-profit/service oriented agencies - topics include humanitarian aid, volunteering, consumer protection, education, family issues, health issues, and a variety of local and national charities.

STRANAHAN HOUSE

Frank Stranahan House was the focal point of the tiny New River settlement in 1894. In 1901; the lower floor served as a trading post and the upper floor as a community hall. By 1906, Frank Stranahan business had expanded to include a general store and bank and he built a new building closer to the railroad, which had arrived in 1896. As Frank's businesses grew, so did the settlement. Named Fort Lauderdale after the army forts of the Second Seminole War the area was incorporated in 1911. The Historic Stranahan House Museum is host to 10,000 visitors each year, including thousands of Broward County school students. We spoke with Ellen Crane Schulman, Executive Director of the Stranahan House Museum who discussed the impact that the Stranahan House Museum had on the community and the many programs that's offered by the museum. Organization: Boating and Beach Bash for People with Disabilities

The Boating and Beach Bash was conceived in 2008 by members of the City of Boca Raton Advisory Board for People with Disabilities. The bash celebrated their 7th Anniversary on March 21st, under the auspices of the American Disabilities Foundation, Inc. The Bash has grown to become the largest, free fun-day in America for children, adults and veterans with physical and/or intellectual challenges, and caregivers. The highlight of the event is the opportunity to enjoy a boat ride aboard a flotilla of private yachts along the Intracoastal Waterway. Most boats are donated by members of Royal palm Yacht and Country Club in Boca Raton. The Bash is completely organized and run by community volunteers. We spoke with Jay Van Vechten, Executive Director and Judy Ake, Board Member about the Bash.
